

DEATHS.

ROMNEY—At her residence, 20th Ward, Salt Lake City, on Monday, August 11, 1884, at 8:20 p.m., of general debility, Sarah Romney, daughter of George and Jane Romney, aged 28 years, 4 months and 28 days. The funeral services were to take place at residence to-day (Wednesday) at 4 p.m.

SEAMAN—In the 21st Ward, of cholera infantum, Royal Stanhope, son of George and Sarah Jane Seaman, aged 10 months and 15 days.

Funeral at residence at 4 p.m. to-morrow, August 14. Friends of the family are respectfully invited.

BOICE—David Boice, of Oxford, Oneida County, Idaho, after suffering for about 11 years, departed this life at five minutes after seven, Sunday morning, August 10th, 1884, his disease being liver complaint.

Deceased leaves a wife and daughter, father, mother and numerous relatives and friends to mourn his loss. He was born February 18th, 1843, at Ward's Grove, Joe Davis Co., Illinois, and lived the life of a Saint from his birth to his death. He was ever ready to respond to the requirements of the Priesthood on the earth, and will, no doubt, be as active and faithful in his present field of labor.

Brother Boice held the office of an Elder, and while on his mission to Manassa, Colorado, filled the calling of a Teacher and Home Missionary, and was a member of the High Council until he was released to return home on account of ill health.

HARKER—Benjamin Harker, son of Joseph and Susan Harker, born September 18th, 1852, at North Jordan, died Aug. 10, 1884, leaving a wife and three children. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint and filled a mission to the Southern States, during which he contracted the disease which eventually caused his death.

COULT—At Calder's Farm, Salt Lake County, August 15th, 1884, by drowning, Joseph Henry Coult, son of James and Sarah Ann Traveler Coult, born in Salt Lake City, Dec. 21st, 1863.

Mill, Star and London and Malden (Essex) papers, please copy.

SAYERS—In Salt Lake City, August 18th, after a lingering illness of ten weeks' duration, Ruth Daggett Vose Sayers, born February 26th, 1808, at Watertown, three miles from the city of Boston. She was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the month of May, 1832, consequently she was among the oldest members of the Church. Very few are now living who were baptized at that early date, and now she has gone to meet a large number of old and tried friends behind the veil. During the building of the Kirtland Temple, although then residing in Boston, she donated every dollar that she earned, except what she needed for her bare support, towards its erection, which aggregated several hundred dollars. Her liberality in this direction as well as in many others of an equally laudable character, has been proverbial up to the time of her death.—[Com.]

Funeral from late residence, 12th Ward, to-morrow, Tuesday, at 1:30 p.m. Friends are respectfully invited.

OSBORNE No. 11 TWINE BINDERS.

The OSBORNE MACHINES have been sold largely throughout Utah and the adjoining Territories for several years. Read the following Testimonials from the Farmers of Utah:

D. M. OSBORNE & CO.,

GENTLEMEN—We, the undersigned, were to-day present on the farm of our neighbor, Richard Howe, to witness the working of one of your No. 11 TWINE BINDERS, and we take pleasure in stating that, although the binding was done in short barley, it was done to our entire satisfaction. The draft is light and the binding apparatus so simple that any boy in his teens can readily understand and operate it. It binds every bundle. It cuts clean and we confidently believe it will save its cost over hand binding.

With honest motives, we would say to our brother farmers, buy an OSBORNE No. 11 TWINE BINDER and you will never regret it. We could ask for nothing more perfect.
