DRUNKEN ROW ENDS IN PROBABLE MURDER

Wallace Lyon Fights With Negro In Jap Restaurant and Is Shot.

OGDEN, Dec. 15.—Between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening, in a Japanese restaurant on Twenty-fourth street, Wallace Lyon, a young man of 23, living at 457 Twenty-fourth street, was shot and probably fatally wounded in a drunken row by a negro named Theodore Kennedy, a porter of the Weber club. The negro made his escape, but was caught at 3:30 o'clock this morning at the home of a colored family named Thompson, secreted under a bed.

There are conflicting stories of the trouble which led up to the shooting. It appears that Lyon and a companion, Will Marriott, who lives at Warren, in this county, passed the negro on the streets a few minutes before the shooting. Both Lyon and Kennedy were intoxicated. It is said, and exchanged a few remarks of an uncompromising nature. Later, Lyon and his companions went to a Japanese noodle joint, at 257 Twenty-fourth street. While in the restaurant Kennedy came in, and took a seat opposite them. Words were passed and a fight ensued. Lyon knocked the negro to the floor and was upon him with his hand at Kennedy's throat, when the negro drew a revolver and shot Lyon through the head.

The bullet entered the left jaw and was later found protruding through the flesh beneath the right ear. Lyon relaxed his grip, staggered to his feet and out of the place. The negro disappeared through the rear door, while Lyon walked to the Baumsteter saloon nearly 100 yards away, and fell unconscious, after uttering a few words that told of the shooting. Marriott disappeared entirely.

Later Lyon was taken to his home and was attended by Dr. E. I. Rich and Dr. C. F. Osmond. Lyon regained consciousness, but remembered little of the shooting. Unless complications ensue the physicians say today that he has a good chance to recover.

Constipation

Should not be neglected. It leads to more serious troubles. It shows that the important functions of the liver are imperfectly performed. The best medicine to take for it is the mild, gentle and purely vegetable cathartic, Hood's Pills, which act on the liver and bowels, cure biliousness, constipation, morning and sick headache, break up colds, relieve uncomfortable fullness after dinner.

Kiesel has proffered the use of the old post-office building, which adjoins the auditorium, free of charge, and ample accommodations can now be had by all. Over 1,100 blooded sheep will be on exhibition and there is every reason to believe that the sheep show will be one of the finest ever held.

Plaintiff alleges that for the past five years Barry has treated her in the most brutal and cruel manner; that he is drunk the greater part of the time and is dangerous to live with; that he has assaulted her several times and called her vile names. ## L. R. ANDERSON ESTATE.

OGDEN, Dec. 15.—A petition for letters of administration was filed in the district court Wednesday afternoon by J. W. Piddock, George W. Larkin & Sons, and G. W. Green, creditors of the late L. R. Anderson, who died in Ogden, Oct. 14, 1899, leaving personal property of the approximate value of $12,103.50. The petition alleges that no will has been found among the effects of the deceased and they believe he died intestate. Anderson left, as his only heir at law, a daughter, Mrs. M. Grace Hammond of Lawton, Mich. The petitioners ask that James E. Halverson be appointed administrator of the estate.

It will be remembered that L. R. Anderson died, apparently a pauper, at the Ogden general hospital, after a short illness, and that it was generally believed he had died of starvation. After death, his personal effects were examined, and sewed in the lining of his clothing were securities of over $10,000, consisting of certificates of deposit in many banks in different parts of the east, notes, stocks and bonds. His daughter, Mrs. Hammond, came to Ogden and had the body shipped to the old home at Lawton, Mich.

GROUSE CREEK PEOPLE PUT IN WATER SYSTEM

(Special Correspondence.)
GROUSE CREEK, Boxelder Co., Utah, Dec. 13.—On Friday evening last a free dance was given in the meetinghouse to commencing the completion of the water works system which has been put in by the people here, also to felicitate Bishop David A. Toyn, through whose efforts the work was pushed to a finish. James W. Bettebridge in behalf of the Pipe Line company surprised the bishop by presenting him with a nice silver mounted walking cane at the same time making a few remarks appropriate to the occasion. Bishop Toyn feelingly responded.
Last spring a company of thirty shareholders was organized and incorporated, with directors as follows: David H. Toyn president, James W. Bettebridge secretary, Albert F. Richins, Wm. P. Paskett, Allen N. Tanner, Parley R. Paskett and George R. Richins. The company secured title to the Buckskin springs which are about two and a quarter miles from the settlement, procured $4,500 dollars in cash, bought wood pipe for the mains, and three quarter inch galvanized iron pipe for service pipes, the mains and laterals which are about four and a quarter miles consist of 4 inch, 2 inch, and 2 inch wood pipe, which has proven quite satisfactory. The people worked with a vim, everything seemed to work right, no mistakes worth speaking of were made, the pipes were put together and laid without the aid of an expert, and the whole system is so far completed that all the members who wished it have nice soft spring water piped to their premises, for domestic purposes and to water their stock. Nearly all the farmers have a faucet in their kitchens.
To avoid monopoly, or the possibility of the big fish swallowing the little ones," it was agreed in the articles of incorporation that each member should own an equal share of the water. There was a good chance for speculation, but that was not the object. The value of the homes and property have been greatly enhanced as these water rights are appurtenant to the premises. There are but few settlements in the state that could not with the same efforts enjoy the benefits of such a water system. Though the stock in the company has all been taken up, arrangements have been made so that others wishing to make homes within the reach of the pipe line system, may get water for domestic purposes by paying a reasonable rental annually. The success of this project is another proof of what can be accomplished by unity and co-operation.

Volume Five Church History

Published by the Church With Introduction by Elder B. H. Roberts.

This volume deals with the history of the Church from May 3, 1842, to 31st of August, 1843. It therefore, covers a period of about sixteen months. The main external events may be set down as follows: First, exposure of the wickedness of John C. Bennett, and his departure from Nauvoo; (2) the charge against the Prophet of complicity in an attempted assassination of Ex-governor Lilburn W. Boggs, under whose celebrated exterminating order the body of the Church was driven from Missouri; (3) the attempt of the state of Missouri to extradite the Prophet from the state of Illinois, to be tried as an accessory before the fact in an assault on ex-Governor Boggs; (4) a second attempt on the part of Missouri to extradite the Prophet from the state of Illinois on the old charge of "murder, treason, burglary, arson, larceny, theft and stealing," first brought against him in the year 1838; (5) a preliminary prospecting of the "Prophet" during this period. The trying experiences through which he passed seemed to discover new qualities of soul power within him, and to emphasize those which he was known to have possessed.

Of events that relate more nearly to the Church as an organization there should be mentioned: (1) the introduction of the endowment ceremonies and enlarged instructions on the subject of baptism for the dead; (2) an extension of auxiliary organization by bringing into existence the Young Men's and Women's Societies.

Another item of great interest in this volume is the manifest development of the character and spiritual strength of the Prophet during this period. The trying experiences through which he passed seemed to discover new qualities of soul power within him, and to emphasize those which he was known to have possessed.

The doctrinal development of the period covered by this volume deals with several items which may be regarded as preliminary to that richer unfolding of philosophical thought to which the last year of the Prophet's teaching was so largely devoted.
