

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

As the Sixth of April, the day for the holding of our Annual Conference, falls on Wednesday, it has been deemed advisable to commence the Conference meetings on Sunday, April 3rd, and they will be continued on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—the last day being reserved for the transaction of the usual Conference business.

It is hoped that this arrangement of the meetings will meet the convenience of the Officers and Saints generally, and that there will be a punctual attendance at the times appointed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Baywater, London, ritualist is celebrated for the able manner in which he drops his H's while publicly discoursing. A few Sundays ago, the clergyman and the churchwardens were horrified to find in the offertory or "collection" bags, instead of coin and notes, a large number of H's cut out of cardboard. The congregation were kind, if sarcastic; they offered to the H-less gentleman that which he needed most.

The Louisville Post does even better than the Cleveland Herald. It reproduces verbatim, without comment, the News editorial on "A Capital Crime," applying to the act of Governor Murray, President Garfield's denunciation of those who attempt to violate the sanctity of the suffrage. The friends and apologists of the gentleman, if he has any left, are invited to refute the facts and arguments the article contains, if they think they have a vestige of a chance for controversy.

The Cleveland Herald gives its readers a fair and succinct epitome of the Desert News review of President Garfield's remarks on the Utah question. Barring a little slang expression at the close of its article, the Herald has done "the square thing" by the News, and we appreciate the unusual courtesy. "Mormon" sayings as well as "Mormon" doings are generally presented by anti-"Mormon" as mixed and mingled with misrepresentations as to be entirely unrecognizable by the principals. The Cleveland Herald has our thanks.

Cateway, the Zulu ex-King, is to be released from his close confinement in Cape Town Castle, and allowed to live on a farm in the neighborhood of the city. He will thus, in all probability, become a neighbor of the Natal chief Langalibalele, who has for some years been provided with a similar residence. So far as health and beauty of surroundings are concerned, Cateway will have nothing to complain of. His dwelling will be in the midst of a dry, breeze-swept, heath-covered flat, with a magnificent view of Table Mountain constantly before his eyes.

Soda Springs is destined to be a favorite watering place, and the new road from Granger to the northwest will bring the spot into greater public notice and appreciation. Captain Coleman, in his "Round Trip," thus discourses of these healing waters: "It does not mean to be enthusiastic, but take all the famous watering-places of Europe, with the little that nature and the much that art has done for them—combine them all, and you will find that this wild sanitarium of the Idaho mountains will send you back to your home with better health and more interesting recollections when your summer is ended."

Great preparations are making in Germany for migration to the United States, owing to the belief that a big European war is approaching. The French army claimed many victims during February, the month of the conscription. Peasants in general greatly dislike military service, and try all kinds of expedients to escape it. There are many ingenious methods of producing incapacity and avoiding the conscription, among which are maladies due to pernicious poisons; weakness of constitution resulting from voluntary over-fatigue and starvation; and chopping off the thumb with a hatchet.

The "Kordig Essence" is a new thing under the nineteenth century sun. The eminent French chemist, M. Wuerst, gave some interesting experiments with it a short time ago in his laboratory. Having filled a lamp with the liquid in question, and ignited the wick, Mr. Kordig, the discoverer of the essence, tossed the lighted lamp up against the ceiling, beginning the by-standers as well as himself with the flaming fluid, which, however, to the astonishment of all present, proved utterly devoid of heat or burning capacity. He then soaked his pocket handkerchief in the essence and set it on fire; the essence burned itself out, but the handkerchief remained unburned, as did his hat after subjection to a similar trial. Then MM. Wuerst, Dumas, and Friedel plunged their hands into a pan filled with the burning liquid, withdrawing them with fingers all alight, like so many thick jets of gas. They experienced no sensation of heat whatsoever upon the skin surface, thus apparently in a state of active combustion. Other experiments followed of an equally wonderful nature, conclusively demonstrating that the "Kordig Essence" is capable of producing light without heat.

CREED OF THE NIHILISTS.

The assassination of the Emperor Alexander, after several unsuccessful attempts upon his life, has brought into prominence the subject of Nihilism, which had not been a popular topic of discussion for some time. Only vague ideas obtain of the objects and tenets of the Nihilists. It is generally understood that the term nihilism signifies nothingness, and that the aim of the society of Nihilists is to annihilate, but the principles upon which their organization is based are unknown, and have occasioned much inquiry.

It appears that Nihilism is simply Satanism. It exists only as a Destroyer. It ignores nothing but itself, and is created but to disorganize. Its principles are those of religious, social and political death. It is the embodiment of the forces which dissolve, the essence of decay, the genius of anarchy, the demon of chaos. It is the antipodes of everything that tends to lead humanity from disorder, barbarism and animalism to peace, order, justice, spirituality and divine harmony. It is the foe of all governments, societies, creeds and true principles. Its work is to dash them all in pieces. It is the Devil incarnate. It is the realization of the terror foreshadowed in the Apocalypse: "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the Devil is come down unto you having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."

But, it may be asked, what is the object to be achieved in this war upon society, this projected universal Satanism? This question can best be answered by Nihilistic utterances. The following is extracted from an exposition of the views of the society by Michael Bakunin, delivered at the Congress of Internationalists held in Switzerland. Bakunin belongs to a noble Russian family, and is sometimes referred to as the father of Nihilism, perhaps because he is the only enunciator of its doctrines, whose words have specially been made public:

"This gospel admits of no half measures and hesitations. The old world must be destroyed and replaced by a new one. The lie must be stamped out, and give way to truth. It is our mission to destroy the lie, and to effect this we must begin at the very commencement. Now the beginning of all those lies which have ground down this poor world in slavery is God. Tear out of your hearts the belief in the existence of God, for as long as an atom of that silly superstition remains in your minds, you will never know what freedom is. When you have got rid of the belief in this priest-begotten God, and when, moreover, you are convinced that your existence and that of the surrounding world is due to the conglomeration of atoms in accordance with the laws of gravity and attraction, then and then only you will have accomplished the first step towards liberating yourselves from the fetters of the old world which has enslaved you. You will then be able to rid yourselves of the notion of God, and then only you will have accomplished the first step towards liberating yourselves from the fetters of the old world which has enslaved you. You will then be able to rid yourselves of the notion of God, and then only you will have accomplished the first step towards liberating yourselves from the fetters of the old world which has enslaved you.

The fact that such atrocious ideas can be acceptable to men and women in any nation, is evidence that the power vested in the constituted authorities of that nation has been perverted into the most grinding oppression. Nihilism is the rebound from the extremity of bondage, one terrible extreme the consequence of another. But the remedy is worse than the disease. Tyranny is bad enough, but this perfection of anarchy is a thousand times worse. Monarchical despotism is a crying evil, but irresponsible and ungovernable mobocracy is a horror too great to be expressed.

Secret societies which aim to supersede legitimate government are the enemies of mankind. They should be broken up, or they will break up the nations. They exist on the European continent and have sympathizers and adherents even in free America. They are among the elements of the final age which will help to disrupt the world and hasten the great catastrophe. They are among the signs of the times, and the harbingers of "the end." They belong to "the mystery of iniquity," and are inspired by the "Prince of the power of the air," and were predicted by the ancient seers who beheld the troubles and commotions of the latter days. They aim to subvert all law, human and divine, and seek to become "a law unto themselves," therefore they cannot be justified by "justice, mercy or judgment," and all who desire the welfare of the human family should help, by all legal methods to prevent their spread, expose their infamy and to root them out from the face of the earth.

THE SAN JUAN COUNTRY.
 The following letter, which, through the courtesy of Apostle E. Snow, we are permitted to publish, will be of interest to those who are watching the progress of the work of God and the colonization of the virgin places:

BRYAN CITY,
 San Juan County,
 February 27, 1881.
 Dear Brother—As we have an opportunity to send letters to Escalante, I will take a line to inform you of the welfare of our colony. I am sure you feel a lively interest in connection with the communities of our people who are similarly situated. I reached here on the return trip on New Year's Day, having had a prosperous journey, although we were 58 days on the road from Oak Creek. The people here have done very well during the past six months. There are now 32 families here and, with very few exceptions all are comfortably housed inside the limits of the fort, which looks much more like a fort than when you were here last fall. We have been crowding our ditch again and think we have good prospects for a crop. The weather surpasses anything I ever saw for winter, being dry and pleasant and admirably suited to the prosecution of all kinds of out door work.

There are eight families at Montezuma and four at St. Louis, where the road leaves the river for the Mancos. The water is being taken out in four places here, and some of the settlers holding larger claims than we do here would be glad to divide with new settlers, in order to get more help in controlling the water and opening up the country generally.

BY TELEGRAPH.
 THE AMERICAN NORTHERN PACIFIC.

CHICAGO, 22.—The Inter-Ocean's New York special says: The distribution of the residue of common stock, amounting to nearly 180,000 shares, which have been held in the company's treasury since the organization in 1875, was considered at the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Northern Pacific last Thursday. For personal reasons a quorum of the board could not be kept together until the next day and the matter was left to the executive committee. On the following day that committee voted to distribute the stock, and, in accordance with that decision, circular letters were forwarded to persons entitled to receive stock. Part of the stock has since been issued and certificates are ready for delivery whenever they shall be called for. The reason for the delay in the distribution of the stock is that the company is unable to complete the total amount of common stock authorized by the plan of reorganization and by the act of incorporation, $18,000,000. The reason for this is that the company is unable to complete the total amount of common stock authorized by the plan of reorganization and by the act of incorporation, $18,000,000.

issued since the reorganization. Recently the claim of the owners to have the whole residue issued at once, has become so fierce that it could not be resisted by the board. The distribution will be favorable to the Villard pool, for if we had any fears in regard to control of the company, we could have delayed the issue until a few days before the next election. Mr. Villard himself, however, has been a buyer of these proprietary privileges and not a little of the stock will go directly to him. I don't know when the stock will go, but do know that on the books about 400 are entitled to receive it.

An Extra Session Probable.
 New York, 22.—The Times Washington special says: A large number of letters have been received by the directors of the Northern Pacific during the past three days advising against an extra session and many members of Congress have personally called on the White House for the purpose of protesting against the called session at this time. The current belief is, however, that the President deems an extra session necessary, and that it will be called to meet in the latter part of April. Nearly all the other New York journals believe an extra session has been decided upon.

The Hartford, Conn., Current prints the following: The town of Great Barrington, Mass., is made happy by the settlement there of Mrs. Mark Hopkins, wife of the California millionaire. It is said that she will claim the town as her residence in order to save a larger amount of taxes in San Francisco and the people of Great Barrington are looking forward to have her pay the bulk of the taxes of that town, as personal property and Pacific R.R. stock will all have to go into her list.

The Tribune says: It is reported again that the rascal who forged the Money letter has been hunted down and that he and his accomplices will be degraded into the ignominy of the public before long. A Washington correspondent telegraphs a gentleman who has considerable to do with engineering the search for the author of the Money letter, stating positively that all the parties implicated in the affair are known, and that as soon as the testimony can be put in proper shape, a full exposure will be made. He also said that all the parties implicated would be prosecuted in the courts.

The Tribune says: The experiment of the co-operative business association in New York City was held under very favorable conditions. The applications for stock, which closed yesterday, greatly exceeded the number of shares to be allotted, and other evidence of widespread interest in the project are given.

It seems that young Seymour, who perpetrated the murder and suicide at Lakeview last night, had been a sailor for the hand of Crum's young daughter. Seymour was 20, the daughter 16, and the father objected because of their extreme youth and Seymour's recklessness issued an undignified manner of life. In fact Seymour drove from Chicago to Lakeview last night with a young cyprian, telling her he was going to get some money and would divide it with her. The woman drove back when she heard the fatal shots fired, and told the story. Crum was a most worthy and respectable man, and the comfortable circumstances of Seymour was also of good family.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.
 John Pellit, member of the 34th to 35th Congress, has died.
 Stanley Mathews is in Washington to make a fight for the associate justiceship.
 The republican city convention, held at St. Louis, nominated John M. Clark for mayor.
 The President gave Sunset Cox to understand that the extra session will be called on Wednesday.
 The President nominated Stewart L. Woodford, U. S. attorney for the southern district of New York.
 The Union Pacific has nearly finished building three miles of track around the washout at Fremont.
 One snowdrift on the Western Union Railroad, 40 miles north of Davenport, is 15 feet deep and a mile and a half long.
 Western aspirants for the speakership are Kasson, Dunnell, Keifer, and Harrell. Eastern candidates are Hiseock and Reid.
 The Boers have accepted the British terms, including the cessation of war, and have appointed a royal commission and peace is regarded as sure.
 Gladstone has been subpoenaed as a witness in the Lawson Labouchere libel case. His evidence will relate to the correspondence between the Greek negotiators and Gladstone in regard to Bulgarian massacres, which correspondence was published by the Daily Telegraph unauthorizedly.

Caught in the Cogs.—One day last week a little five year old son of Brother Gold, of the firm of Solomon Brothers & Gold, met with a painful accident at his father's residence in Brighton, just over the river. He was playing with a hay-cutter, turning the crank of the fly-wheel, which contained revolving blades he let loose, and as he was reaching over his right arm was caught in the cogs and severely lacerated from the wrist to the elbow. A piece of the bone of the forearm was torn right off by the iron cog. He was pretty badly hurt, but we are pleased to hear is now getting along with every prospect of an early recovery.

Stevens' Plays.—Concerning the two plays of "Passion's Slave" and the "Unknown," which are to be presented at the Theatre by the author, Mr. John A. Stevens, supported by his own company, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the San Francisco Call of the 20th has the following:

"Unknown," as rendered by the John A. Stevens combination, has become an absolute success at the Standard, and what is infrequent nowadays, people have been turned away every evening since the piece was produced. We have referred to it as a masterpiece of dramatic art, and may repeat after seeing it twice, that while there are some inconsistencies in the story, the situations are admirably managed, and the play is entirely forced. There are times when the "Unknown" is as finely level-headed for a lunatic. What a re-remarkable penman Mr. Stevens has for broad-clothed scoundrelism in his play! "Passion's Slave" had a choice specimen of two, but in the present piece J. P. Bates as "Dr. Richard Brinkton" and Davenport as "Arnold Tyson" are a pair of premium cold-blooded respectable ruffians, who consider murder and poison as quite proper means to attain their ends. There is good acting all through the piece, and each character has more or less strong special markings.

A wealthy farmer in Fulton has this notice posted up in the fields: "If any man or woman's cow or calf is in these air cats, his or her head will be cut off, as the case may be. A man eye him, and pay him taxes, but conformation to a man who lets his critters run loose said eye."

"I suppose you are very glad that you have been cured of your rheumatism," said a doctor to a fashionable Galveston lady. "Yes, I suppose I ought to be, but from now on we will have to give up the doctor or buy a thermometer, if his bones cut aching before a damp spell."—Galveston News.

FOWLS AT LARGE.
 The attention of the inhabitants of Salt Lake City is called to the following, extracted from Sec. 38, Chap. VI of the Revised Ordinances of Salt Lake City, Relating to Fowls Running at Large:

"All fowl, such as turkeys, ducks, geese, and hens, found running at large at any time between the first day of March and the first day of October, shall be forfeited to and shall be liable to be killed by any person upon whom premises they may be found trespassing."

This provision is now in force. Let all persons take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.
