CROWDS INCREASE AT U. J. C. MEETING

Favorites Come Under the Wire First in Five Events at Third Day's Racing at Fairgrounds.

The third day's racing card of the Utah Jockey club at the fair grounds brought out a crowd of more than 2,000 enthusiastic racegoers. The grandstand was well filled, the betting rink crowded and scores of persons visited the paddock.

The track was muddy six feet from the rail, quite lumpy and very heavy, but in spite of this the going was good and pleased the spectators. Five favorites came under the wire first but none were heavily played. Long shots seemed to be the public's choice and as a result the bookies got even for the drubbing they got the day before.

In the first race there was but little choice between Swaggerlator and Galvanic. The former won while the latter was not in it. Jockey Jarrett, who rode Galvanic, did not please the judges by his performance and he was called to the stand where things were said to him. He was given to understand he could ride for no one but Brannon, owner of Booger Red.

In the second there was good play on El Perfecto at 6 to 1, but the horse, after leading most of the way, fell, throwing Jockey Kunz heavily. The jockey was not hurt but those who played the horse were. In the third Mazapan, owned by S. J. Kelley, proved a surprise party by galloping home an easy winner. Rezn and Em was another horse well played which did not get the money. The last race went to Col. White, which was also well played.

Friday will be ladies' day and the officials of the club are anxious that the fair sex take advantage of the club's offer. They will be admitted free to the grounds and grandstands.

Sir Martin Will Carry Half a Million In the English Derby, Run Today

New York, May 26.—It was estimated in sporting circles last night, that Sir Martin, the American horse in the English Derby to be run today, will carry approximately a half million dollars of American money. Efforts were made in New York late last night to put down a number of large wagers on the success of this colt, but they were refused, indicating that the bookmakers have accepted all the bets they desire on him.

Never before has there been so much American interest in the English Derby as now, not since the year 1881, when Iroquois, the American horse, owned by Pierre Lorillard, was the first animal to capture the event for this country. The race will be announced by bulletins in many hotels today. It will be run about 4 o'clock, English time, thus bringing the news to the eastern part of the United States at about 11 a. m., to Chicago at 10; Denver at 9 and San Francisco at 8 o'clock.

John R. Madden, the breeder of Sir Martin, who has a substantial wager on the horse, and who stands to profit by a percentage of the $40,000 Derby purse has told for the first time the price he received for the great race horse. He sold Sir Martin and Edward, both three-year-olds, to Louis Winans for $75,000, of which $65,000 was for Sir Martin. He also retained an interest in the stake winnings of the two animals.

Since the victory of Iroquois, Derby winners have carried the colors of two Americans, William C. Whitney winning with Volodyovsky, an English horse, leased from Lady Meux, in 1901, and Richard Croker taking the coveted honor with Orby, a horse bred by him on his Irish estate in 1907.

"PENNY" GOSSIP.

Berty Murphy, manager for Benny Webster, a featherweight from the coast, is in the city, but is going east to look for matches for his man.

After invading Ogden with indifferent success, Bert Margetts proposes to swoop down upon Murray and play a series of ball games with the Smelter City ball tossers. Murray is getting up a good team and is anxious for games.

Tomorrow afternoon the High school team will meet the Granite high for the championship of the city league. The teams are tied since the Salt Lake High defeated All Hallows. A rattling good game is looked for.

The annual bench show of the Utah Kennel club opens tomorrow at 45-47 west First South street, and some of the best dogs of all breeds are entered for the big show. It will be a four-point affair as about 325 canines have been entered. Everything is in readiness for the opening.

On the High school campus this afternoon the Red and Black ball tossers are lined up with U. of U. nine in a practise game. Manager Cameron has arranged for his team to line up against the Weber Stake academy nine on Friday and a good game is looked for.

The final game in the Intercollegiate series is slated to be played at Logan next Saturday afternoon. The opposing teams will be the University of Utah and the Brigham Young college. The "U." team is working hard to be in first class shape for the deciding game and feel confident of taking the honor from the B. Y. C.

Manager Finn of the Utah Jockey club has a brown bull terrier that is the real goods when it comes to fighting. The dog will tackle anything on four legs from a rat to a wildcat and takes particular delight every morning to give tufties who stand in front of the Cullen, an exhibition. This morning the dog tackled a big mastiff. The latter picked up the Finn canine, shook him, slammed him to the ground and shook him again and again, but the brown terrier would not quit until Finn dragged him away. The terrier received a badly lacerated neck.

NOTHING DOING IN MATCH RACE

Platoon and Booger Red Will Not Measure Strides on Fair Grounds Track During U. J. C. Meet.

All the talk about a match race between Fitzgerald's Platoon and Brannon's Booger Red for $1,000 a side, taking place at the fair grounds track, had the quietus put on it this morning by Manager W. W. Finn of the Utah Jockey club. It was proposed to run the race yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Platoon did not get here in time. Then it was thought to run it this morning and then again tomorrow morning, but there was nothing doing. The respective owners put up $500 each with John Condron as a forfeit, but when it came to making arrangements to run the race the management of the track "bucked up" and there was nothing doing.

"The race will not be run on the fair grounds track and you can make that just as emphatic as you want to," said Manager Finn to the "News" this morning. "It is against the rules to run such a race and it will not be run either in the morning or afternoon. If the horses are regularly entered for a race where they take a chance with the rest of the field, all well and good, but there will be no match race."

The horses purchased by Thomas H. Fitzgerald, including Platoon, came down from Ogden yesterday afternoon late on a special train and were immediately transferred to the track. Mr. Fitzgerald will enter them in the present race meeting and will probably start on Friday, ladies' day at the course.

BIKE GAME DYING OUT IN LOS ANGELES

According to the bike riders who got in last evening from Los Angeles, the game there is gradually dying out and the management does not seem to know what events to put on to please the race fans. Iver Lawson, Bardgett, Senhouse, Walker, Krebs and Palmer, the boys who have arrived for the season, say that Pickering has an ideal location but does not "savvy" the game. The riders are in splendid form as they have been at work on the Los Angeles track for some time. All are under contract to ride for Harry Heagren, a manager who does know the game.

TRACK MEET BETWEEN B. Y. U. AND STANFORD

With the help of Convill, Brinton and Adams, the athletes of the B. Y. U. of Provo are today trying to lower the colors of the Stanford, Cal., track team. The meet is on at Provo and a great deal of interest is taken in the affair. The Stanford team is on its way to Chicago, and was to have met the University athletes. The meet could not be held, however, as some of the best men could not be here, so arrangements were made to meet the Provo boys. The latter promise to give a good account of themselves.

SPECIAL RACING DAYS FOR SALT LAKE TURFITES

The management of the Utah Jockey club announced this morning that during the big meet there will be numerous special days at the track, chief among them being Salt Lake day, Elks' day and Society day. The latter has been decided upon for June 4, but Elks' day and Salt Lake day have not been determined as yet. Mayor Bransford will issue a proclamation for Salt Lake day, and it is expected that on each occasion a big crowd will be at the track to see the famous ponies run. This afternoon the Utah Valley purse event is one of the features. A large crowd took advantage of the Salt Lake Route excursion and these trips over that road will be features twice a week during the 40-day meeting.

SOME STARS OF THE MINOR LEAGUES, WHERE THE GAME IS AT FEVER HEAT

Nearly all the minor leagues have survived the vicissitudes of spring weather triumphantly, and in nearly all cases interest and attendance have kept up splendidly. The American association finds Milwaukee, Louisville and Indianapolis in a spirited race, leading the second division clubs by a fighting margin. Indeed, all the races seem closer than is customary in the early days of the season. The first division clubs of the Eastern league are Rochester, Jersey City, Toronto, and Montreal. These teams have a good lead over the other four, headed by Providence. All the clubs have within the last few days pruned out their dead wood, and the smaller aggregations are profiting thereby and picking up some promising players. In the Southern league the early going finds Nashville, Mobile, Little Rock and Atlanta leading in the order named, with New Orleans and Birmingham close up. Low scores and tie games are the order of this very snappy organization. The leaders in the Tri-state league are Altoona, Johnstown, Williamsport, and Harrisburg, with the other four clubs coming strong. The accompanying illustration contains action pictures of a cluster of stars—Chadbourne of Indianapolis, Roy Moran of Atlanta, one of the most brilliant outfielders in the Southern league; Harry Welch, Omaha's crack right fielder and hard hitter, and Rudy Baerwald of Memphis, who played under the name of Bell with the New York Americans and the Newark club.

FORT DOUGLAS BALL TEAM GOES NORTH TOMORROW

The Fifteenth Infantry regimentt baseball team leaves tomorrow on its Utah-Idaho trip, under the direction of Lieut. Ellis. The team is in splendid condition and hopes to carry everything before it during the trip. The first game is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon with the Brigham City nine and the next game will be played with the Garland team. Then comes a mix-up with McCammon and on the 30, 31 and 1st the soldiers will play Idaho Falls. Games are scheduled with Blackfoot and Pocatello and three with Twin Falls. The team will be back here on the 7th. The soldiers are proud of the fact that they beat Murray and the "U." nine.

BOISE FANS REALIZE INCOMPETENCY OF STROUTHERS

That plans are laid for the removal of Con Strouthers as manager of the Boise team is shown in an article published in the Boise Statesman. The incompetency of Strouthers is realized and in all probability "Home Run" Marshall will lead the unfortunate team. The Statesman says:

"The Inter-Mountain league directors have, at this early date, realized the importance of securing a competent man to manage the Boise club, and have started things moving for the probable removal of Con Strouthers.

"J. H. (Home Run Joe) Marshall arrived here yesterday morning and his purpose is to interest local people in the formation of a stock company to take over the Boise club. Strouthers will either be bought out and if he refuses to sell the league is in a position to put him out. The Boise manager did not live up to his agreement in posting the $500 guarantee with the president of the league, and this is one of the things which makes his present position insecure.

"Strouthers has 'fallen down' as a manager and the three other directors of the league—E. G. Farnsworth, John S. Barnes and Jack Huston—together with President Lucas, know good and well that in order for the league to go through the summer a man must be at the head of the local team who can make baseball for Boise. This is why Marshall is here, and it is reported he has the league with him. He will endeavor to interest enough local people with him to form a stock company and take over the Boise team.

"Marshall is about as well known here as any man that ever trod the paths of a local diamond. He is not a John J. McGraw or a Frank Chance, nor does he hold honors with Hans Wagner, but Boise fans will remember him as the man who handed many a home run out at Riverside. He played with John McCloskey here in 1904 and went to St. Louis with "Honest John." Since that he has not been actively interested in baseball, but he wants back in the game now and the majority of the directors of the Inter-Mountain league want him."

The Boise Capital News, under date of May 24, says:

The Boise baseball club in the Inter-Mountain league, will, in all probability, be taken over tomorrow when the Helena-Boise series opens, by J. H. Marshall, better known as "Home Run Joe," who has been in the city for several days and left last night for Butte, expecting to arrive there this afternoon at, which time a meeting of the managers of the league will be held and arrangements will be perfected with Con Strouthers for Marshall to manage the club. If the program is followed out as Mr. Marshall expects it will be he will be in charge of the team when the Coyotes meet the Senators at Helena tomorrow and may possibly play with the Boise club. The pending change will be watched with a great deal of interest by local fans. No action will be taken to vote Con Strouthers out unless it is forced.

JOHNSON DISCOVERS BALL TO MAKE FASTER GAMES

Chicago, May 26.—President B. B. Johnson of the American league, has devised a scheme whereby the national game will be made faster. He has obtained a baseball which is springier and faster than the one used and will distribute it to the various clubs in his league. The teams will try out the ball in their practise and if it is found satisfactory it will be used in all championship games.

The ball is much the same as that employed when Delhanty, the first, used to knock out 10 or 12 home runs during a game. In those times such a brief hit as a double was scorned. It had to be a triple or a home run, nothing else went. If the ball stands the test the patrons of the American league will see an increase in batting.

GARRY HERMANN STANDS BY PRESIDENT PULLIAM

Cincinnati, O., May 26.—"There is no chance to enlist Garry Hermann in the fight to oust President Harry Pulliam of the National league.

"I cannot believe that such a move is being contemplated," said Mr. Hermann when he read the report from the east that an alliance had been formed by two National league magnates to have the scalp of President Pulliam and to elect Capt. Anson of Chicago, president of the National league. "But if this thing is contemplated, they'll have to count me out. I am for Pulliam. When he went away for a rest during the late winter we promised him that his place would be ready and waiting for him when he recovered. I mean to stick to that promise.

"I'm for giving Pulliam another chance to show that he is a well man again and in good shape to handle our affairs."
