LOCAL BRIEFS.

Services Resumed—Services have been resumed at the Temple B'nai B'rith, and Rabbi Freund will preach this evening.

Freckleton Bankrupt—A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday in the United States district court, by Samuel H. Freckleton of Robinson, Utah. The schedule shows liabilities of $784.77, while the assets are $150.

Contest This Evening—The W. C. T. U. will hold another dramatic contest, this evening, in the Emerson ward meetinghouse, with these contestants: Leah Smith, Norma Martin, Emma Christensen, Lucile Walker, Mable Brown and Lucile Street.

Boy Badly Hurt—Harry Holley, aged 5, of 11 North Seventh West street, suffered a compound fracture of the leg last evening. He was riding a tricycle pushed by his 16-year-old brother, and caught his foot in the wheel. The older boy did not see this and went on pushing until the younger lad and the wheel went over in a tangle. Dr. Beer reduced the fracture later.

Postoffice Improvement—Postmaster Thomas was notified last evening, that the improvements suggested by him in the re-arrangement of local equipment had been allowed, and bids will be advertised for the work. The letter drops will be removed to a more convenient locality, where the letters as they are deposited will not drop under the feet of clerks, a long distance from the sorting tables, and other desirable changes will be made.

Franklin Avenue Changes—Franklin avenue, formerly the Salt Lake tendon district, and latterly the habitation of the local colored population, is shortly to be made over into a manufacturing and commercial thoroughfare, and the present residents will have to seek an abode elsewhere, and in addition thereto the city council has changed the name of the street to Edison street, and it will be paved and lighted the same as the other streets.

Hurt by an Auto—J. F. Thomas, a boy living at 114 Third street, was severely injured last night at Ninth and State streets, by being dragged by an automobile driven by L. C. Markler. It is stated that the boy was helping himself to a ride behind the machine and was overcome by fumes from the gasoline exhaust. This caused him to fall off, and in doing so his foot caught in the spring so that he was dragged quite a distance before being discovered. Young Thomas was immediately carried home where Dr. C. F. Wilcox attended him.

About Poultry—At last evening's meeting of the Utah State Poultry association in the Commercial club parlors, 12 members were appointed as a publicity committee to post the public as to the progress made for the coming annual show. A bureau will be established to disseminate information about poultry. The committee for discussion at the coming meetings of the winter were also decided upon as follows: October meeting, Prof. J. L. Horne, speaker, subject, "How Shall We Prepare Our Birds and Our Houses for the Coming Winter?" November meeting, C. S. Corbin, speaker, subject, "What Is Increased Egg Productivity?" May 11, H. Beattie, speaker, subject, "What Shall We Do For Winter Eggs, and How Shall We Do It?" December meeting, John Bird, speaker, subject, "How Shall I Prepare My Birds for the Show Room?" January meeting, "The Finishing Touches and What It Means to Win a Prize, and How Prizes Should Be Won."

CHECKS ARE RETURNED.

Burglar Says He Is "Good Man Gone Wrong."

Ray and Harvey, the restaurant men whose place of business was robbed early Thursday morning, received late yesterday afternoon a letter in which were enclosed checks aggregating $34.10, taken from the till when the robber made his haul. The letter bears the following: "Accept this small rebate from a good man who has gone wrong." The note was unsigned, but the line may prove a clue to the identification of the thief. Mr. Harvey believes that he knows the man, and it is not improbable that the robber will soon be in custody. The amount of cash secured from the register was $52. The confidence of the holdup was secured so far as coin was concerned, but it would not permit him to retain paper which might be the means of bringing him to justice.

Want Enforcement of Laws in Matters of Temperance and Observation of the Sabbath.

The Baptist state convention adjourned last evening after a three days' session, and the passage of the following resolutions:

"Believing that to know is to feel and to feel is to do, be it

"Resolved, That an interested person be appointed in each church who shall interest our members in one of our denominational papers and our mission periodicals, and so far as possible secure their entrance into every home."

"2. Realizing the value and necessity of mission study we recommend that definite plans be made in each of our churches for systematic study of missions, on our Sunday schools, young people's societies and the church."

"3. Recognizing that our need for the present in Utah in matters of temperance and Sabbath observance is not better laws but better enforcement of our present laws, be it resolved that as a people we lend our influence, private and public, to the enforcement of our present laws and the creation of a stronger sentiment along the lines of temperance, social purity and Sabbath observance."

"4. Having been abundantly fostered physically and spiritually, be it resolved that our heartfelt thanks be extended to Pastor Brown and the membership of the First church for the splendid manner in which they have entertained us and to Rev. J. H. Franklin, D. P. Ward, Miss Stella J. Ruger, Miss Mary G. Burdette, Dr. J. N. Clark and Rev. G. F. Webb for the soul uplift that they have brought to us."

"5. Be it resolved that we express our deep appreciation for the assistance in our Utah work given by the missionaries sent out by the Woman's Baptist Home Mission society and for the financial assistance given for so many years by our General H. M. society and for the able service of its representative, Rev. Bruce Kinney, and we pledge to both our hearty support."

"6. We reiterate our protest against the manifest and continued interference of the Mormon Church in political and secular affairs."
