

UTAH MEN STAND HIGH IN WASHINGTON

Attorney Chas. B. Stewart Talks On Utah's Part in National Affairs.

SENATOR SMOOT VERY ACTIVE

Senior Senator Received Everywhere With Great Respect and Consideration—Danger to Wool Industry.

Mr. Charles B. Stewart of the law firm of Stewart & Stewart of this city, who has just returned from Washington, was seen this morning by a representative of the "News." Mr. Stewart talked interestingly of conditions at the capital, and the part Utah is playing in national affairs. Together with Messrs. E. H. Callister and John H. Seely, he went to Washington for the purpose of presenting before the president and chief forester and members of Congress the western position with regard to what is known as the Burkett bill, a measure designed to give control of large tracts of mountainous dry lands to individuals or corporations on a leasing basis, and which, Mr. Stewart said, would result in the monopolization of the grazing lands by a few and the ultimate destruction of the sheep industry in Utah, and the other western sheep growing states.

TAKE UP SPEED LIMIT.
The matter of speed limit to be observed on trains hauling stock to market was also taken up by the delegation, who, with representatives from other western states appeared before the interstate commerce committee and presented the side of the sheep raiser. A speed of 15 miles per hour was favored by the delegation, and the committee promised that the matter should be given full consideration. No requirement as to speed now exists as to stock trains, and railroads may run them at five miles or 20 miles, as they may elect.

UTAH MEN STAND HIGH.
"In our experience at the capital," said Mr. Stewart, "I was greatly impressed with the standing among the officials and heads of department of the Utah congressional delegation, particularly of Senator Smoot. Undoubtedly Senator Smoot has a very high standing with the president and his fellow senators, and with the heads of the various departments. He is received everywhere with the greatest courtesy, and was accorded a willing and respectful hearing in every department we visited. Congressman Howell accompanied us in our visit to the state department committee, and he was well received, while Senator Sutherland expressed his willingness to assist us in any way."

SENATOR SMOOT ACTIVE.
"When we called on Senator Smoot and told him what we wanted, he immediately put on his hat and went with us to the office of President Roosevelt, to whom he introduced us. The President gave us a respectful hearing, and said he would look into the matter personally. We went next to the office of the Chief of the Bureau of Land Office, Mr. Clegg, and also gave him an interested hearing. And in all these visits it was very apparent that Senator Smoot is regarded with great respect by these men, who have the destiny of the government in their hands. Everywhere the utmost consideration was shown the Utah senator, and in my opinion, his influence is great and he has been able to do a great deal of good for our state. He is working very hard to get through Congress his dry farming bill, but if the Burkett measure becomes a law, the industry is now second in importance in this state, and such a blow would be fatal to the interests of thousands of people, who depend upon it for their subsistence."

MADE NO DIFFERENCE.
"Although I am a Democrat," Mr. Stewart continued, "Senator Smoot showed me the greatest consideration and it is my opinion that he would work just as hard for any person, no matter what his political or religious affiliations, who should come to him from his native state with a request for assistance. He is a broad minded, able man, and is doing a great deal of good for the state."

ORGANIZATION NEEDED.
"I wish to state also," concluded Mr. Stewart, "that if ever the woolgrowers of the state and of the west needed a strong organization it is right now. The entire wool industry stands in danger of complete annihilation if the Burkett measure becomes a law. The industry is now second in importance in this state, and such a blow would be fatal to the interests of thousands of people, who depend upon it for their subsistence."

LOST BOY RETURNED

Police Pick Up a 5-Year-Old Youngster Down Town.

A 5-year-old youngster answering to the name of Melvin Stanley Maxwell caused his dotting mother considerable worry.

The Last Great Fire

Did not cause so much suffering to the homeless as many a case of eczema causes its miserable victim. And the relief fund did not bring so much joy as Hood's Sarsaparilla has given thousands of times, in relieving the agonizing itching and burning of eczema-tortured people.

In a Bed of Fire.—"I lived in a bed of fire for years, owing to blood poison, all over my body, itching intensely. Hospital treatment did not help me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and continued taking it until I was entirely cured." Mrs. J. T. WILLIAMS, Carbondale, Pa.

Tied the Hands.—"We had to tie the hands of our two-year-old son on account of eczema on his face and limbs. No medicine helped until we used Hood's Sarsaparilla which soon completely cured." Mrs. A. VAN WYCK, 125 Montgomery St., Paterson, N. J.

worry this morning. Mrs. Maxwell brought Melvin down town from their home on Ninth East and Fifteenth South and the lad lost no time in losing himself. He was picked up by a policeman and taken to headquarters. After a questioning bout which lasted for an hour or so the police learned the name of the child and managed to locate the anxious mother.

DEATH OF MRS. SIZEMORE.

Mrs. Mamie Sparks Sizemore, daughter of D. C. Sparks and sister of C. D. Sparks chief engineer of the Deseret News building died at the home of her father, 301 East Eleventh South, of spinal meningitis, after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Sizemore recently came from her home in Georgetown, Idaho, to visit relatives.

Funeral services will be held at her father's residence Wednesday afternoon. The remains will be taken to Nephi for burial.

RED FIR IN WISCONSIN.

The local office of the forest service, has secured from California, two gallons of selected Red Fir seed for shipment to the Agricultural college at St. Anthony, Park, Minnesota, for experimental cultivation there. The Red Fir does not grow east of the Rocky Mountains, but the authorities at Minnesota believe the tree can be made to grow and flourish in Wisconsin. So an attempt is being made. The forest service people will watch the experiment with much interest.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

County Attorney's Office Has Prepared A Complaint Against Mrs. Macon E. Reeves.

The county attorney's office has prepared a complaint against Mrs. Macon E. Reeves, a colored woman, charging her with having caused the death of her infant. It was believed that the baby was strangled to death. The papers in the case will not be served until the woman leaves the hospital, where she is convalescing from a serious illness.

Reeves, the husband of the woman, has been released from the county jail, where he had been since the latter part of last week, pending an investigation. He was detained as a witness, but cannot testify against his wife without consent, as he has been living apart for some time.

UTAH LAKE HIGH.

The condition of Utah lake is assuming serious proportions. The level is one foot above the normal point, with 700 feet of water running to waste daily through the river which is now running bank high for most of its length. The operating department of the Rio Grande road is looking askance at the rising waters as they approach the right of way near Battle Creek flats, as little further rise, and the softening of the road bed, will result in a necessary state slow running for the time.

"DOLL" GETS MARRIED.

Actress With "The Toy Maker" Company Marries Los Angeles Man.

Ivy Pollard and Miles S. Gregory obtained a license to wed from the county clerk's office this morning.

Now this is not an ordinary wedding. Miles Pollard, a comedian today was a "doll" in the comic opera now at the Salt Lake theater, "The Toy Maker."

Miles Gregory is a Los Angeles real estate and club man. He and Mrs. Pollard met in Los Angeles last summer and whatever town the company has visited since that date there could be found the persistent Miles.

His advances were not all unwelcome and upon reaching Salt Lake Miss Pollard had capitulated and the pair journeyed down to the county building this morning to get the license. They will be married in the Presbyterian church some time this afternoon and right after the wedding ceremony there is going to be "big doings" in the line of a little party, either at the theater or the hotel.

The members of the troupe are planning a sort of things in honor of the "happy couple." Perhaps Daphne Pollard, the leading "doll," tells about it best. Here is what she said while planning this afternoon: "Yes, Ivy's going to take the leap—because this is leap year you know. He's a prince and says she's a dream, that his sister of mine, I've another sister, now Mrs. King. She's our property woman and the three of us have been together for years. Now Ivy's gone and says she's better—art or married life. If I take the critics' word for it I'll do this journey alone. I'll take my sister's words for it. He married her in the olden days. And its going to be two votes soon. Oh, well, we all wish Sia good luck and I know they're going to live happily ever afterwards. She's flying around town now getting proper ringings. In fact, we're all upset and will be glad when the matinee is over so the big doings may be planned can state."

UNFIT FOR FOOD.

Adolph Levy Accused of Offering for Sale Unclean Fruit.

At the instance of City Food Inspector Frazier, a complaint has been prepared by the county attorney's office against Adolph Levy, charging the latter with offering for sale dirty fruit.

The inspector accuses many dealers in fruits, such as figs and dates, of displaying their goods, uncovered, so that dust and dirt are absorbed in such quantities as to render the fruit not only unwholesome, but dangerous.

JOE SULLIVAN IS TO BE TRIED HERE

Petition for a Change of Venue is Overruled in District Court.

BY JUDGE GEO. G. ARMSTRONG

Accused Murderer of Officer Ford in Court Exhibits No Emotion At Decision.

Joe Sullivan, charged with the murder of Police Officer C. H. Ford, will be tried by a jury chosen from Salt Lake county, the petition for a change of venue having been overruled by Judge George G. Armstrong this morning. The decision of the court was given in a very few words, and was to the effect that sufficient reasons had not been advanced by the defendant in his contention that he could not have a fair and impartial trial by a jury selected from Salt Lake county, and therefore the motion that the case be tried either in Summit county or Tooele county would be denied.

Sullivan was in court when the decision of Judge Armstrong was rendered, having been brought in from the state prison by Deputy Sheriff Joe Sharp. The prisoner exhibited no signs of disappointment at the judgment passed upon his application, evidently not having been over-confident that the unusual request would be granted. Arguments were made for and against the motion for a change of venue Monday morning of this week, without, however, the defendant under advisement until this morning.

BANKS MUST PAY LICENSE.

Several banks of this city have been notified by the license assessor to take out a license in the conduct of business. It is contended by the assessor that banks are subject to the provisions of law governing merchants, but heretofore have gone scot free in the matter of license. Not only are the banks to pay in the future, but the assessor has expressed a determination to collect from that direction in years past. A banker's license is scheduled on the capital, surplus and undivided profits.

PATENTS ALLOWED.

(Special to the "News.")
Washington, D. C., March 4.—The following patents have been issued: Utah—S. I. Clawson, Salt Lake City, fuse arrester; D. J. Kelley, Salt Lake City, removing cake material from pressure filters; G. Morby, Robinson, smoke purifier.

LATE LOCALS.

Today's Bank Clearings.—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $144,866.95, an increase of $94,418.50 over the same day last year.

Heir to the Architect.—Lewis T. Cannon is wearing a broad smile today, despite the stormy weather. The occasion is the wedding of his son, who arrived and was welcomed.

New Orchard Company.—Articles of incorporation of the Riverside Farm & Orchard company, of Cornish, Cache county, were filed today in the office of the secretary of state. The concern is capitalized for $50,000 in shares of the par value of $25 each. Robert Murdoch is president; A. M. Thomas, vice president; Zeph Thomas, secretary; J. A. Boxel, treasurer, and these, with Warren K. Burnham, form the board of directors. The company will engage in a general fruit raising and canning business.

Mines Working Capacity.—Central Coal & Coke officials report all the miners at work that can now be employed, and the mines shipping steadily week after week. The No. 1 mine product is entirely taken by the railroad, at present, as it burns the freest and quickest. The hardest and longer consuming coal is mined from No. 4, as the vein there was subjected to a greater pressure in the carboniferous period than the veins in the adjoining mines, and so more nearly approximates anthracite formation.

The program will include a sketch, a club singing exhibition, a lightning sketch artist, a monologist, a ventriloquist, and several vocal and instrumental soloists.

Board of Control of National Irrigation Congress Writes to Gov. Cutler.

The sixteenth National Irrigation congress will meet at Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 29 to Oct. 3, 1908, and the board of control has addressed a communication to Gov. Cutler, asking that Utah make an exhibit at the exposition to be held at that time. Following is a paragraph of the letter:

"The great State of Utah was the pioneer in the scientific irrigation method of this country. Your state has been successful in competition with other states at a number of irrigation congresses and exhibitions held in connection therewith. We do not know when your legislature is in session or what officials of your state are empowered to undertake the installation of a state exhibit at an exposition of this sort, but if there is any way in which you can bring about the bringing of an exhibit from the State of Utah it will be the pleasure of the board of control to send you every facility for its proposed installation in buildings which are to be especially erected for the exposition. I know that you have been interested in irrigation, and it is necessary for me to write you with reference to the great importance of the policy of the national government outlined in the national resolution act. You are very anxious to have the State of Utah make an exhibit here and will certainly appreciate any effort, official or personal, which you may use in bringing about the sending of a proper exhibit to the congress."

It is further pointed out in the communication that the government will be officially represented in the congress by the presence of several cabinet officers, and that the government will also make a large exhibit at the industrial exposition, which will be held concurrently with the congress and continuing until the 10th of October.

Gov. Cutler said today that whether or not Utah would make an exhibit as requested by the congress officials would depend upon individual interest in the matter. For Utah's showing at the Sacramento convention, which brought so much glory to the state, the legislature appropriated $4,000 and $6,000 more were subscribed by persons interested in the project. There will be no means of getting the state to do anything for the Albuquerque congress, as the legislature has not met in the meantime. If the people of the state consider the enterprise to be of sufficient importance to induce payment of the subscription, all good and well, says the executive, but otherwise the desired exhibit cannot be made.

WOMEN IN BLACK DEPART

Notified by Chief of Police to Cease Soliciting Funds They Quit the Wilson.

The two women in black, who have been "doing the town," in aid of the Joseph Home of Kansas City, gave up their elegant suite of apartments at the Wilson this morning, and departed for fresher fields and pastures new. Officials of the Salt Lake Associated Charities followed them up, until Chief of Police Pitt told them they must cease soliciting funds. So they left the city. According to all accounts the women harvested quite a sum here, as they did in San Francisco, by working on the sensibilities of charitably inclined people, and there are many such in Salt Lake.

We are pleased to call attention to the open letter of the Elgin Dairy, in this issue and note that the recent article, appearing in local print, regarding the Elgin Dairy, but better being shipped from the east to this market, cannot in any wise be attributed to them, since they neither buy, sell or handle any milk, but are a home institution, handling and dealing in home products exclusively and as such is uncompromisingly opposed to the importation of impure and adulterated butter.

SLEUTH WILL SUE

Coughlin Intends to Secure Payment For His Shadow Work.

J. W. Coughlin of the Salt Lake Secret Service agency, recently opened by him, declares that he will this afternoon plant suit against Harry J. Robinson. The suit will be to force payment of a bill for about $90 which Coughlin declares is due for sleuthing services duly rendered to the said Robinson, claiming to be an agent of W. S. McCornick.

The exact nature of this service was given out at length yesterday by the sleuth. His act followed the giving out of letters by Mr. Robinson, which he demanded that Coughlin threaten to turn over the matter to Mr. McCornick. Now Coughlin declares he will follow the matter still further by demanding payment through the courts from Robinson.

Who Robinson represented in his activities is still a mystery. W. F. Adams, who was asked over the phone today if he wished to say anything concerning the case, replied that he had never known Coughlin, never heard of his employment, and was in no way responsible for him. Mr. Robinson could not be located today to be interviewed. He is quoted as saying his only objection to paying the bill was that it amounted to $90, when he had employed the sleuth under a distinct price of $8 per day with no extras, which would have brought his bill to $48.

NINE HOUR LAW GOES INTO EFFECT

After Being Fought and Blocked At Every Turn the Bill Finally Passed.

OPPOSED BY THE RAILROADS

Claim the Enforcement of Its Provisions Would Drive Them Into Bankruptcy—Commission to Take Up.

After being discussed, fought and blocked at every turn, the "nine-hour" law finally passed and today it goes into effect. Its fate is not certain, however, as the railroads are not through with their efforts to have it changed in several ways. The new law is regarded by the railroads as the most drastic ruling ever laid out for them to follow. To follow it is impossible, they further claim. Under its provisions a railroad cannot keep their employees at work longer than nine hours at a stretch. This naturally means most to trainmen and telegraphers.

The contention raised by the corporations against the bill will be historical. The passage of the rate bill was fought bitterly and was probably the only move getting more attention than that received by the "nine-hour" law.

WOULD BANKRUPT RAILROADS.

Railroads say there are not enough men in this country qualified to occupy the thousands of positions which must be created if the law is obeyed. And under present industrial conditions, further argue the railroads, it will drive them all to bankruptcy to follow the regulations of the law.

So strong and constant have been the complaints of the railroads that the interstate commerce commission has said it would hold a meeting at which the labor unions and railroad companies will present their respective sides of the questions. For this reason the "nine hour" law's life is very uncertain.

INTERESTING FIGURES.

How Nine Western Roads Stand in regard to Earnings, Etc.

To the Wall Street Journal is due great credit for the elaborate tables which it has prepared on the railroad situation. The figures most interesting to Salt Lake and the west generally are included in a table showing the mileage, gross earnings, operating expenses and net earnings of nine western railroads. These figures follow:
Chicago & Northwestern—Mileage, 7,550.64; gross earnings, $68,878,931; expenses, $44,789,025; net earnings, $24,089,906.
Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul—Mileage, 7,049.46; gross earnings, $60,548,554; expenses, $39,400,410; net earnings, $21,148,144.
Chicago, Burlington & Quincy—Mileage, 8,882.40; gross earnings, $52,473,250; expenses, $35,994,987; net earnings, $16,478,263.
Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific—Mileage, 7,780.26; gross earnings, $60,238,419; expenses, $41,044,142; net earnings, $19,194,277.
Atchafalaya, Top & Santa Fe—Mileage, 9,153.90; gross earnings, $72,217,527; expenses, $46,914,218; net earnings, $25,303,309.
Great Northern—Mileage, 5,982.31; gross earnings, $55,144,402; expenses, $32,562,775; net earnings, $22,581,627.
Northern Pacific—Mileage, 5,443.67; gross earnings, $58,554,827; expenses, $37,964,215; net earnings, $20,590,612.
Union Pacific—Mileage, 5,644.55; gross earnings, $76,940,728; expenses, $40,574,589; net earnings, $36,366,139.

DEMURRAGE BUREAU.

Utah Car Service Association Has Been Broadened and Widened.

The Intermountain Demurrage Bureau with C. H. Griffin at its head, is an organization formed in this city yesterday. It is not exactly new, either, but is a broadened, bigger Utah Car Service association. The names have been changed and Mr. Griffin will have charge of the enforcement of freight laws and rates maintained by the various carriers (Oregon Short Line system; Southern Pacific as far as Reno, Nev., and Keeler, Cal.; Denver & Rio Grande to Grand Junction, Colo.; Salt Lake Route to Las Vegas, Nev.; Las Vegas & Tonopah, Tonopah & Goldfield, Bullfrog & Goldfield, and the Sanpete Valley road, the latter a part of the Denver & Rio Grande system).

SPIKE AND RAIL.

Col. S. M. Shaddock of the B. & O., at Denver, is here today.

J. Lambourne of the Harriman offices in Ogden is visiting relatives and friends in this city today.

F. A. Wadleigh, assistant general passenger agent of the Rio Grande at Denver, leaves for his home tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Wadleigh is visiting with friends while her husband goes over passenger affairs in this city.

Pneumatic gates are being installed to prevent vehicles from crossing the O. & L. yards on First South street. One pair is now being put up; four others will be put up on Second South at the various "West" streets.

A. F. Brewer, who has just left the Rio Grande to accept a "high up" position with the Southern Pacific, is in this city for a few days. He will visit here and then proceed to the coast. Mr. Brewer says he is not in a position to announce just what position he is to occupy but that he has received a merited boost goes without saying. His friends in this city and Denver are anxious to hear just what office he has drawn.
