The Indians left Walker's field yesterday whistling Hiawatha. They were extremely happy. They had reason to be, for things had been coming their way pretty nicely. They got even with the Gimlinites, but it was no walk away. The batting streak of the day before was almost duplicated in yesterday's doings, but it came a trifle too late. Therefore we have to credit the Redskins with one win.

Willie Hogg pitched for the Redmen, and it must be said right on the start that he had the mystery habit strong yesterday. The Gimlinites could do nothing with him until the ninth. In three innings only did they connect with his delivery, and then the result was not damaging enough to tie up the game.

Ward was on the slab for our side, but was touched up pretty lively and Jensen relieved him. The latter showed considerable improvement, and shut off the hitting bee the Indians had strated. Jensen went in in the fifth inning and allowed but one hit until the last act.

Then three hits, one for three sacks, bright base running and team work, resulted in three runs for the enemy. The score was then nine to four.

At this stage of the proceedings, our batters began to solve some of Hogg's curves. Muller soaked out a double and Weed followed with a nice single. Gimlin went out on a caught fly, but Muller, by foxy base running, scored. Hausen then contributed a single, followed by Delmas going out. Dad Clark stepped up to the plate and donated a two-bagger, bringing in the third run. That is all we got. Kellackey came up and tried hard for a single, but it was denied him. He was beaten to the base by an eye lash. Thus it ended.

SIELOFF HERE TOMORROW.

M'Carthy Training Faithfully and Thoroughly for the Contest.

Otto Sieloff, the Chicago boxer, who made so many friends here by his fast, clever boxing, in his contest with McCarthy last November, is expected here tomorrow. He left Chicago yesterday in company with Tommy Burns. Billy Gee will come later.

The bout between Sieloff and McCarthy will doubtless attrack a large crowd. Scores of local fight fans have watched Jerry at his training quarters and are convinced that his condition is 100 per cent better than it was when the men met last winter. He is working hard every day, and is almost down to weight now. He has had a good man to work with—Frank S. Lewis—and will undoubtedly be in splendid shape for the contest.

WOULD LIKE J. WIGGS.

Claimed That Reilly Made Offers to the Elongated Twirler.

It is claimed that Manager Reilly of the Spokane Indians would like to make a redskin out of Jimmy Wiggs. There is nothing strange that Standing Elk should have this desire. Others have been afflicted with the same yearning before, but little good did it do them. It will do Reilly no good.

It was whispered about town last evening that Reilly offered to trade Willie Hogg and a handful of coin besides for our Jimmy, but the thing did not go through. Why? Oh, just because.

Reilly mentioned the proposition to the management of the team, and he was politely but firmly requested to back up and leave Jim to his long lonesome. It is well known that the Spokane chief dreads Wiggs. He is not the only one, and for that very reason Jimmy will remain here for an indefinite period.

MEXICAN BEAT LONG.

Louie Could Have Done Better by Coming to Salt Lake.

Butte, Mont., May 11.—Aurelio Herrera of Bakersfield, Cal., was tonight given the decision over Louie Long of Oakland, Cal., after twenty rounds of the fiercest fighting ever witnessed in this city. Several times it appeared that a knockout was imminent, but each time the Oakland lad came gamely back at the Mexican, showing remarkable recuperative powers. While Long showed the cleverest footwork, he lacked the battery ability of the dark-skinned fighter, who bored in particularly during the in-fighting, raining blows on Long. The Mexican, while exercising every caution, went after Long viciously throughout the fight, sending him to the floor for the count of nine in the sixth round. The sounding of the gong in this round saved Long from a knockout.

The Mexican drew first blood in the twelfth round, when, with a hard right jab to the face, he caught the Oakland lad on the point of the nose, staggering him for an instant.

The Mexican showed remarkable improvement, his ability to get out of the road of his opponent's blows surprising all.

Tonight's fight is the third fight between Herrera and Long, the latter scoring a knockout in Anaconda an. 12, but under circumstances that were questioned by many. Herrera and Long fought a draw in Vancouver about a year ago.

M'FARLAN DID IT.

Babies Beat the Miners by a Score of Five to Four.

Boise, Ida., May 11.—It required eleven innings to decide the game between Boise and Butte today. The visitors took two runs in the op ening inning. The score was tied in the eighth, four to four, and Boise got the deciding run in the eleventh. The feature of the game was a long hit in the seventh by Marshall. He sent the bal lover the fence into the river. Score:

JAMES FIRST LESSON.

Monologuist's Corbett and Fitzsimmons Are Coaching J. Edward Britt.

(By Robert Edgren.)

Hist!

Did you hear that muffled sound?

It is an earthuake, or has the Park zoo broken loose again?

There it is again—"B-r-r! bang! thud!" I'll have to let you in on the secret.

It is Edward Britt being coached for his monologue behind closed doors at the Metropole.

Robert Fitzsimmons and James J. Corbett are doing the coaching. If that isn't a chance for funny pictures I never saw one.

There is no doubt in the world that Britt has two of the best coaches in the business. If you doubt it ask Corbett. Ask Fitzsimmons. Each will vouch for one of them.

James J. knows all about monologue. He eats 'em alive. All properly constituted monologues are set off by a few fancy steps and a song. Fitz is the champion tenor singer, cake-walker and fancy stepper of the pugilistic brotherhood. This does not include side-stepping. Fitz isn't a side-stepper.

Corbett is showing Jimmy just how to tell a funny story, and where to stop and wait for the laugh. Fitz has taken charge of the singing and jigging end of the game. Britt will graduate a complete compendium of monologuelsm.

Robert Fitzsimmons met Britt at the train and made an appointment to meet him yesterday at the Metropole, before leaving for Boston to box in John L. Sullivan's benefit. Jim Corbett caught Jim Britt on the telephone and also made an appointment for the Metropole. J. Corbett, R. Fitzsimmons, J. Britt and Manager Billy met on time and sat down at a round table, Manager Billy, being out of training, assumed the thirst of the party, and while it was being quenched the monologue question was brought under fire.

"That's the stuff!" exclaimed Corbett. "A good talker is better than a good fighter any time when it comes to getting the coin." Fitzsimmons snorted disdainfully, and for a moment it looked as if there would be an impromptu light-heavyweight championship fight. Corbett and Fitz haven't buried the hatchet since their argument at Carson seven years ago.

"Great singers get theirs, too," interposed Jimmy Britt, diplomatically, and Fitz let the kinks out of his firsts.

"You want to work the Irish into that monologue," said Corbett, turning to Britt. "Tell 'em something about what your father said when you won your first big fight, and hand it out in a good brogue, like the old man used before he was a supervisor."

Jimmy started a dialect story, and all the party listened except Fitzsimmons, who sat gazing out of the window with a far-away look in his eyes.

"And the old man used to get Billy and me out into the back alley and make us fight like a couple of bantams. That's the way I learned to fight. Billy was the amateur champion feather, and he could put it all over me until I grew up. Well, I won an amateur championship after a while, and then the old man came around to me and said: 'Jimmy, me bye, 'tis all right to be tekin' a fall out av the lads once in a while, but av I ever catch you mixing up with thim scalawags av professional fighters I'll lick you within an inch av your life.'

"But you ought to have heard him when I licked Lavigne. The street wasn't wide enough to hold him, and every friend he met he'd stop and shake hands and say: 'Didn't I tell ye? I always said that bye av mine could lick his weight av wildcats. Shure, he's a chip av the old block, an' there's fightin' in the stock'"—

"That's it!" Fitz broke in, excitedly. "That's it! 'Block' and 'stock.' See? That's poetry. Make your monologue in poetry, and if you can't write it I'll write it for you. Did you ever hear the poetry I wrote when I licked Sharkey?

"'Strike up the band, Fitz licked the sailor;
With 'is right' and 'o planted a nailer.'

"I'll write it for you and you can sing it. 'Ave you got a tenor voice? 'Ow would this do?

"'E's a chip hof the old block.
There's fighting' hin the stock.
That's why he trimmed up Corbett and the rest.
If 'e 'adn't 'ut is 'and
'E'da-whipped the bloomin' land;
'E's the 'hardest little fighter, hand the best.'"

Jim Corbett vetoed this effort on the ground that Fitz had fallen down in reproducing the Irish dialect.

This ended the coaching on the monologue for the day, except for the fact that Fitz, to avenge the slight to his poetry, insisted upon putting Jimmy through a few paces in the cakewalk line, while James J. was temporarily in the background.

A FEW SPORTING NOTES.

Charley Ross and Frank Unfried wrestle at the Salt Palace theater tomorrow night for a side bet of $200 and the gate receipts.

The probabilities are that Jimmy Wiggs will pitch for Salt Lake today. Snake River Loucks is due to hold down the slab for the Indians.

It is reported that Benny Yanger has challenged the winner of the Herrera-Long fight. It is quite likely that the little Chicago Italian will be matched with the Mexican, and that the pair will fight in Butte in the near future.

The result of games pla.ed in the American Association teams yesterday follow:

At Kansas City—Kansas City, 2; Louisville, 11.

At Minneapolis—Minneapolis, 8; Indianapolis, 4.

At St. Paul—St. Paul, 2; Toledo, 5.

At Milwaukee—Milwaukee, 4; Columbus, 14.

Another knock from Ogden: Salt Lake is respectfully requested to not damage that baseball franchise. After the capital gets through monkeying with it, Ogden will be gald to get it and do something with it.—Utah State Journal.

New York, May 12.—High Ball, the thoroughbred, which was regarded as the 2-year-old champion of last season, is reported to have bowed a tendon in his last race at Morris Park, and has been taken back to Sheepshead Bay for treatment. The colt, which is owned by W. M. Scheftel and valued at $40,000, probably will not be able to race for some time.

New York, May 12.—During swimming contests in connection with the opening of a public bathing pavilion in Jersey City, C. M. Daniels of the New York Athletic club, has established a new world's record of 1:19 for 110 yards. The course included four turns. The old record of 1:13 1-5 was made by James S. Leary at San Francisco in March, 1902.

Chicago, May 12.—Mrs. Bernard Horne, who as Miss Bessie Anthony, won the titles of national and western golf champion last year, will not defend her title in the western championship at Glen View this year. Mrs. Horne, who is visiting her parents at Evanston, Ill., has made this declaration, but says it is her intention to play in the national championship this fall on the links of the Merion Cricket club at Philadelphia.

Her removal to Pittsburg has led to the waiving of Mrs. Horne's membership at Glen View, so it will be as an entrant from some one of the big clubs at Pittsburg-Oakmont on Allegheny that she will in the national tournament.

"THE MAN HIGHER UP."

Ex-Policeman Tells Who Gets Money from Candidates.

New York, May 12.—Rudolph Beyers, a former policeman now serving a six months' sentence in the penitentiary for taking money from police candidates, has made a statement, according to the World, in which he gives the names of the influential persons through whom candidates secured positions in the police and fire departments by the use of money. Beyers, it is said, corroborated in detail a statement made to the district attorney by E. A. Sonner, who is serving a short sentence on charges similar to those against the ex-policeman.

A vigorous investigation is being made and arrests are expected in the near future. According to the World, "the man higher up" who received the bulk of the money collected for jobs in the fire department is one of the best known men in town and held office under the city government for several years.

One of the men influential in the police department is said to have been formerly a high official, while the other is still in office.

DISMISSED FROM ARMY.

Lt. F. W. Mills Duplicated His Pay Accounts.

Leavenworth, Kan., May 11.—Col. Duncan, commanding officer at Fort Leavenworth, is in receipt of a telegram from the war department stating that President Roosevelt has approved the sentence dismissing First Lieut. Frederick W. Mills of the Seventh infantry from the army. Lieut. Mills, whose home is in Albany, N. Y., has been under arrest in the hospital here since Dec. 8, soon after his return from the Philippines. He is now at liberty.

Mills was tried by courtmartial on three charges, duplicating his pay account, making false official statements and refusing to pay bills he owed merchants. In addition he was reported for neglect and found deficient in the final examination while attending the staff college as a student officer here last year. He was allowed to join his regiment after his college term ended, but engaged in a controversy with Col. Miner as to his conduct while a student officer. He was ordered to return from the Philippines to face a courtmartial when the additional charge of duplicating his pay check turned up.

CANTON RAILROAD.

Administration Will Recognize it As an American Concern.

Washington, May 11.—The administration has concluded to continue to recognize the Canton railroad as an American institution notwithstanding the fact that a majority of the stock of the corporation recently passed into the hands of Belgian capitalists. This company was organized under the laws of New Jersey and a majority of the original stock was held in this country. The line is to run from Canton to Hankow and will connect with the railroad from Pekin. It is understood that about 10 miles of road have been constructed. The recognition involves the protection of this property by the United States government in case of need. The Belgian stockholders, it is said, are very desirous that the United States shall assume this attitude toward the road as there is some danger that the property may come into conflict with the interests of some European nations which are extending their spheres of influence in China. It is said there is precedent for the manner of action decided on in the case of the Panama railroad company, organized under an American charter, but the control of which passed into French hands for a term of years, notwithstanding which our government regarded it as an American corporation.

AMERICAN GIRL IN A FRENCH JAIL.

Was Locked Up in a Provincial Prison With no Charge Against Her.

ABDUCTED BY A COMPATRIOT.

She Says That He Was Desirous of Marrying Her—Her Story Partly Verified.

Paris, May 11.—United States Consul-General Gowdy recently received a letter from an American girl saying that she was looked up in a provincial jail without any charge having been made against her. The consul-general sent a representative to the jail and secured the girl's release and return to Paris. He then cabled to her parents, residing at Decatur, Ga., requesting funds for her return to America.

The girl related a sensational story. She asserted she had been abducted by an American seeking to marry her, and said she accompanied him on an automobile tour, was locked up in a room in a country hotel, escaped and attempted to walk across the country, but was arrested as a wanderer by the French authorities.

Inquiries made by Mr. Gowdy's representatives established the correctness of her detention at the provincial jail; but the story of her abduction was not verified, except by her statement, which had been reduced to an affidavit before the consul. The names of the persons are withheld, as no legal steps have been taken against the alleged abductor, owing to the doubtful character of the accusations. Pending arrival of funds the girl is being cared for by the American Young Men's Christian association.

Advices from Atlanta, Ga., say that the young woman whose case has been reported from Paris as having been investigated by United States Consul-General Gowdy appears to be Miss Belle Crane of Decatur, a suburb of Atlanta, whose father is a prominent business man here. He has recently received a cablegram from Consul-General Gowdy, but the exact nature of the message he is at present unwilling to give out. Miss Crane formerly was a student at Agnes Scott college, Decatur, and is well known and popular in Atlanta and at Decatur.

Patrick's Appeal Signed.

New York, May 12.—Recorder Goff has signed the settlement on the case of appeal of Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, who was convicted before him March 27, 1902 of the murder of William Marsh Rice. It is the most voluminous document of the kind ever presented to the court of appeals, consisting of 17,000 printed pages, including the testimony, exhibits and records of the surrogate's court. The court ruled that the case must be argued within 40 days. Ex-Senator Hill will represent Patrick.

CLOSE OF A BIG WEEK

Our Distribution of World's Fair Views Has Surpassed All Our Expectation.

NO BREAK IN THE RUN.

Readers Everywhere Are in Love With the Superb "Forest City" Series.

The Deseret News is very much gratified at the wonderful success which is attending the distribution of views of the great Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

We started out with the fixed intention of giving our readers the best series of photographic reproductions which could be secured.

Following out this purpose, we arranged for the "Forest City" World's Fair Art Portfolios, which, as heretofore stated, are doubly official.

The original photographs are secured especially for the work by the official photographer of the Fair, while all the descriptions are from the pen of Walter B. Stevens, Secretary of the Exposition.

This done, we also determined to offer the series on terms easily within the reach of all.

The proposition, therefore, has made the strongest kind of appeal to our readers and their appreciation has been most enthusiastic.

Although the distribution was large from the very first day, it has steadily increased, and it is quite safe to say that at the close it will have broken all records.

There is much reason for the high popularity of this magnificent series. In the first place, the choice of subjects is most happy, in that it is thoroughly representative of the entire Exposition, covering the vital points necessary to a complete grasp of the subject.

Besides this, the descriptions are particularly interesting, having been written by the only man having at hand authentic material for the purpose.

To crown all, the purely mechanical work is of the highest style of reproductive art, and it is quite evident that all these points are duly appreciated, since expressions of admiration and pleasure are heard on all sides.

This shows clearly in what high favor the "Forest City" series is held and is strong evidence that the public does not intend to let any number escape.

Both the real and apparent value of the work is so evident that all thoughtful readers are bent on securing every one of the views, especially when they can be obtained in so easy a manner.

"News" readers are asked to remember that the price is 10c per part to them and 25c to all others, and that the work is given free only to subscribers of the daily who are paid in advance.

Delano, Miss.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir:—"I feel perfectly well of catarrh. I did as you directed me to and took Peruna and Manalin. The third of March I gave birth to a ten pound baby girl and we are both well and happy. I am very thankful to you and Peruna saved my life. I recommend it to everyone and can't praise it enough.

"I send you my own and my baby's picture. She is so sweet and good,—she is a Peruna baby. I have such good health now. I do all my housework and take care of my baby and feel so good.

"There are three or four of my neighbors using Peruna now since it did me so much good. They were just run down, and they think it is fine, it is so good to give strength."—Mrs. W. McRoberts.
