DEATH OF MOTHER WAYMENT.

Thomas C. Mercer Seriously Injured Is a Runaway Near Malad-Junction City News Briefs.

Ogden, Utah, April 13 .- The jury to try the case of the State vs. Joseph Kendall, for murder, has at last been made up after examining over 100 talesmen. Those who hold the fate of Kendall in the balance are: Henry McEntire, Far West, foreman of beet planting for sugar company; David Shupe, North Ogden, laborer; David E. Chard, Liberty, farmer; James F. Burton, Ogden, assistant cashier First National bank; Wilford O. Ridges, Ogden, carpenter; A.A. Bingham, Riverside, farm-penter; A.A. Bingham, Riverside, farm-er; William Coles, Ogden, farmer; Geo, Bain, Ogden, warehouseman John Scow-croft & Sons Co., A. A. Wenger, Ogden, real estate and Ioan agent; C. R. Dru-miler, Ogden, grocer; W. T. Pickett, Ogden, clerk in clothing store: W. M. Purrington, West Weber, farmer. The first witness sworn in the trial of the case this forenoon was Joseph Rogerson, in whose restaurant the shooting occurred. He testified that Mrs. Kendall stayed over night Sept. 20, 1904, at his place, and that in the morning Joseph Kendall, her husband, came there and engaged in a contros versy with her, later firing four shots with her, later firing four shots er, three of which took effect. The witness was vigorously cross-examined, but stuck well to the original story.

THRILLING RUNAWAY.

Last Sunday afternoon an exciting Last Sunday afternoon an exciting runaway accurred north of town. Mrs. Lovisa Taylor and her daughter Rose Woodland, were driving home, when one of the singletrees came unfastened, and let the tongue down, the horses became unmanageable and ran at full speed. Mrs. Taylor jumped from the yehicle with a babe in her arms. Mrs. Woodland in some way was thrown between the wheel and the box on the axle, and was in this precarious situa-tion when the horses ran into a teletion when the horses ran into tion when the horses ran into a tele-phone pole, broke the tongue, and dashed down the road, leaving the buggy be-hind. It is fortunate that the inmates of the buggy were not killed, they esaped with some severe cuts and bruises.

Don't let the children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish and cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The best baby tonic known. Strength and health follow its use, 35 cents.--Ask Your Druggist. ----

Feb. 10, 12, fruit trees and shrubs win-tered in excellent condition; in favored valleys peach, apricot and early cherry trees are in blocom and some straw-berry bloom is showing. In portions of Snake River canyon peaches and apri-cots are reported to be well set. Grain—Fall grain wintered well and is making a good start; seeding of spring is nearing completion in some western localities and is progressing rapidly in all but the most elevated districts; early sown spring grain is germinating well. At this date in 1904 seeding of spring grain was only fairly begun. airly begun.

Grass-Hay crops, pasture and range grass are starting well; thus far there has been no complaint of winter killing of alfalfa. Much of the hay crop of 1904 is still in the possession of the farmers, Vegetables—Garden planting has re-ceived considerable attention and some early vegetables are nearly ready for A large acreage has been pret d for sugar beets and some seed has een planted.

Stock-Sheep, cattle and horses win-tered well, better than usual; large numbers have been turned out on the range: sheep shearing is in progress; a good percentage of strong lambs is reported. There is some complaint of mange among range horses.
