OGDEN-UTAH HOT SPRINGS COMPANY. This road is all in Weber county, listed as follows:

Main and side tracks$ Real estate$	7,000
Depots, etc	7,227 1,500
Total$	17,527

STREET RAILWAY COMPANIES.

The street railway companies are listed in their total assessments as follows:

The rolling stock of the various steam railways is given in bulk. It will be apportioned to the various counties by the board, at a date not later than July 1, when the notices will be sent to the counties.

When the board heard complaints, the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Utah & Northern, Rio Grande Western, Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs, and Sanpete Valley railways, and the Western Union and Pullman companies, all asked for a reduction, but with a few slight changes the assessment remained as it was. The first session of the board this year was held May 27 and sessions have been held since that time up to the present as the business of the board required.

THE EUPOREAN MISSION.

[Millennial Star, June 11.]

ARRIVALS.— The following missionaries from Utah and Idaho arrived in Liverpool, per the Guion steamer Arizona, June 5, 1894: H. A. Tuckett, of Salt Lake City; James W. Saville, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake county; and Edward Tuttle, of Oakley, Idaho. Accompanying them was Prof. James E. Talmage, who is on a visit in the interest of the Deseret Museum, of Utah. He will attend the meeting of the Museums Association, in which the Deseret Museum holds a membership and is entitled to a vote. The meeting this year will be held in Dublin, June 26. Prof. Talmage will also attend a meeting of the Royal Microscopical Society to be held in London, June 20.

APPOINTMENTS.-Elder H. A. Tuck ett has been appointed to laber as traveling Elder in the London conference.

Elder James W. Saville has been appointed to labor as traveling Elder in the Liverpool conference.

in the Liverpool conference. Elder Edward Tuttle has been appointed to labor as traveling Elder in the Norwich conference.

BROUGHT HOME.

PLEASANT GROVE, June 22.—Last night the body of a little child of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Brown of this place, who are now in Ann Arbor, Michigan, attending college, was brought home for burial. The little one died there a few days ago from scarlet fever. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been at Ann Arbor for a year, and are greatly distressed at the loss they have sustained. Just before going to Michigan two of their children died here from diphtheria.

From all sections of Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming come reports that the crops are looking well.

WESTERN NEWS ITEMS.

All of New Mexico, north of Socorro, has been visited with heavy rains, making the country look bright and green.

Columbus Wright, the deputy sheriff who was accidentally shot at the camp of the deputies in Beaver park, Colo., on June 8, died on Wednesday morning.

Charles Ferraris, a boot and shoe merchant of Eureka, Nev., committed suicide on Tuesday morning. He was a native of Italy, aged 46 years. No cause is known for the act.

Mrs. Parnum, a resident of Hauser Junction, Idaho, has sent in a claim against the State for $600 for three paintings which she furnished for the Idaho collection at the World's Fair.

Arthur Bow, a 14-year-old runaway from Aspen, Colo., was captured in Glenwood Springs by the U.S. marshal and started back for his mountain home in the tender care of the conductor on the next train.

The alfalfa crop in Natrona county, Wyoming, is said to be unusually large this year, and cutting has been commenced on several ranches. The season is at least ten days in advance of last year.

A gold bearing belt, supposed to be an ancient bed of the Colorado river, is reported found in Yuma county, sixty miles up the Gila river from Yuma, Ariz. It is sixty miles long and one to two wide.

Dr. F. M. Eckford, a prominent citizen of Glendale, Cal., was run over and killed on Tuesday morning at the Water-street crossing of the Santa Fe railroad in Pasadena. Eckford was a retired physician and very wealthy.

Deputy Sheriff Wilson has just died in the county hospital at Colorado Springs, from the effects of a terrible beating which he received in Colorado City last Wednesday morning. The coroner is investigating the case.

The Tioga Land and Promoting company of Rongis, Wyo., has filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $2,000,000. The object is the purchase of real estate, platting same into townsites, erecting buildings, etc.

Charles T. Smith appeared in a justice's court inSan Francisco on Monday and gave up a $4 silver watch, a pair of cheap, gold-plated sleeve-buttons and a rhinestone shirt stud to satisfy the claim of a local dry-goods firm for merchandise bought by his wife.

George W. Ford, a prominent merchant and Odd Fellow of Prescott, A. T., became violently insaue on Monday and was committed to the Military hospital. He imagines that his friends are trying to kill him to secure the insurance on his life.

Napa, Cal., horsemen are puzzled over a case of blindness in a horse. One of a team of valuable colts which have been driven but a short time, suddenly became stone blind one morning last week. No cause can be assigned.

Long valley, Nev., has been visited by a very severe hallstorm. A woman who was carrying a basket of eggs was caught in the storm and all her eggs were broken by the hailstones. Much grain and garden vegetables were beaten down.

A meeting of some of the taxpayers in the Arvada portion of Jefferson county, Colo., has been held to devise some means to have taxes reduced. A committee was appointed to lay their grievances before the county commissioners.

The Laramie (Wyo.) Athletic club, which for a lorg time has been one of the most popular organizations of that city, is now understood is practically defunct. It is, however, thought possible that the organization will be revived under another name.

Malachi Dillon, owner of extensive sulphate of soda properties in the immediate vicinity of Rawlins, Wyo., is in the city, says the Denver News, for the purpose of negotiating an annual sale of soda to the Argo smelters for fluxing purposes.

Charles Ball, whose abusive language caused Maud Bentel, a waitress, to commit suicide at Amadee, Cal., last week, has been arrested and lodged in the jail at Susanville, on charges of uisturbing the peace and using indecent language.

L. A. Wright, the bicyclist touring from Boston to San Francisco on a wager, passed through Colo. on Sunday at noon. He was in good condition and expected to make Leadville by night. His route lies over Mosquito range, one of the highest in the country.

Clint Card, a well known Sanshine (Colo.) miner, went to the Boulder house at Boulder last Friday, and the landlady going to his room at noon on Sunday, found him dead. He had evidently been dead many hours, having taken a compound of whisky and laudanum.

The sheep owners in the east end of Morgan county, Colo., complain that they are unable to secure sufficient shearers to remove the wool clip. Many men from the rainbelt region are finding employment among the farmers, and as many such will be given work as can be accommodated.

The ranch house at the Brookline ranch up the San Pedro river, toward the Sonora mines, was robbed last Saturday during the absence of the employes. The burglars stole about $500 worth of wearing apparel and personal property. They concealed their identity, preventing trailing by muffling their feet with sacke.

The suicide epidemic which has prevailed for the past month in this city continues unabated, remarks the San Francicoo Chronicle. The victims of this sad mania are found in all positions and walks in life. On Tuesday two new cases were added to the already too long list of self-destroyers.

The state board of agriculture, remarks the Denver News, has authorized the construction of a new horticultural hall at the agricultural college. The plans are already drawn, and bids will te advertized for this week. The new building has been