LOCAL BRIEFS.

A Cache Junction man claims there has been but one dead at that village for 50 years, not counting the man who was killed there on the railroad a few days ago.

At the meeting of the teachers of the city schools tomorrow afternoon in the Lafayette school an address will be delivered by George Q. Coray of the University of Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace of this city are in San Francisco from New Zealand where they went with their son who is there now on a mission, and are stopping in California for a visit before returning to Salt Lake.

The Park Record company of Park City has filed a copy of its articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The company publishes the Park City Record. The directors are S. S. H. Chioe, J. J. W. and Louise A. Radon.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the committee on buildings and grounds of the school board will meet to consider plans for the new high school gymnasium, to be reported to the school board as a whole at an adjourned meeting next Tuesday evening.

H. E. Parkhurst, formerly manager of the Pacific Board of Underwriters in this city, is in town for a few days, after a visit to the coast. He contrasts the land of sun and sand with the land of clouds and shadows, and wishes he were back within view of the ocean again.

The Independent Telephone company opened an exchange yesterday, at American Fork, with 110 subscribers, and is now in direct communication with the city and Provo. Manager C. O. Harris went down this morning to be present when the service was cut in.

State Coal Mine Inspector Gomer Thomas has gone to Los Angeles for a trip of several weeks for the benefit of his health. Mr. Thomas has been ill for a month and his physician advised a trip to California. He has notified Gov. Cutler of his absence from the state.

U. S. Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, is to speak in the Salt Lake Theater April 26, under the auspices of the U. S. C. in national problems. The senator has been governor of Wisconsin for three terms, and three terms in the national House of Representatives.

While Secretary Raybould of the Elks is absent in southern California with the excursion, Judge DeHill and J. O. Thomassen are officiating at the secretary's desk. But they are not having much so, as the bulk of the brotherhood are away, still, the club house is by no means deserted.

The number of books drawn from the city library during January amounted to 11,000, an increase of 3,200 over the same month of the previous year. This increase has been mostly in the non-fiction line of literature, which is considered a good thing. The attendance Sunday afternoon in the reading room has also increased.

Rev. J. E. Rockwell of New Zealand is at the Wilson. He finds that the American life is altogether too strenuous for him, and he is now perfectly content to continue his home on the island in the Pacific. He says the people of that country are contented and happy even though there are no millionaires there. They lead "The Simple Life."

Orders have been issued from the war department for Major George F. Downey, paymaster, to proceed from San Francisco to Manila to relieve Captain Charles E. Stanton, paymaster, who will proceed to San Francisco. Major Downey is the son of Major George M. Downey of this city, and Captain Stanton was formerly clerk of Salt Lake county under the Liberal rule.

Miss Mary C. May, Miss Althea Wheeler and Miss Anna Younger, teachers in the training department of the state university, have returned from a three weeks' trip to the eastern schools, and bring back with them much valuable information. They found that while in aims, objects and ideals, the Utah state institution is up to the times, and is a lack of equipment and physical facilities. The teachers profited very much by their trip.

High school students regret that Principal Eaton has entered his veto against holding class day by the graduating class, as preparation for it makes serious encroachment on the time required to prepare for the final examinations, and also calls for an expenditure of money that some can ill afford to give. It has also been the occasion of disorder, and numerous scraps between the two upper classes, and the seniors will have to substitute some other function. So it is now proposed to inaugurate a flag rush, or something of that sort.

CITY EXECUTIVE SENDS MESSAGE.

Mayor Thompson Transmits Information and Makes Divers Recommendations.

FUTURE FULL OF PROMISE.

New Population, Influx of Capital and Rapid Rise in Property Values, All Elements for Consideration.

The annual message of the mayor was submitted to the city council last night by Mayor Thompson and, after being read, it was ordered that 200 copies of it be printed. The message follows in full:

To the Honorable, the President and Members of the City Council, Gentlemen—I submit herewith for your consideration the reports of the heads of the various departments of the municipal government, for the year ending Dec. 31, 1905, together with this my message, and in doing so, I desire to congratulate you who have been chosen by your constituents to represent them in the legislative department of the city.

Never before in the history of the city have the people had such good cause for rejoicing; at no time has the future appeared so auspicious, and never before has there been a call for more thoughtful and conscientious action on the part of public servants.

AN ERA OF GROWTH.

The rapid rise in the value of property, by reason of the influx of capital and the consequent increase in population, have created problems of public policy in the most rapid and conservative solution.

We are now entering upon an era of commercial growth. Enterprises of vast importance to the people of Salt Lake City have recently been consummated and others are nearing completion. The capitalist, the business man, and the laborer may alike find means here of utilizing their talents. No city of the mountainous region offers a better field for investment than does Salt Lake City.

If we, who are for a time entrusted with the affairs of the city government, do our duty properly, the hopes of the people for a "Greater Salt Lake" will be realized.

In order that the urgent requirements of an increased population may be satisfied there should be a unity of purpose and effort between the co-ordinate branches of the municipality. Petty jealousies and partisan strife should be eliminated. If bitterness or animosity exist, by reason of the recent election, it becomes our duty now to forget them and to work with sincere and patriotic motives for the advancement of the "City of Opportunity" and a "Greater Salt Lake."

WATER WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The question of great importance to the people and the business interests of this city, at this time, is that of securing a valid and perfect title to water rights sufficient to guarantee a permanent and adequate water supply to meet the demands of the growing population. If officers of the city will carry to a successful termination this very important project, guarding carefully the expenditure of the money already appropriated by the people for that purpose, there will be an impetus to the business interests of the city as will amply repay for the outlay incurred.

While it is important that this work should be pushed as expeditiously as possible, it is also important that every dollar spent should bring to the city its equivalent in substantial value. I would, therefore, recommend that every effort be exercised and that diligent investigation be made of the title to all water rights, or other property purchased, or to be purchased by the city, for the completion of this scheme. The superintendent of waterworks has submitted with his annual report, certain recommendations for immediate relief in that department. These recommendations should be given careful consideration by your honorable body.

In this report I call your special attention to that part referring to the paving and grading of streets. It seems that in many cases the grade established by the city council and the engineering department, without any provision being made for the lowering of the service pipes, in the case of the water, and by reason of the failure to make the necessary arrangements for the lowering of the service pipes many have been frozen up during the past few months to the great disadvantage of the property owners.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The annual report of the chief of the fire department, demands your earnest attention. There is no more important department in the city than this and every attention should be given it, in order that safety to the lives and property of the citizens be insured. The chief of this department has suggested the need of additional help. I recommend that this request, together with other recommendations as to the needs of the department be given careful and early attention by your honorable body.

CITY COURT.

My attention has been called to the present condition of the records of the city court, and in particular to the city division of such court. Since the passage of the law creating the city court much confusion has arisen, because of the fact that the records of the former justice's courts are not properly indexed. The request has been made for assistance in the recorder's office to relieve this situation, and it is my opinion that the request should be granted. I therefore recommend that the city recorder be given such assistance as may be necessary to do this work.

SEWER CONNECTION.

In the interest of the health of the city, it is necessary that sewer connections be made promptly as provided by law and ordinance. Special attention should be given by the proper officers to the end that the law in this connection be strictly observed.

The copies of the department recommendations made by the various departments which I submit for the consideration of your honorable body. Owing to the lack of complete information, at this time, I am unable to submit a statement of the water and sewer bond fund, but at a later date I will submit for your consideration a detailed statement of this fund.

COMMON COLDS ARE THE CAUSE

OF MANY SERIOUS DISEASES. Physicians who have gained a national reputation as analysts of the cause of various diseases, claim that if catching colds could be avoided a long list of serious ailments would never be heard of. Every one knows that pneumonia and consumption originate from a cold and chronic catarrh, bronchitis, and all throat and lung trouble are aggravated and rendered more serious by each fresh attack. Do not risk your life or take chances when you have a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, or other harm-controlling remedy, will cure you in every condition. For sale by all druggists.

DR. LE MAY TO LEAVE.

Veterinarian Daniel Le May of Fort Douglas has received orders to proceed to Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., for station on the departure of the Twelfth and Twenty-second light batteries from this post to Fort D. ## A HABIT TO BE ENCOURAGED.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup, to which children are susceptible are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by all druggists.
