CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS.

The chairmen of the county delega tions are requested to meet Marshal Ben Heywood at the Young Men's Republican club in the Atlas block tomor-row morning at 9 o'clock to arrange for the parade and festivities attendant uron Republican day.

The Utah State band rendered stir-ringly patriotic selections, both before and during the sessions of the conven-

Sevier county did itself proud in presenting the "Roosevelt Junior quartet," four little girls dressed in blue, who pleased the delegates with their selections, The quartet was made up of the Misses Anna Anderson, Celestia Salisbury, Laura Ogden and Janet Jones, all from Richfield. They wore James Christiansen badges, Sevier's candidate for state treasurer.

Goy. Wells happened into the Theater shortly before 11 o'clock and mained long enough to admire the orations and content himself with the outlook for his nomination.

Cutler badges were much in evidence, many of the delegates displaying them in a manner which left no doubt as to where they stood,

The placards indicating where the county delegations were to sit, were made resplendently patriotic by small American flags.

The Brigham City band occupied seats on the stage and discoursed sweet music at frequent intervals.

"The 'News' is not justified in stat-ing that I am seeking re-election as Rebublican atate chairman,' said Mr. Anderson to a "News" representative today, "I was not after it two years ago, but when chosen by the committee, without solicitation on my part. I took up the work under many disadvan-tages, as a matter of duty to the par-ly. Whether or not that duty was well performed was shown in the result of the general election of 1902, when we scored a signal victory. The position of Republican state chairman is not one to be sought after, so far as my experience goes. There is compensaexperience goes. There is compensa-tion, but there is lots of hard work and Non, but there is fors of hard work and worry, and a wast amount of criticism, much of it unjust and even crust. Individual Rifle Shoot.

Fort Riley, Kan, Aug. 26.-What prob-ably is the greatest individual rifle shoot in the history of the United States be-gan here today at the national rifle range. There are nearly 300 entries, and it will take two days to shoot off the match. Firing was at 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards, slow fire, with 10 shots at each of four ranges for each competitor. Weather con-ditions continued favorable. The presentation of the cash prizes, trophies and medals in the national team shoot, which was finished yesterday, was made today by Capt. A. C. McComb. The New York team was given the first prize, consisting of the national trophy, which may be held for one year, and $500 in cush.
