Ogden, Aug. 1 .-- The new stake in the northwest part of the county and part of the old Weber stake will be organized iomorrow afternoon in the stake tabernacle. The new stake is all that portion of the old Weber stake tying west of Washington avenue and north of Twenty-fourth street and the Wilson

At the conference tomorrow the name of the new stake, together with the selection of the presiding officers, will be made. There are many conjectures as to the name of the new stuke, some are after the smallest towns or communities which are Marriott and Perry, while the names of Taylor is menloned in honor of Pleasant Green aylor, who was one of the founders i the northwestern part of the coun-

U. P. DAMAGED BY CLOUDBURST. Traffic on the Union Pacific was delayed for several hours yesterday on account of cloudbursts which occurred between Ogden and Castle Rock. The between Ogden and Castle Rock. The first report received at the local offices of the company was at noon, which stated that a cloudburst had occurred at Castle Rock and would delay traffic some hours. About three hours later another report was received to the ef-fect that cloudbursts had occurred at Baskin, 40 miles east of Ogden, and at Devil's Slide, which is 15 miles east of Ogden.

Ogden. Upon receipt of the latter news, Supt. Whitney loft for the scene of the washouts in a special train which car-ried several gangs of men and neces-sary machinery for repairing the road-bed, which had been weakened by the great flood of water.

POINTERS ON FRUIT INDUSTRY. John F. Moore of the Grand Junction, Colo., Fruit Growers' association, will meet with the Weber county fruit growers next Friday and Saturday in better acquainted with the methods used here in the handling of fruit. Mr. Moore will acquaint the local fruit growers with the method employed in Colorado in the sorting, grading and marketing of fruit marketing of fruit.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

No Clue to Robbers-As yet the No Chie to Robbers—As yet the local officers have had no clue to the robbers or the goods taken from the box car in the Rio Grande Western freight yards in this city Wednesday evening. According to the police the stolen goods have been cached in the "jungles" along Ogden river for a time, when they mill be removed and sold will be remo ed and sold Informal Canyon Ball-The camp ers in Ogden canyon have issued invi-tations for an old time cotillion which Pardoe Divorce-Ella Pardoe was Pardoe Divorce—Ella Pardoe was granted a divorce from L. G. Pardoe by Judge Howell in the district court yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff was given the custody of a minor child and restored to her maiden name, Ella Moulton. The divorce was granted on the grounds of non-support.

Wedding Permit—A marriage li-cense was issued by the county clerk yesterday afternoon to Herbert A. Preston of Ogden and Emma Dora Belnap of Salt Lake City.

Will Explain Shortage—It is very probable that the case against A. J. Heather, a cigar sulesman who was arrested at the instance of Max Davidson of the Columbia Club Cigar company will not go to trial. Friends of Heather state that he can explain everything in regard to the shortage and make the money good.

Sandbagged and Robbed-E. B. Sandbagged and Robbed—E. B. Smith reported to the police that he was sandbagged and robbed early Fri-day morning while he was riding along Lincoln avenue between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, and was relieved of $27, of which $10 was in an unsigned bank check.

Special Corespondence.

Special Corespondence. Evansion, Wyo., July 27.—On July 34 the Latter-day Saints and their friends showed reverence to the band of pioneers that made this day possible At 10 o'clock in the morning of July 24, a parade left the meetinghouse, which consisted of the Evanston brass band, several beautifully decorated floats, representing the Goddess of Liberty, the Bees of Deseret, Sunday school float, on which rode 50 little girls, one repre-senting the flower of Utah, and one showing the principal industries or Wyoming, Indians, hand carts, stage coachez, Columbia and her maids on horseback, all had their place. The par-ade, after going through the principal streets of the city, went to the city park, where the sports of the day took place. Between 500 and 600 bags of candy and oranges were given to the children of the town. The day closed with a grand ball in Down's opera, at which a very large crowd attended. This vicinity has been visited with heavy rains during the past week, which has had its good and bad effects upon the farmers, who are in the midst of thelr haying season, while their grain and the range was suffering for the want of water.
