ROBBERS MAKE EASY ESCAPE

Victim Too Frightened to Describe Unmasked Men and Cannot Help Officers.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOARD.

Perfect Organization and Elect Officers—City Improvement League Officers.

Ogden, April 9.—Thus far the search that has been vigorously prosecuted by the police and sheriff departments for the trio of robbers who held up and robbed the White Elephant gambling hall, on Twenty-fifth street in this city on Wednesday night, has been without success. So carefully executed were the plans of the robbers, who completely covered their tracks, that the officers are without one tangible clue to their identity. As three railroad tickets were purchased at the Union depot for Pocatello shortly before the departure of the Oregon Short Line train which was about 30 minutes after the robbery occurred it is the opinion of some of the officers that the robbers went north.

Immediately following the robbery pandemonium broke loose and none of the 35 men who were in the gambling house at the time of the robbery could give a good description of the robbers, who were without masks. The leader and one of the trio were very large men, clean shaven and wearing black hats while the third was a small man and wore a light mustache. The trio were very well dressed. All were so cool in their work that they have been pronounced professionals. Not one of the 35 men who were standing with their arms outstretched and with their faces to the wall made a move but what he received a gruff warning that if he looked around he would "get plugged."

A fortunate move of John H. Bauer, one of the proprietors of the place, enabled him to save a $700 diamond ring. As soon as he heard the command "throw up your hands and line up," he quickly removed the gem from his finger and dropped it in a cuspidor, and then took his place at the wall with the others. Another man in the house had just won a bet at roulette when the command to throw up arms was made, but he wanted the $10 gold piece that had been paid to him by the dealer, as he was reaching for it he received a crack across the wrist with a big revolver and was told to leave the money there.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOARD.

The newly appointed board of trustees of the State Industrial school held a meeting at the school Thursday afternoon, and perfected an organization. Harry Joseph was chosen president; John Walsh, vice president and Harold J. Peery, treasurer. William Archibald, of Summit county, was employed to take care of the school farm for the coming season.

A number of other changes which it is expected will take place were not acted upon at the meeting but it is very probable that another meeting will be held in the near future. One of the changes which has been announced was the appointment of a new secretary. The applicant for the position most frequently mentioned is A. L. Evans of North Ogden.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

A suit for a divorce has been filed in the district court by Lilian M. Barton against Edward E. Barton upon the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. The couple were married in Ogden, June 16, 1906, and have a child of which the plaintiff asks the custody together with general relief.

CITY IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

The Ogden City Improvement league has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: J. C. Nye, president; C. E. Hollingsworth, first vice president; George H. Davis, second vice president; J. S. Lewis, secretary, L. S. Hodgson, treasurer. After the election of officers the league spent some time discussing plans for the coming year toward beautifying the city.

At the recent meeting of the chamber of commerce William M. Bostaph was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. H. Browne. A vote of thanks was taken in deference to the faithful services of Mr. Browne and J. T. Rushmer, a former member of the board of directors.

A resolution was passed requesting the city council to place signs designating the names of the streets upon the intersections of the streets.

Simon Bamberger, president of the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad, was elected an honorary member of the chamber of commerce by a unanimous vote.

VICTIM OF TYPHOID.

Thomas Cowlishaw, Jr. aged 29 years, died at the family residence early Thursday morning, from typhoid fever from which he has been ill for about a month. The remains were removed to the Larkin undertaking parlors for funeral arrangements, the date of which will be announced later.

VECOS HEARING FOR MURDER.

This morning in the commissioners' room at the courthouse, before Judge Murphy, the preliminary hearing of Nicholas Vecos on the charge of murder in the first degree, for the killing of John Contos, was commenced. The testimony is similar to that offered at the inquest. The hearing will be concluded this afternoon, and at its conclusion Vecos will be held to answer to the district court for the crime.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Ball at Weber Academy—This evening at the Weber academy the domestic art department will give its annual ball, which is expected to be a very largely attended and most successful affair. The young ladies of the department have taken unusual pains in preparing for the event and it is expected their efforts will be marked with success.

Guardianship Petition—Catharine Malone has filed in the probate division of the district court a petition for letters of guardianship in the matter of the estates of her children Lauretta, Geraldine and John Malone.

Opening of Hot Springs—The Ogden Canyon Natural Hot Soft Mineral Springs, located at the mouth of Ogden canyon, was formally opened to the public last evening under the management of J. H. Kurtz, with a splendid musical program by a band and orchestra. The hotel, cafe and buffet have been thoroughly remodeled and are unexcelled in any resort in this part of the state.

Derelict Show Tabooed—One of the most unique moves in the theatrical line in Ogden was the action taken by Manager C. W. Lippincott and Proprietor Kunkelles of the Lyceum vaudeville house in this city in closing the house for a week. Because the show sent out by the billing company was not up to the usual standard of shows the house has been receiving, they closed the house after one performance had been given, and the so-called performers were sent "traveling." It is stated that the house will open Monday evening.

Prize Fight Stopped—The promoters of a gymnasium on Twenty-fourth street attempted to "pull off" a prize fight Wednesday evening, without securing a license from the city or a permit from the police department, and as a result the affair did not take place. Chief Browning "got wind of the affair" and repaired to the club rooms, where he found everything in readiness for the bout. Membership tickets good only on that date had been sold for $1 each, and about 75 were present. When the chief of police appeared and stopped the fight there was considerable disappointment among the fight fans, but without any comments they quietly dispersed.

Constipation

Should not be neglected. It leads to more serious troubles. It shows that the important functions of the liver are imperfectly performed. The best medicine to take for it is the mild, gentle and purely vegetable cathartic, Hood's Pills, which act on the liver and bowels, cure biliousness, constipation, morning and sick headache, break up colds, relieve uncomfortable fullness after dinner

Hood's Pills

Are prepared by C. I. HOOD CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists and sent by mail. Price, 25c.

BP. PETER MADSEN HONORED

On 85th Anniversary—Death of Robt. Liddiard—Indian War Monument.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, April 9.—The family and many friends of Bishop Peter Madsen, a veteran of the Danish-Prussian war of '48, and Bishop of Lake View for 30 years, celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday, April 6, at the Lake View hall. There were present 90 descendants of the venerable gentleman, consisting of children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. A very enjoyable time was had, the time being spent in speech making, singing, dancing and feasting. Bishop Madsen is enjoying the best of health and no doubt will be present at many more occasions of this kind.

Mr. Madsen left Denmark for Utah on Christmas day, 1856, with his wife and three children and arrived here late in the summer of 1857; two children died on the way and the surviving child, M. P. Madsen, of Lake View, nearly died from cholera on the boat coming up the Mississippi from New Orleans. After arriving in Utah, Mr. Madsen located near Utah lake and became the pioneer fisherman. He continued in the fish business, which is still carried on by his sons, till a few years ago. He was prominent in Church work, and filled a mission to his native land in 1870, besides crossing the plains twice as emigrants. He became acknowledged authority on the fish business he was brought in contact with many government officials who came here in the interest of fish culture, and for other governmental purposes, by all of whom he was highly esteemed. Dr. David Starr Jordan, of the Leland Stanford University, was one of them; he was here 25 years ago. On his last visit to Provo, on a lecture tour he visited Bishop Madsen, and referred to him in most complimentary terms in the lecture.

INDIAN WAR MONUMENT.

Over five hundred dollars has been subscribed by the ranks for a monument to the Provo Indian war veterans. Jesse Knight started the list with $100 and John R. Twelves followed with $50.

It is the intention to have the monument of bronze with the figure of a veteran on top, the whole being 25 feet high. The estimated cost is $25,000. The place of its erection has not been decided upon. It will probably be in the west square which was the center of the city when the Indian war veterans were busy guarding the people. It is understood that Mayor Decker and members of the council are willing to have the monument placed there. There is also talk of the monument being placed at the intersection of Academy avenue and Center street, however this will be decided by the veterans. There are about 100 Indian veterans now living in Provo. The names of those who have died will be collected and with the living placed on the monument.

INVALIDS IMPROVING.

Mrs. J. M. Jensen who has undergone an operation at the Groves L. D. S. hospital for an internal disorder is expected home tomorrow.

Mrs. Joshua F. Dunn has returned to her home from the Provo general hospital, where she underwent an operation for an internal trouble.

Frank Miller, a tramp, was brought down from Colton yesterday morning suffering from a severe scalp wound received while he attempted to board a train at Colton. His wound was dressed by County Physician Pyne.

A benefit ball will be given Tuesday night at the Monart pavilion for the benefit of the family of the late Frank Tucker, formerly city marshal of Provo, who died from the accidental discharge of a pistol, while acting as deputy sheriff several years ago.

The Provo band gave an excellent open air concert on the bank corner last evening, attended by a large number of citizens.

COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Utah County Teachers' institute will be held (tomorrow) Saturday, in the B. Y. U. State Supt. Nelson and Miss Pollock, primary supervisor of the Salt Lake City schools will be in attendance and take part in the exercises.

DEATH OF ROBERT LIDDIARD.

Robert Liddiard, a respected resident of this city, died yesterday morning from appendicitis. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Liddiard and was born in England 34 years ago. He came here with his parent when four years of age and has since resided in this city. A wife and two children and numerous relatives survive him. The funeral will be held in the Baptist church, Saturday, commencing at 1 o'clock.

SUIT FOR ACCOUNTING.

Gertrude Roylance Harward, administratrix of the estate of Ray C. Harward, deceased, has commenced suit against L. J. Harward to compel an accounting of a railroad construction business in which he was a partner with Ray C. Harward.

ENLARGED HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Assistant County Attorney Rydalch went to Springville yesterday for the purpose of conferring with the state superintendent of public instruction and the trustees of Springville, Mapleton and Thistle in the question of having Mapleton and Thistle attached to the Springville high school district.

LOGAN.

The "News" is Delivered by Carrier in Logan Every Night (Sunday excepted) at 75 Cents Per Month. All payments and complaints regarding delivery, should be made to F. A. Mitchell, Agent for Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News, 60 E. Center Street. Phone 87-d Independent.

DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION.

Testimonial to Elder M. J. Ballard—Biggs-Allen Nuptials.

Logan, April 9.—Justice William Brangham imposed a $25 fine on a saloonkeeper this morning for selling liquor to minors. Justice Brangham also fined a minor $5 today for being in a poolroom.

Miss Phoebe Biggs of Mountain Home was married yesterday to Mr. Marion Allen of Lewiston. Justice Brangham officiated.

Judge Maughan opened the district court today. The first case called was the state vs. William Ford, L. Swift and James Wilson, charged with burglary in the second degree.

A public testimonial will be given in honor of Elder Mervin J. Ballard in the tabernacle tomorrow night, prior to his leaving to assume the presidency of the Northwestern States mission.

John Barns, an aged pioneer of Wellsville, died today.

Egbert Biggs, for a long time a citizen of Wellsville, died in Mount Sterling last Friday.

COULD NOT CURE WEEPING ECZEMA

Disease Began over Ear and Spread till Face and Neck were Raw—Itching, Inflammation and Soreness were Terrible—Lasted Over a Year and All Treatments Failed

UNTIL CUTICURA AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck clear up to my hair were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema itched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. The disease began in the fall and I did everything for it until the next winter. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. I still use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills once in a while to cleanse the blood. I am very thankful that I tried Cuticura, and I can recommend it to any one. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, '07."

AMERICAN FORK.

DEATH OF BENJ. F. COATES.

Veteran of Seventy-Eight Closes Eventful Career.

Special Correspondence.

American Fork, Utah Co., April 8.—Benjamin Franklin Coates, one of the early pioneers of Utah, died on Saturday last after a five years' illness from paralysis, and his funeral was held here yesterday, which was largely attended, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. Coates was born in Alexandria, Sept. 29, 1831; was baptized a member of the Mormon Church in Indiana territory in 1845, coming to Utah in December of the same year. In 1852 he married Rebecca Angelin, in Salt Lake City, and they went to Grantsville the same year; thence to Fort Bridger in 1857, and returned to Grantsville in 1858. They went to Texas in 1859, and returned to Utah in 1866, living for awhile at Coalville. From 1867 to 1879 they lived at St. George, in the latter year they came to American Fork. His wife and six children survive.

PARK CITY.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Of H. M. Short and Wm. Lindsay—Death of Chas. McDonald.

Special Correspondence.

Park City, April 8.—Funeral was held yesterday in the Dewey theater over the remains of Mr. H. M. Short, a popular business man of this camp. Mr. Short came here seven years ago, served as city councilman for two terms under the former administration, and last year he was elected school trustee. The school were closed that afternoon and the flags were displayed at half mast in honor Mr. Short was born in Australia in 1861, and leaves a surviving wife and one brother and a host of friends. Services were conducted under the auspices of the Elks and Woodmen of the World. Interment was held in Glenwood cemetery.

Funeral was held today over the remains of William Lindsay, whose body was brought from Winnemucca, Nev., where he died, deceased was 38 years old and unmarried, but leaves a number of near relatives in this city.

Charles McDonald, an old timer of this camp, died last night at his residence on the Sand Ridge. Deceased had worked many years in the mines here. He is survived by his wife and one child. The remains will be sent to Ogden, where burial will take place.

Fire visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ray Saturday morning at 10, a second boy.

KAYSVILLE.

HONORED PIONEER SUMMONED.

Levi Taylor, Sen., Closes Busy Career At Seventy-Nine.

Kaysville, Davis Co., April 8.—Levi Taylor, Sr., one of the Church veterans of Missouri and Illinois days, a pioneer of Utah and one of the first settlers of Kaysville, died on April 6 of pneumonia, after an illness of two weeks. He was born in Bowling Green, Ky., Sept. 3, 1830. He was the son of James and Elizabeth Taylor and a kinsman of ex President Zachary Taylor. He joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1849, and moved to Missouri. Remaining there a short time, he then moved to Nauvoo, Ill., whence he was expelled with the Mormon people in 1846, and came to Utah in the early '50's.

On July 23, 1850, he married Emmeline Owen, who, with eight children survive him, two having preceded him to the great beyond. The children are Mrs. Joseph Boyer of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Dora Stroemquist of San Pedro, N. M.; Mrs. William H. Wilkinson of Salt Lake City; Levi Taylor, Jr., of Kaysville; Mrs. John Southworth of Oakley, Ida.; Mrs. William Mayfield of Farmington; William Taylor of Ogden and Mrs. James D. Pardee of Salt Lake City. One son, Orson A. Taylor, died a year and a half ago. Twenty-six grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Taylor held many offices of trust and was highly esteemed in the community. He was for many years city marshal of Kaysville, and later watermaster, being a most efficient officer in both positions.

The funeral will be held in the Kaysville meetinghouse on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

LEHI.

PIONEER GOES TO HER REST.

Mrs. Adelaide Roberts and Mrs. Elizabeth Haywood Summoned.

Special Correspondence.

Lehi, Utah Co., April 8.—Mrs. Adelaide Ford Roberts one of the pioneer residents of Lehi, died yesterday afternoon of general debility, aged 78. Her husband died a number of years ago. She is the mother of 10 children and leaves a large posterity. Funeral services will be held from the new tabernacle Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

The funeral of Elizabeth Cook Haywood, who died Monday last, was held from the First ward meetinghouse Wednesday afternoon. The speakers were Elders George Comer, Jesse Smith and James Clough who eulogized the life and labors of the deceased.

Mrs. Haywood was born in Bradford, England in 1829, married in 1842; joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1842, and came to Utah in 1852. She is the mother of 14 children and leaves two grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren. She was a kind and loving wife, mother and friend, and a faithful Latter-day Saint.
