JAPAN'S RECEPTION BRYAN PUNCTURES REACHES A CLIMAX

Great Spontaneous Outburst of Enthusiasm in Honor of American Visitors.

A TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

For Six Hours Principal Streets Packed With Paraders Carrying Lanterns.

Demonstration Eclipsed Anything Ever Seen in History of Tokio, Not Excepting Rejoicings Over Victories.

Tokio, Oct. 22.-The reception to the officers and men of the American battleship fleet reached a climax tonight, A spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm in which 50,000 of the populace participated, crowned the unbroken series of luncheons dinners, ball and garden parties that have marked the five days since the warships anchored in Yokohama harbor. The people of Tokio did honor to their American visitors in a demonstration that eclipsed any in the history of the city, not even excepting the celebrations that have followed the most signal successes of the Japanese army or navy.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

A torchlight procession, arranged as A torchlight procession, arranged as a surprise, was the concluding feature of the day. For nearly six hours the principal streets were packed with the paraders, who numbered upwards of 50,000 and who wound their way through the city like a crooked river of running fire. Every individual of the vast multitude carried a lantern and in addition the Japanese and American flags. At intervals, there were lcan flags. At intervals there were huge illuminated designs of costly and thrilling oriental design. Included in the line were dozens of bands of music. large and small, and corps of buglers from the Japanese army and naval sta-tions.

AMERICANS CHEERED EVERY-WHERE.

From the eminence and other point commanding a view of the city the scene was a striking one. Everywhere the Americans were cheered and no-where was the tuthusingm roused to a wilder or madder pitch than when a wilder or madder pitch than when the great procession reached the American embassy. For over an hour the pageant wound through the grounds, thering the admirals of the American fleet and calling by name for Ambassador O'Brien, who, as it chanced, was in attendance at the dinner of Count Komura. After the demonstration had extended over a considerable period Miss. O'Brien appeared and was received with evidences of the greatest popularity. Bands united in playing the American national hymn again and again and the bugiers saluted. After the entire procession had passed the entire procession had passed through the grounds the bands disrersed.
The official luncheon of the mayor of Tokio was an extremely elaborate af-fair. In addition to Rear Admiral Sperry and Ambassador O'Brien the guests, numbering 230 in all, included guests, numbering 230 in all, included Ccunt Komura, Vice Admiral Saito, Minister of Marine Baron Kaneko, president of the "America's Friends" sectety and other men distinguished in official and private life.

Mayor Ozaki toasted the president of the United States and Ambassador O'Erlen gave the health of the emperor. The mayor then delivered the royal address of welcome inscribed upon a dress of welcome, inscribed upon a long scroll beautifully illuminated, which he presented, after reading, to Admiral Sperry.

JAPAN AND AMERICA.

In this address Mayor Ozaki expressed the most sincere gratitude of the notion for America's evidence of a riendly support of Japan in sending he freet to Yokohama. He referred at ength to the history of the cordial clations that have existed between the countries, in part saying: This is what the great president of United States has said your navy stands for, 'a power never used except to liberate the oppressed or to assist the helpless.' The Japanese navy has fought only to save the country from azgression and possible extinction. Hence there is between us a great note of affinity.

Hence there is between us a great note of affinity.

"I may be touching a delicate subject, but I feel that I would be doing less than my duty if I failed to convey the assurance that in this welcome the real heart of the Japanese nation speaks to the heart of the great American nation. We ask you to send to your people this message:

"Japan believes that war between America and Japan would be a crime against the past, the present and the future of both countries. Your pation has always represented the west to us and the waters of the Pacific that separate, yet at the same time join us.

so us and the waters of the Pacific that separate, yet at the same time join us, because that ocean must be guarded by our two powers. It is a matter of inspiration to us to realize that our common point of meeting lies in the Pacific. We sincerely believe that the great navy which you are so proud to possess and we are so proud to welcome stands for those sublime principle. ome, stands for those sublime princl ples which in subreme moments car rise above the question of race and color. We are your friends forever."

SPERRY'S RESPONSE. The address was received with the wildest enthusiasm, as was also accreded the response of Rear Admiral Sperry, which was couched in the terms of the most feeling appreciation, with assurance of the continued friendship of America and with thanks for the welcome, the remembrance of which would be carried back to America by 15,000 representatives, each part of the bone and sinew of America and each anxious to wipe out all possible misunderstandings of Japan's attitude of profound sincerity.

TOKIO'S ENTERTAINMENT.

TOKIO'S ENTERTAINMENT. The municipality of Tokio today entertained the men and officers of the American fleet. Commercing at nom and until nightfall the guests of the city were kept constantly on the go. The mayor of Tokio filled the role of roct. host with great success. There was a luncheon at noon attended by Admiral Sperry, Ambassador O'Brien, half the members of the embassy staff and half of the naval officers on shore. At 1 o'clock Hibawaya was opened o 3,000 bluejackets and marines and here was every firm of entertainment for the smen. A total of 5,000 evitations were issued for this func-

Are Cause of Prosperity of The Farmers.

Likens Party's Position to That of Boy Who Wanted to Talk of Something Else Besides Work.

Ravenswood, W. Va., Oct. 22,-Although he did not retire until 2 o'clock this morning, a half hour after making his last speech, Wm. J. Bryan was up at sunrise and a short time afterwards was speaking to a large sized crowd here. As most of his auditors were farmers, the Democratic candidate proreeded to puncture the Republican contention, which he said was that the farmer owed his prosperity to the Re publican party. "I can prove to you," he said, "that the Republican party has nothing to do with fertility of soil or sunshine or rain, for if it did then there would be a trust on sunshine and meter would be a trust on sunshine and meter upon the sun. The fact that these things are not monopolies is conclusive proof that the Republican leaders exercise no control over them." He denied that the Republican party was responsible for the present prices of agricultural products. There was not a single thing, he said, that the Republican party has done that meant good for the farmers, for the farmer had been the real victim of every abuse that had grown up under Republican had been the real victim of every abuse that had grown up under Republican misrule. He declared that the Republican leaders had spent their time legislating in the interest of the financiers of Wall street, instead of listening to the plea of the farmers for security in their deposits. He maintained that Mr Taft's position in respect to guaranteeing deposits was that the insecurity of the depositor is the security of the banking system.

EXPLAINS TWO PLATFORMS.

Mason City, W. Va., Oct. 22.—William J. Bryan got a warm welcome here today. The representation from this city was augumented by a number of the inhabitants from Ohio, on the opposite side of the river. He gave a hurired explanation of the differences in the platforms of the two dominant parties and asserted that the Republican party driven to extremes was nges." He likened the position of the Republican party regarding the panic of last fall to that of the boy who was being led by his father from the house to the wood-shed. He wanted to talk about something else.

"If," he said, "Mr. Taft is so solicitate.

"If," he said, "Mr. Tart is so solicilitous about your future why has not he is so anxious to protect you from

The Republicans, he said, have no

SERIOUS WATER SHORTAGE IN NEW YORK STATE

New York, Oct. 22.—From all parts of the state come complaints of water shortage. So serious is the situation in many sections that extreme measures will soon be needed to prevent actual distress. In various places dairymen are compelled to drive their cows for miles to obtain water and in others it is being carried for miles to supply domestic wants. In the to supply domestic wants. In the Hudson and Walkill valleys and it Hudson and Walkill valleys and in the Catskill mountains the shortage is particularly serious. Wells and springs have gone dry and small streams which in the past have been sufficient to supply localities through which they flow are now wateriess for the first time in years. At Hghland Falls, adjoining the West Point military reservation the situation has become so serious that the government has permitted the tapping of the West Point water mains and the town is now being supplied from that source.

CANDIDATE KERN'S SON IS VERY ILL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—John W. Kern, the Democratle vice presidential nominee, whose campaign tour in New York and Obio was interrupted yesterday at Syracuse, N. Y., by news of the serious illness of his 8-year-old son, John W. Kern, Jr. reached Indianapolis this morning. He found the boy in a critical condition and there is slight probability that Mr. Kern will resume his campaign duties before next week when a number of speeches have been arranged for him in Indiana. He intends, if possible, to fill those engagements.

MARIANA ISLANDS.

Henceforth in Naval Orders Ladrones Will be So Designated.

Washintgon, Oct. 22.—Hereafter in all naval communications and orders the Mariana or Ladrone islands will be designated simply as the Mariana islands, instead of the Ladrones, by which they are most popularly known. The change in designation is the result of objection said to have been made by the inhabitants of Guam, where the navy has a station, and who dislike the pame Ladrones.

GREAT RAINFALL IN OKLAHOMA

Denies That Republican Policies Has Continued Three Days and Declares That His Election Marvin S. Taylor, Stenographer State is Threatened With Serious Floods.

Much Damage Done to Railroads--Many Farms Flooded and Families Compelled to Move Out.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 22.-Serious floods threaten portions of central and northern Oklahoma, the result of t steady downpour of rain that has evailed for the past three days and is still continuing. In some portions the rainfall has amounted almost to the proportions of a cloudburst. Numerous reports of loss of life, made yester day, remain unconfirmed, and are be lieved to be without foundation. No single report of loss of life has been verified.

The heavy rainfall began Monday morning, and at places rain has faller incessantly since then. It has caused the Canadian and the Arkansas rivers the Canadian and the Arkansas rivers, two of the largest streams in the state, to overflow their banks, doing much damage to farm lands, causing washouts on the railroads and in some instances threatening small towns.

At Tulsa and vicinity the Arkansas has risen 10 feet in the 24 hours ended this morning, and was then still coming up. This brought the stream to within three feet of the highest stage reached in the flood last spring. Many farms around Tulsa were flooded and farmers and their families were compelled to move out. The town of West Tribal is threatened with being pelled to move out. The town of West Total is threatened with being speeches required of him today at Lawrenceburg before & o'clock this morning. The day will be ended at Evansville.

With a voice restored by his day of rest Mr. Taft had this to say of Mr. Eryan at his first stop:

"Mr. Bryan is a bit sensitive because the Republicans are prophesying, not only Republicans but Democrats, too, in a business way, that if he is elected, it will retard business and that if the Republican ticket is elected it will improve business. He says that is offering bribery to workmen. It is not offering bribery to workmen. It is not offering bribery. It is merely stating a fact, and it is a fact that workingmen ought to know as well as business men. Mr. Bryan's election would be a menace to prosperity. We may not, if he is elected, expect that business will be resumed with that flow and that current of prosperity which we have had for the last II years."

"So long as I have lungs and a throat," declared Mr. Taft, "I propose to make

"I am very glad to see you this morning and to see you in such numbers; to see you in such good nature, and I hope I see you in enthusiastic support of the Republican party and the Republican ticket. I understand this is largely a farming community, and when I get into a community of farmers I feel as if they could convince me rather and I could convince them that the Republican ticket is out to be elected. If there is any farmer who can point out any reason why out to be elected. If there is any farmer who can point out any reason why the present administration of Theodore Roosevelt for seven years and the previous administration of William McKinley for five years ought to be changed, so far us the farming interests are concerned, I would like to have him do it. You can go back to beyond that time when the farming interests were prostrated, but during these two administrations under the Dingley bill you had a market which these two administrations under the Dingley bill you had a market which kept farm prices up and also the agricultural department has been devoting its attention to scientific agriculture and has been pointing the way how to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before. You can and you ought to feel toward the Republican administration a spirit of gratitude to continue its ministrations to the farmers of the country."

The crowds encountered were large and extremely cordial in their welcome to the candidate and in applauding his utterances.

Hansen has just completed a nice, modest little home for himself at this location. He had got all the window shades and electric light fixtures in, and with joy in his heart, and the gleaming glint of happy anticipation in his eye, was preparing to move in. The painters had just finished varnishing the hardwood floors, and everything was lovely—apparently.

But a wandering thief set his evil eye on the house. The shades were all down, so he fired a rock at one of the windows to see if there were any persons within. The pane promptly responded with a crash, but there was no indication of any one being at home. The thief feit secure. He picked out the broken pane, and entered the premises. His feet were covered with mud which he tracked all over the freshly varnished floors, but, of course, there was nothing to carry off. However, the fellow did not propose to depart empty handed, so he tore down all the window shades, tied them up in a bundle, and left for a pawnbroker's shop uptown to dispose of his ill-gotten plunder. The customary serenity of Mr. Hansen's mind was rudely disturbed yesterday, as he visited the new home. He notified the police who immediately went in hot pursuit of the spoller; but up to the hour of going to press, the blue coaled guardian of the law' had not unearthed their woodchuck.

Bring Up Your Tax Receipts Gentle. men-Still Another Candidate Joins the Cipher Column,

The "News" believes that tax payers have both the right to know and the interest to investigate.

From the tax rolls of Salt Lake county, by investigation of a "News" reporter, and from the tax rolls of other counties, by a request for information upon the treasurers of those counties, the "News" compiled a record of "American" tax payers, so that the people might know what individual interests they had in the community's expenses,

And today this list, as published Tuesday evening, was gone over again in the office of the county treasurer. It was found that it contained error Frank R. Christensen, candidate for county clerk on the "American" ticket, was credited with paying $7.40. For this error apologies are due to Mr. Christensen. Frank R. Christensen it appears, does not pay a cent. The Frank Christensen of the records proves, by reference to his address, to be another Christensen. Frank R. Christensen, however, it is understood, has property in the name of his wife, in whose name it is assessed and paid. At any rate, this is the statement that was made when he was arrested for illegally vot, ing at a bond election, whose qualified electors were restricted to those who shared the burden of the public tax. And today this list, as published TREASURER ABSENT.

An effort was made to have the expert accountants in the county treasurer's office go over this list, check up the "News" man's figures, and give a certified statement as to their correctness. But County Treasurer Groesbeck was not in his office and could not be located, and none of his deputies feit at liberty to take the time necessary to make this check.

The "News" wants the truth in the matter, that all the people may know.

If the Tribune will join in the search by sending a man to join with the "News" reporter in an inspection of the records, the results of the search will gladly be published, wherever they vary from the list given below.

Judge John A., Street has already cried "fraud" and then asked credit for his propotion of taxes paid by the firm of which he is a law partner; also firm of which he is a law partner; also for property assessed against "associates," unmentioned by him. The total of it all is what is wanted, and the judge's word will be taken for it.

Obviously the "News" cannot search the record of a man's holdings through corporate and company interests, and will have to depend on what declaration these men, whose record is here given as it appears after the individual name of each one on the county's books may choose to make as to other methods of sharing the burden of the country's support. country's support.

The facts are these: Many a home-owning cottager with a small downtown owning cottager with a small downtown business pays more taxes than the whole American ticket combined Only H. S. McCann, J. W. McKinney, A. S. Martin, C. J. Crabtree, Geo. J. Gibson, W. W. Armstrong, Ailen T. Sanford, C. I. Douglas, J. E. Darmer, Jerome Bourgard and J. Wollcott Thompson, pay sums that epual what the most humble suburban cottager must pay to the government's support. These total 11 candidates, out of 40.

Counting out Judge Street, through giving him credit for his share of his firm's taxes and ignoring the fact that he is credited with no personal property whatever, there remain 13 candidates not credited on the books with a single cent of taxes,—who are candidates not credited on the books with a single cent of taxes,—who are recorded as owning not one cent's worth of property that an assessor could locate in tangible form:

Here are the figures, as the best available information shows them, today. Will the Tribune join in an effort to make the total nx large as possible by rechecking the records?
