MUSIC TO BE UP TO STANDARD

Sixteen Brass Bands and Several Drum Corps Have Been Engaged For the Occasion.

Arrival of special trains over the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line carrying delegates and visitors to the G. A. R. encampment, as far as the list has been announced up to date, indicate a very heavy travel over these lines to Salt Lake next week. According to the schedule received in the office of the passenger department of the Oregon Short Line this morning, Gen. Henry M. Nevius, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and his party will arrive over the Union Pacific and Short Line in two special cars at 8:10 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 7. Other special trains and special cars parties are announced as follows:

MANY BRASS BANDS.

The musical portion of the encampment will be fully up to the standard of previous encampments, as will be shown by the list of brass bands and musical organizations secured for the occasion. Held in the city, Salt Lake is designated as the official band of the encampment, and the following organizations have been employed to take part in the musical exercises of the week: National Association Civil War Musicians, six days; Ladies' G. A. R. band of Salt Lake City, six days; Rexford band, Kansas City, six days; Kansas City band No. 2, six days; Modoc club, six days; Los Angeles drum corps, six days; Sharp's Military band, two days; Rexburg Military band, three days; Provo band, three days; Park City band, three days; Payson band, three days; Hawley's Troubadours, four days; Springfield drum corps, four days; Lyndonville band, six days; parade, Christensen's band, ladies; band from Industrial School at Ogden, Utah; State band, Ogden band, Sandy City band.

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

The official program of the forty-third encampment of G. A. R. is out and contains a great deal of information relative to the meetings and gatherings of the national and the auxiliary organizations.

Past Commander James Tanner of New York department, who was largely instrumental in securing for Salt Lake City the forty-third session of the G. A. R. encampment, will be present during the week with his two daughters. Gen. Tanner at present resides in Washington, D. C.

As a matter of great assistance in accommodating visitors in the city during encampment week, the railroad has arranged to park the Pullman special trains and cars, chartered and unchartered, in localities in the yards convenient to the city. The Oregon Short Line has arranged to park the sleepers on track No. 10, immediately contiguous to the station at the foot of South Temple, and should more room be required, others will be parked in the freight yards, just north of the viaduct. The Denver & Rio Grande railroad will use the tracks in the yards of the new passenger station now in course of erection at Third South and Fourth West, where there is ample room to take care of all chartered and unchartered cars.

TO ARREST MILK DEALER.

City Food Inspector Frazier Complains of A. Bendkorn's Methods.

A complaint against A. Bendkorn, charging him with violation of the city milk ordinances, was sought this morning by City Food Inspector Walter Frazier. Mr. Frazier declares that in spite of repeated warnings, Bendkorn, who operates a small dairy at 1075 south Third East street, refuses to sell his milk in bottles and that he has sought the inspector in every step he has taken to persuade him to comply with the laws.

Mr. Frazier declares that dealers have gone to the end of their rope in the matter of consideration from his office, and that with all the time he has given dealers to comply he will not wait longer, but will press their cases in the courts as fast as he can take them up. Many stores, he says, are selling milk in bulk without permits, and their cases will be the next taken up by the food inspector's office.

CARDINAL GIBBONS GOING THROUGH PARK

Accompanied by Prelates Noted Divine Will Arrive in Salt Lake Aug. 14.

A private car left last evening, over the Short Line, containing Bishop Scanlan, Very Rev. Dean Taylor, Thomas Kearns and C. A. Quigley, and provided by General Manager Bancroft and General Passenger Agent Burley. The party went to Pocatello to meet Cardinal James Gibbons, and Bishops Foley of Detroit, and McConell of San Francisco, en route in a private car to the Yellowstone, as the guests of E. O. McCormick, assistant traffic manager of the Harriman line. Following the salutations and brief discussion of the coming dedication of St. Mary's cathedral, the Salt Lake party returned to this city. The cardinal and party are to reach Salt Lake from the Park Saturday morning, Aug. 14, the cardinal as the guest of Thomas Kearns. After participation in the dedication exercises, he will be the guest of the Knights of Columbus at an elaborate banquet to be given in his honor. Cardinal Gibbons remains in the city until Tuesday morning, when he leaves for the east. That the cardinal's dedication will be a most imposing affair is evident from this fact alone, the presence of the cardinal, 14 archbishops and bishops, and 50 other prominent members of the Catholic clergy. The program for the dedication is approaching completion.

RECEPTION TO CARDINAL.

A public reception to Cardinal James Gibbons and visiting Catholic prelates will be held at the episcopal residence adjoining the cathedral on the evening of Monday, Aug. 15.

DEATH OF MRS. SILVERWOOD.

One-Time Leading Singer of Utah Passes Away in California.

Mrs. Julia Silverwood, well known in this city because of her connection with the Tabernacle choir and her once wonderful voice, died last night at Los Angeles, Cal., where she went a few weeks ago to visit her son Will Silverwood. In the hope that the change might prove beneficial to her, she had been in a poor state of health for some time, being afflicted with diabetes. When she left for the coast there were indications that the dread disease had nearly run its course, signs of the last stage being manifest. She, it is said, realized that it was possible she would not come back alive, as she gave instructions concerning the disposal of her remains should death intervene. Her presentiments proved to be correct as she grew worse from the time of her arrival in California, and in spite of all that the best medical aid could do, she ended her life Thursday evening at 7:30. Her son Will and daughter Mrs. Leon Simpson, of Boise, Ida., were both at the bedside when she died.

Mrs. Silverwood was the widow of the late Charles Silverwood who for many years was clerk to the warden of the state penitentiary. She was one of the best known singers in the state 25 years ago, being then chief soloist in the Tabernacle choir. She was born and lived in the Sixteenth ward all her life and she was loved by all who knew her because of her kind and motherly ways. Wherever she was she always tried to make things pleasant for everyone. She was also a devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day saints in the faith of which she was raised. She was 61 years old.

The body will be brought to Salt Lake for burial and the arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

DEATH OF MRS. WELLS.

Wife of Late Daniel H. Wells Passed Away at Ripe Age.

Mrs. Lydia Ann Wells passed away peacefully this morning at 11:20, at her residence, 323 Second street, after an illness extending through several months. She was past 81 years of age and had been ill since March of the present year. The place and time of the funeral will be announced later.

Mrs. Wells was the daughter of George and Mary Symonds Alley, and was born in Lynn, Mass., Jan. 1, 1828. She joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at Nauvoo, in 1842, her parents having joined the church previously. In 1848, she married to Daniel H. Wells, who was married to General Daniel H. Wells, April 4, 1852. She was the mother of seven children three of whom survive her, namely, Miss Kate Wells, Mrs. Mary W. Whitney and Louis R. Wells.

Mrs. Wells was prominent in Relief society and Primary association work, and for many years, and up to the time of her final illness, was a zealous and faithful worker in the Salt Lake temple. She was loved by everyone, because of her sweet and noble nature. She was humble as a child, saint-like in disposition and stalwart in faith and integrity.

STRONG-ARM GAME.

Iowa Man Held-up in a Saloon on Commercial Street Today.

C. R. Canlow of Fairfield, Ia., called at the police station early this afternoon, to complain that but a short time previous he had gone into a toilet room connected with the Cheyenne saloon on Commercial street. Two unknown men followed him into the place, where one man got his arm around his neck, and held him while the other thief went through Canlow's clothes. The Iowa man parted company with $20 under the circumstances, which he was very loath to do. He was able to give but a shadowy description of the holdups.

BIG FEE, SALE OF UTAH RAILROAD

Atty. Joseph Martin Establishes A Record for New York And District.

WAS EXCITING CONTROVERSY

His Services in Wasatch and Jordan Valley Road Net Him $165,794 On the Deal.

New York, Aug. 6.—Joseph Martin, an attorney who brought about the sale of the Wasatch and Jordan Valley Railroad company of Utah, has just collected a fee of $165,794 for his services.

Mr. Martin was counsel for Russell Sage and Theodore E. Tack in proceedings against the railroad company in the United States circuit court of New York. By the terms of the collateral mortgage, held by Mr. Martin's clients, the railroad was sold by a receiver in 1898 for $1,500,000.

Mr. Martin then brought suit for his fee, which he claimed was to have been 25 per cent of the amount for which he caused the road lease to be sold. But now he has compromised on the sum mentioned, which is one of the largest legal fees ever paid in this district.

Joseph Martin is well known in Salt Lake City through his attempt to sell the Wasatch and Jordan Valley railroad, which is the line running from Bingham Junction to Bingham and rated as the best paying railroad line about two years ago. Martin was here endeavoring to foreclose an old mortgage on the road. It was in carrying out this plan that he was held to show cause for contempt by Judge Charles W. Morse, before whom an injunction had been secured to restrain any action being taken to secure possession of the railroad.

Martin asserted, in violation of the injunction, posted notices of the sale of the railroad at the various stations along the road and announced that possession would be taken of the road on a certain date. It was further declared that the employees were notified that they should report to his officials and not to the Rio Grande which now owns the road.

While here, Atty. Martin represented Russell Sage, a nephew of the late Russell Sage. Atty. Martin was endeavoring to push the judgment against the railroad, which had been given in the United States court, New York. The judgment also carried with it the foreclosure of a mortgage on the railroad.

During his stay here of close to six months Mr. Martin made a number of friends. Former Chief Justice Barth was associated with Mr. Martin in the case, which was finally settled by the Rio Grande company, which submitted a proposition of settlement which was accepted.

TRACK OR ROAD AUTO.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—A motor inspection car in use by the Chicago & North Western railway for the use of one of its division superintendents. The car has changed steel wheels like an ordinary car for use while running on the rails. These will be replaced by pneumatic tired wheels and the steering wheel unlocked so that it may be used as an ordinary automobile. It carries seven passengers, is driven by a 22-horsepower engine, and to a certain extent will take the place of the superintendent's private car.

AMUSEMENTS

Theater—Manager Pyper had "a royal rush" this morning when the advance sale for the "Merry Widow" opened. Every one who knows the standards of the Savoy Opera company will hardly need a guarantee of the treat that awaits our theatergoers next week.

The admirable presentations of "Paid in Full" are now in the closing performances.

Orpheum—The usual matinee will be given tomorrow, and the popularity of the week's bill insures a full turnout.

Grand—The sale is now going on for "Held By the Enemy," which will be Manager Eldridge's attraction for G. A. R. week.

Colonial—The box office is now open for the sale of seats to the "Coronation" performances all next week.

Bungalow—Miss Cleveland in the patriotic play "At Valley Forge" will open the Bungalow's season next week, and seats may now be secured.

Elly's Band—Col. Elly's band is drawing crowds at Saltair. Its stay in the Hippodrome was short, as the acoustic qualities of that auditorium for successful band performance are anything but favorable, or, as one of the attendants innocently expressed it, "The acoustic qualities were not fit."

JUVENILE COURT MONDAY.

Last Session at Which Judge Gowans Will Preside.

Judge Gowans will hold his last session of the juvenile court Monday and several important cases are on the docket to come up for final action in order that the lists may be clean when the new appointee assumes office. The case of Evelyn and Alma Bardon will come up at that time. The girl is 11 years of age and the boy is 10 years of age. The mother is unable to care for them and the court officers say that the father has manifested no interest in them. A suitable disposition of their cases will be made Monday and court officers are now seeking a place for them to be cared for and educated.

PICKPOCKETS TURNED LOOSE

Notorious Crooks Caught in the Act Are Not Held In Jail.

QUEER METHODS OF POLICE

Court Authorizes Action of "Honest George Sheets" Twenty Hours After Dips Get Freedom.

James T. Lewis, alias George Patterson, and alias a dozen other names, who according to the police, is one of the cleverest pickpockets in the country, and has a criminal record in the principal cities of the east, has until tomorrow morning to forage about Salt Lake. His consort, giving her name as Mrs. George Patterson, but whom the police think is Jessie Pickett, well known in thieftum, has the same opportunity, and James Kelly, the third member of the trio and who has been under the eyes of the police for the past two or three weeks, has until Monday in which to work.

The Pattersons, or Lewis, or Pickett or Kelly or whatever the name is, are the screen for one of the funny moving pictures of the police court, which is held down stairs in the police headquarters and ratified by the judgment upstairs.

Wednesday night, the police represented by Patrolman Russell and Olsen, made a great capture. A man and woman giving the name of Patterson were arrested in the very act of picking the pocket of a traveler on the Los Angeles. They brought to the station Patterson's show of indignation at the insult was squelched by Chief of Detectives Sheets, who recognized Patterson as the original James T. Lewis, and to prove it turned to "The Detective" which contained the photo of Lewis under a number of aliases. "Patterson" confessed and then his pseudo name was discovered to be none other than Jessie Pickett, a clever-worker. Then James Kelly, whom the police had been watching for weeks, was charged with an accomplice, and the police made a great capture, ridding the town of bad men. That was all given out Wednesday night.

Thursday the trio were not arraigned. They were called on the docket. Through an attorney pleas of guilty to the charge of vagrancy were entered and the prosecutor, Asst. City Atty. A. E. Rogers, well-coached, promptly made a motion that the defendants be released on their own recognizance and that the time for sentence in the cases of the Patterson man, and woman be set for tomorrow, and in the Kelly case on Monday. The motion was readily granted—and then enquiry by the reporter brought out the fact that the three alleged pickpockets, with their bad record, had been released from custody yesterday afternoon, 20 hours before the court authorized their release, and giving them until tomorrow to remain in the city.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 a week.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL CLOSED.

Last Patient Leaves Today—Four Homes Under Quarantine.

M. C. Smith, the last patient at the isolation hospital, was dismissed this morning by Dr. Samuel G. Paul, assistant city physician. This marks the end of one of the longest periods it has been necessary to conduct the hospital for many years. While the dread disease has not been prevalent, such alarmingly large numbers of cases, still it has been spreading almost continuously for many months. There are still four cases in the city, all being under quarantine at the homes of the patients. This too is the smallest number of cases reported by the board of health for several months. Dr. Paul expresses the opinion that with the discharge from quarantine of these patients the city may again enjoy its freedom from the disease.

DEATH OF J. T. FLASHMAN.

Well Known Resident of Twenty-second Ward Passes Away.

After an illness of about three months James T. Flashman died this morning at 8 o'clock at his residence, 538 West Second North. He was 57 years old and was well known in Salt Lake, both in ecclesiastical and business circles. In addition to being prominent in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, of which he was always a faithful member, he was for 18 years in charge of the department of the Henry Dinwoody establishment, and was always looked upon as a man who knew his business, and his reliability was beyond question. About four years ago he left the firm and started in business for himself.

The funeral will be held at 12 noon, Sunday, in the Twenty-second ward meetinghouse. Friends are invited to be present. Interment will be in the city cemetery.

"GIVE A DOG A BAD NAME."

Seattle Police Think They Want Rose And Cummings for Murder.

From information received from Seattle the police there think they want W. O. Rose and John Cummings, the confessed highwaymen, too. Yesterday Chief of Police Ward of Seattle made a request that the photograph of Cummings and Rose be sent him and the report from Seattle that from the descriptions received there of the two men they are believed to be George Rose and Charles Smith, wanted for the murder of Patrick Sullivan in the coast city last winter.

As Rose and Cummings have resided almost continuously in Salt Lake for the past year, and never so far away as knowing being absent from the city for longer than a few days at a time during that period, it is not thought they are the men wanted in Seattle.

FAKE OFFICIAL BADGES.

Fakirs on the streets are engaged in selling badges purporting to be official badges of the G. A. R. encampment. There is only one badge authorized by the encampment, and that is issued by a Salt Lake firm and is being sold under license of the city council. The fakirs are selling the badges offered for sale before purchase of the official badge of the encampment is desired.

HOSE TURNED ON CARPENTERS

Residents in Vicinity of G. A. R. Grandstand Object to the Structure.

CHIEF OF POLICE CALLED ON

Citizens Declare That the Erection of Bleachers is Not Authorized By City Council.

With streams of water played through garden hose, with mutterings and loud talk, all directed against unoffending carpenters, the residents, men, women, and even the girls and boys, in the block on the east side of Main street between Sixth and Seventh South streets, this morning expressed their rather strenuous objection to the erection of a public reviewing stand for the G. A. R. parade.

A day or two ago the erection of the stand, which now assumes the proportions of the length of the block and extending from 12 feet back of the curb line to within 10 feet of the car tracks, and about 12 feet in height in the rear, was begun. So far as is known no authoritative permission was given for the erection of the stand, its necessity being looked upon as sufficient, and the residents in the block at first had no objection. Today, however, the stand is an eyesore, because it blocks the view from the houses in the block.

The attention of Chief of Police Barlow was called to the stand yesterday, but after an investigation the chief was content to let the matter alone. This morning, however, "hurry calls" began to come into the headquarters, for the residents had taken the matter in their own hands, and after finding it impossible to remove the stand, they drove off the workmen by turning the garden hose on them. The police were called for, and Lieut. Hempel personally went to the scene. When he arrived there he found everything quiet, and the men busily at work, erecting the reviewing stand.

Chief of Police Barlow said today regarding the affair of the stand: "They are erecting a stand there and there is some kick about it, but I can hardly see what to do about it. Perhaps the erection of the stand is in violation of the ordinance, by its being built out into the street, but for the old veterans we have to concede a few violations. The stand is in a way a good deal of matter of necessity, or at least there is a public demand for it, just as there is for many other things in connection with the coming encampment."

"I have taken no action about the matter. No formal complaint has been lodged against anyone in this connection, and until there is I feel there is nothing for me to do."
