LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, FEB. 25.

Taken to Ogden.—The remains of the late John Fife, the victim of Saturday's railroad accident, were this morning taken to the home of his parents in Ogden, where the funeral will be held and the body consigned to its last resting place.

Off the Track.—The Junction says that last evening's freight train on the Utah and Northern, due in Ogden at 5.30 p.m., was delayed until midnight, by running off the track near Hampton's station. The accident was occasioned by snow on the track. No harm done.

Agent For the "News."—Elder Wm. Geddes of Plain City, is about to start for a trip through the northern settlements, in the interest of the DESERET NEWS. He is our authorized agent for the transaction of business, and we commend him to the good graces of our friends up north.

An Interesting Inquiry.—An inquiry has been made, by several prominent members of the Church in this city, as to whether there are any persons now living who were baptized, by authority, on or before the 6th day of April, 1830, the year the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was organized. The question was suggested by the approach of the 6th of April, 1880, the 50th anniversary since the organization. Any information on this subject will be thankfully received at this office.

The Railroad Accident Investigated.—The railroad directors' investigation, instituted for the purpose of ascertaining the real cause of Saturday's accident on the Utah Central, as well as the persons on whom the responsibility for the mishap should rest, has developed but little of a definite character. That the engine and cars were thrown off by an open switch appears plainly, but the responsibility for the misplacement of the switch devolves upon five different persons, of whom it cannot be determined which is the one mostly to blame. The railroad officers stoutly assert that no censure can be imputed to Mr. George Bywater, the engineer, who has been accused by certain parties of a neglect of duty at the time of the accident, in not perceiving the open switch in time to avert the disaster. Bishop Sharp and his associates indignantly repel the malicious charge, thus sought to be fastened upon the character of an innocent and worthy man.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, FEB. 25.

Police Court.—Last evening, one case of drunkenness was fined $5. A soldier named "Mike" was arrested for a similar offense and turned over to the military.

Get Your Tickets.—Reserved seats for the coming performance of the "Sorcerer" may be obtained at Calder's Music Store, any time after to-morrow morning. Then is the time to secure the best seats.

Snow.—The snow has been falling nearly all day, with but little intermission, and from the appearance of things now, intends to keep it up for some time. To anticipate the time-worn attempt at a "funnyism," which an item of this kind generally calls forth, we will state that we have readers in other settlements for whose benefit such things are published.

Discharged.—In Progress.—The case of the saloon-keeper Erickson, charged with assaulting a deaf and dumb man named Stromberg, was disposed of this afternoon by the police magistrate. The testimony showing that the "assault" was simply an ejection from the saloon for justifiable reasons, and that no unwarrantable violence was used against the plaintiff, Erickson, the defendant, was discharged.

The case of Brightmore, charged with stealing an overcoat, was to follow the above this afternoon.

Obsequies.—From this morning's Junction, we learn that the funeral services over the remains of the late John Fife, were held in the Third Ward School-house, in Ogden, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The congregation, which was large, being principally the friends and acquaintances of the bereaved family, was addressed in turn by Messrs. James McFarland, John Reeve and R. McQuarrie, all of whom spoke in high terms of the deceased, and administered words of consolation to the mourners.

Fined for Fighting.—Night before last two young men named respectively Arthur and Golding, indulged in a fight on First South Street, opposite the Theatre and immediately in front of Gray & Whitehead's saloon. In the fracas, the window of the saloon was broken and the affray coming to the ears of the police, the combatants were arrested. This morning the two were arraigned before the magistrate. Golding took the whole blame upon himself, was fined $10 and Arthur was discharged.

Our Home Company.—The project of a new home theatrical company for our city, is being pushed energetically ahead, and the organization is now almost complete. In a few days, we will be able to furnish the names of the members of the association, and announce their opening performance. This latter will be somewhere about the 20th of next month. The delay is caused by the careful and judicious selection, from the various parts of the city, of the best possible talent that can be enlisted in the enterprise. The efforts of the management so far, have been most encouraging, and in a short time, the prospects are that our city will have a dramatic company of which she will have reason to be proud.

"Junction" Jots.—The McKenzie Reform Club, in Ogden, was organized last night, with a membership of 200. Dr. A. S. Condon is President, E. H. Orth, Treasurer; A. Herick, Secretary.

Yesterday afternoon a snow-slide came tearing down the south side of Ogden Canyon, about one mile above S. Wheeler's mill, or 80 rods above Goodale's Canyon. The rebellious snow mass hurled itself down into the river, choking it all up, and then forced its irresistible way up on the opposite incline, rushing across the bottom and blocking 150 feet of road, to a height of 20 feet. The river was almost dry, down at Johnson's. As far as known no accident is to be deplored.

Getting Better.—Young George Higham, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. Thomas Higham, of the 21st Ward, who cut his hand so badly a week or two ago, is getting along nicely. The accident occurred while the young man was chopping brush with an axe, holding the brush with his left hand and the axe with the right. A mis-directed blow struck his hand, cut the main artery and severed the leaders of his thumb and forefinger. He bled profusely, but a surgeon was summoned and he was made comfortable in a short time. He is still a little weak from loss of blood, but is out of bed and rapidly gaining strength. Mr. Foster, of the same ward, who was slightly hurt in the shoulder by the accident on the Utah Southern Extension, is also getting along all right.

Died in the Faith.—By request, we clip the following from the Clinton (Indiana) Herald, of the 7th inst.:

"Mr. Aquilla Nebeker gave up his leave upon the joys and sorrows of this life on Tuesday and was borne to his last resting place on Thursday by an immense number of sympathizing friends, and his brother Masons. Mr. Nebeker was a native of Delaware, and was sixty-five years of age. In 1836 he moved to this county and has been a good, generous citizen ever since. He represented this county once in the legislature and gave perfect satisfaction. Mr. Nebeker will always be remembered by those who knew him, as a lively, warm-hearted, liberal-minded man."

He was a brother to Elder George Nebeker, of this city, who is now on a mission in the States. While on a visit to his relatives in Utah, in 1876, deceased was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He died in full faith of the glorious cause he had espoused.

Ten Years' Arrests.—Following is the number of arrests made by the police of Salt Lake City, for the last ten years, respectively:

For the year 1870.....	386
" " 1871.....	933
" " 1872.....	1,429
" " 1873.....	1,648
" " 1874.....	1,164
" " 1875.....	1,193
" " 1876.....	939
" " 1877.....	908
" " 1878.....	757
" " 1879.....	711

It will be observed that the year 1871 is largely in advance of the preceding year. It is noteworthy in this connection, that early in 1871 the first houses of ill-fame were established in this city by foreign adventurers. Another cause for the increase of arrests for several years afterward was the influx of floating population on the railroad, which had then but recently made its advent into Salt Lake City. The decrease for the four years 1876-77-78-79 is due to several causes; among them the gradual departure of the ruffian element, brought here by the railroad, to other regions, the vigorous efforts of the city officers to abate existing evils, and the turning over of military offenders to the authorities at Fort Douglas, instead of dealing with them in the police court as before.
