

BRUTALITY OF HAZING IS TOLD.

Court of Inquiry is Investigating Cases.

BAD CONDITION OF AFFAIRS

Military Tribunal Reveals Disgraceful Proceedings—West Point Brutality.

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 21.—The military court martial inquiry into the alleged brutal cases of hazing which are said to have caused the death of Cadets Booz and Breth, will not be able to finish its work this week. An adjournment until Wednesday or Thursday will be taken after tomorrow's session and the remainder of the testimony probably will be secured by the end of next week. Today the story of the fight between Keller and Booz in Fort Putnam on the 6th of August, 1898, was told by Keller himself, as well as by some of the seconds and the sentinels who were posted to watch for officers who might interfere.

The first witness called was William E. Guthrie of Missouri, a cadet of the first class. He saw Booz shortly after his fight and noticed that one of his eyes was blackened. He knew Cadet Breth and was positive Breth had never been placed in a strait-jacket. Such a thing would be so very unusual that if it were done to any one on the post the witness would certainly have known of it. He knew of men being dragged in a blanket from their tents to the company streets. Personal violence has never been used in the barracks.

Cadet Lewis Brown of Rhode Island, one of Keller's seconds in the fight with Booz, said Booz ran from Keller and was struck several times in the back. In the second round Booz lay down and refused to get up.

Cadet William G. Caples of Missouri said he had given hot sauce to several cadets but not more than four or five drops to any one.

Lieut. Frank W. Coe, instructor in mathematics at the military academy, testified that Booz was deficient in his mathematics and never could have passed his examination. He was mentally far below the standard required by the military academy.

Cadet Frank Keller, who had the fight with Booz, said: "I was chosen by a committee of my class to 'call' out Cadet Booz because he disobeyed the orders of the corporal of the guard and made insolent remarks to a higher classman. I was weighed in and I turned in 150 pounds. Booz was 152 pounds. He was taller than I and had a longer reach."

"We stripped to the waist," continued the witness. "My seconds told me to have a tough customer to meet, and they told me to do my best. For the first thirty seconds after the call of time Booz showed a little fight, as he struck me a couple of times about the shoulders. I struck him under the left eye, cutting it slightly. After this he turned his back and kept running away. I frequently told him to face me or I would hit him in the back. I did hit him a couple of blows under the right arm."

"In the second round I thought he was going to put up a fight after all, but he immediately began running again. I struck him in the right eye and then on the stomach. He went down altogether without getting up. I was then a knockdown nor a knock-out blow. He lay on the ground and was counted out. I went up to him and shook hands. I said I hoped he would be all right toward me. He said, 'No,' and smiled."

When questioned as to whether he had hazed lower classmen or given them hell sauce, Keller said "No," but he admitted having braced a few."

Cadet Ralph N. Hayden of New York, one of the sentinels at the fight, said Booz was not hit hard enough to knock him down, and that all through he was cowardly. Booz lay on the ground and cried. Hayden acknowledged having taken part in hazing lower classmen.

Cadet W. T. Bemilton of Kentucky told of one occasion when Booz was on sentry duty at the residence of Benton's tent, when he spoke to Booz, who was standing at one of the posts, and told him to patrol his post properly.

"Did you any right," asked Gen. Brooke, "to give him any such instructions?"

"No, not officially," replied the witness. "But I felt I had a right to give some information to him when he was doing wrong."

"Was it not a breach of military discipline for you to speak to a sentry on duty?" "It was."

"And as a result of that, Mr. Booz was called out to fight?" "Yes, sir."

"Then, sir, you had no right to put Cadet Booz in that position," said Gen. Brooke, sharply.

Cadet George R. Spaulding of Michigan, who acted as timekeeper at the fight, said Booz was not injured and walked all right from Fort Putnam to camp, over three-quarters of a mile. He positively denied ever having hazed Booz.

Cadet Charles Garnet, president of the Y. M. C. A., submitted the following letter, which he received from Rev. Dr. Allison of Bristol, Pa., in answer to one he sent to Dr. Allison:

"Bristol, Pa., Dec. 13, 1900.—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 13th. It is my desire to say that your letter is a confirmation in not a few particulars of my friend Oscar's experiences. Your surprise that a Christian minister should make statements of a certain kind, I cannot help. It is a Christian minister's duty to tell the truth. I feel quite sure that the congressional committee of investigation will discover that no unbecoming position has been taken by Mr. Booz's friends."

"Your letter to me is a most interesting communication, in the fact of the sweeping and other kinds of statements by Col. Mills. He denies hazing, and the presence of tobacco sauce at West Point. You do not, you admit both, but seek to maintain the effects on theory of exaggeration, etc."

"I am glad to have had your letter, and it is likely to be helpful to us in more ways than one. I can understand of course, how natural it is for you young men to see no defects in your alma mater, since you have crossed the 'plebe' rubicon."

"The friends of Oscar know that he was truthful. His statements are to be prima facie evidence. What he stated in the long letter he wrote home, when he pleaded to be allowed to leave the academy, is enough. Only yesterday I had the sad privilege of perusing its contents. I am sorry you mention the novel theory. The cadet who told you that made a statement that your Christian grace and common sense ought to have taken care of. Oscar was not that kind of a young man. Most sincerely yours,

"ALEXANDER ALLISON."

OUR NAVY USES PE-RU-NA.

Paymaster

Collier says:

"I Have

Taken

Pe-ru-na

It Will

Do All

That is Claimed

For It."

WM. A. COLLIER, PAYMASTER OF THE U. S. NAVY.

One of the most responsible positions in the practical management of the United States Navy is the Paymaster's Office. Only men of great executive and clerical ability can fill such a position. Such a man is the Hon. William A. Collier, Assistant Paymaster of the United States Navy. In a recent letter of his to Dr. Hartman he says:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25, 1899. I have taken Pe-ru-na and take pleasure in recommending it to those needing a first-class tonic, feeling assured that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Yours truly, Wm. A. Collier.

Sergeant Buck Taylor, New York City.

Sergeant Buck Taylor, one of the famous Rough Riders, is a personal friend of Governor Roosevelt, of New York. He accompanied Governor Roosevelt on his great stumping tour through upper New York state. He was promoted through gallantry in the field during the late war.

The Sergeant has the following to say rather a new version of the encounter, as he said it lasted three rounds. He said Booz ran away from his opponent and was not knocked out."

Cadet James Prentice of New York said that one day Booz came into his tent and asked if he could not lie down. He told Prentice that he was afraid he had heart disease, and Prentice advised him to resign. Booz also suffered from sore feet, and the witness gave him powders to use on them. He saw Booz read his Bible. He could not say what kind of a book it was. Prentice saw Booz brace one night in the camp, Booz seemed to have a weak back.

Cadet Edward H. De Armond of Missouri, who acted as sentinel at the fight, said he saw it all, and that Booz got a black eye. He never knew Booz to be required to take pepper sauce. "Did you ever require any one to take this hot sauce?" asked Gen. Clous.

"Yes, sir, I gave four drops on a spoon to Cadet John C. Pegram and same to George P. Roselle, Jr."

Cadet Fred L. Deen of Texas, who, according to a previous witness, gave hot sauce to Booz, said that he had done so. He said Booz was not forced to take the sauce. It is well known among the West Pointers that Deen, when a fourth classman, fought eight rounds with an upper classman and, although defeated, came out of the fight with glory.

A BRIDE FROM UTAH.

Wedding of a Pennsylvania Physician to a Young Lady from Salt Lake.

Dr. Clinton J. Kistler, of Lehighton, was married yesterday afternoon at four o'clock to Miss Grace A. Young, of Salt Lake City, Utah, says the Allentown, Pennsylvania, News of Dec. 13. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John H. Kuder, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Lehighton, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. W. L. Young, 835 Sydenham street, Philadelphia.

The contracting parties are both well and favorably known. The groom is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Kistler, for many years of Germantown, this county, but since 1895 residing in Lehighton. After graduating from the Kutztown Normal school in 1890, he taught in the public schools two years, at the same time taking up the study of medicine in the office of his father. In the fall of 1892 he entered Pennsylvania University, from which he was graduated three years later. After spending nearly three years in the Polytechnic, Blockley and Will's Eye hospitals, Philadelphia, he went abroad, where he continued his studies in several of the prominent institutions in Europe. Upon his return he associated himself with his father in a lucrative and rapidly growing practice.

The bride is the only daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George C. Young, of Salt Lake City, where her father is supervisor of music. For many years he was at the head of the department of music in the Kutztown Normal school, where Mrs. Kistler was raised and from which she will be remembered by a very large circle of friends. After leaving the normal school she pursued her studies in Wilson College and in the Spruce Street Academy of Music, Philadelphia. The wedding was a quiet one. The couple were unmarried and only the immediate relatives were present. After the wedding tour they will reside at Lehighton.

of Pe-ru-na: "I think there is no better medicine on earth than Pe-ru-na, for catarrh. It has cured me. It would take a volume to tell you all the good it has done me. Pe-ru-na is the best catarrh cure on earth, and I know, for I have tried nearly all of them. Respectfully, Buck F. Taylor."

Major Algernon A. Mabson, of the Tenth Volunteer regiment, stationed at Macon, Ga., in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman from Washington, D. C., says: "I think there is no better medicine on earth than your Pe-ru-na for catarrh. It has surely cured me. It would take a volume to tell you all the good it has done me. Pe-ru-na is the greatest remedy ever prepared, and I think I have tried them all."

A. A. Mabson. Pe-ru-na attained great popularity among the officers of the army as well as the navy during the late war with Spain. A great many letters were received from field and hospital corps, indicating that this popular climatic remedy has become well high indispensable to them. Pe-ru-na is not only a National remedy but has proven itself a National blessing. Letters from every quarter are received daily testifying to the virtues of Pe-ru-na in cases of catarrh that had long since given up all hope of cure. Coughs, colds, influenza, grippe and acute catarrh yield at once to the action of Pe-ru-na. No case of catarrh can entirely resist the curative virtues of Pe-ru-na, as every case is either cured or permanently benefited. A lecture on catarrh and its cure by Dr. Hartman sent free by The Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Company, of Columbus, O.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT. Given at St. Mary's Academy in Honor of Bishop Scanlan.

A very fine entertainment was given at St. Mary's academy yesterday afternoon, by the pupils, in honor of Bishop L. Scanlan. The room was most artistically decorated and the splendid program was as follows:

Canning, E. Holmes, Mabel Nissler, I. Kane, E. Ensign. Accompaniments were given by Misses Pollock and De Chene on the piano, Miss Daly on the violin, and Misses M. Kinney, B. Ehret, E. Daly and M. Desmond on the mandolin.

CAN EXCLUDE CHILDREN.

Opinion of Attorney General Bishop on Power of Health Board.

In answer to Dr. Beatty of the State board of health in regard to excluding unvaccinated children from the public schools, in districts where smallpox is epidemic, Attorney General Bishop, after quoting from the statutes and citing a number of cases submits the following opinion:

"You are therefore advised that where it satisfactorily appears to the State board that smallpox has become epidemic in a community, it shall, if found necessary, direct the local board to enforce the necessary rules and regulations to exclude unvaccinated children from attendance upon the schools, and in event that the local board shall fail to perform their duty in this regard, the State board would have authority and be fully warranted in enforcing such rules and regulations by issuing the necessary order to the trustee or school board of such infected districts."

Secretary Beatty remarked later in reference to the above that this upheld the position taken by the State board of health, and that the law would be enforced.

MUSIC LOVERS.

All who desire information of the address, etc., of Salt Lake's music teachers, should consult the Musicians' Directory, published on the Dramatic and Musical page of the Saturday "News."

DISPUTE IN COUNCIL CHAMBER

Controversy Between City Engineer and John E. Dooley.

TROUBLE OVER INSPECTOR.

Mr. Kelsey Had No Confidence in the Inspector Appointed by the Board of Public Works.

The feature of the Council meeting last night was the dispute between City Engineer Kelsey and President John E. Dooley of the board of public works. The controversy lasted over three hours and was interesting in the extreme. The contention grew out of Mr. Kelsey hiring an inspector over the inspector appointed by the board.

A little preliminary business was attended to and the Council resolved itself into a committee of the whole to listen to the differences between the engineer and the board of public works.

Mr. Kelsey on taking the floor, did not dispute the right of the board to appoint the inspector, but under the Moran contract it was provided that the engineer superintend the work and the engineer had no faith in the inspector appointed by the board, and therefore hired a man he did have confidence in.

Mr. Dooley replied warmly, contending that McDonald, the man appointed by the board was competent, that his work had been subjected to tests and was never found wanting. "The board," he said, "fully believed in him, and I think he is being persecuted as a matter of spite."

Mr. McDonald was given a few minutes to talk in his own defense, and he said that he had always made a close inspection of the Moran work.

It was explained by Mr. Dooley that the work should have been completed by September 1st, but the delay was occasioned by a mistake on the part of the city engineer in making the excavation estimate. Much more dirt having to be excavated than he had figured on.

Mr. Kelsey then had an inning. He said that he disliked very much saying anything about Mr. McDonald, but in justice to himself he felt that it was his duty. He complained that McDonald had permitted pipes to be laid that were not of the regulation thickness, and he read a statement from H. H. Spafford, quoting McDonald as saying that it was not necessary to measure every length of pipe, but that once or twice a day was enough. Mr. Kelsey said that he could not believe Mr. McDonald, so he appointed another inspector.

He said that Mr. Dooley was not the proper man to be at the head of the board of public works, and that Salt Lake was the only city in the United States that had a banker in that position. At the conclusion of Mr. Kelsey's remarks, each member of the Council delivered a brief oration, and on motion the Council adjourned. He was directed to discharge his inspector, and to hereafter complain to the board first, when the inspector did not suit him, and if the board did not give him satisfaction, he was to take it then to the Council.

Robertson moved that the board of public works and the city engineer be instructed to make no more important changes in contracts without securing the consent of the Council. The motion was carried unanimously.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.

Mr. Brigham Entertains an Audience at the Theatre.

Nat. M. Brigham further sustained the splendid impression last night that he made upon the Salt Lake public last Tuesday evening as a public lecturer. A fair-sized audience greeted him at the Theatre, and the beautiful views and graphic word portrayals held it almost enchanted throughout the lecture. The "Land of the Snake Dance" was the theme, and Mr. Brigham exhibited in a graceful manner the information which he has acquired regarding the Moqui and other Indian tribes.

The audience was conducted into the heart of Moqui reservation, and there it was made acquainted with the habits, fables, traditions and characteristics of the Indians. The weird ceremony of the Indian gods was graphically described, and the strange dances and the jurgery and contortions of the body were told with great detail. At the conclusion of the lecture Mr. Brigham sang two Indian songs in a language so ancient, he said, that even the Moquis do not understand the words. He then sang a Spanish love song, and a Mexican ballad. The audience clamored for more, but Mr. Brigham said that he would favor them next Thursday or Friday night when he would repeat his grand canyon lecture at the Theatre.

CELEBRATE JACKSON'S DAY.

More Committees Named to Insure Success of the Enterprise.

The arrangements committee for the Jackson day celebration met at the Kenyon yesterday afternoon and made further preparations for the celebration. Some of those present thought that the inaugural ball would interfere with the celebration, but despite that contingency it was decided to have the celebration. The following committees were appointed: Publicity—William Igleheart, H. G. Whitney, F. K. Nebeker, of Logan, W. M. Roylance, of Provo, and E. A. McDaniels, the last named being chairman. Banquet—Fletcher Harris, chairman. Mrs. George H. Wood, Mrs. A. W. McCune, D. C. Dunbar and Mrs. E. A. Wilson.

Program (which includes responses to toasts)—J. R. Letcher, Mrs. Cohen, J. C. Bywater, H. V. Meloy and Elias Smith.

TROUBLE WITH OLIVER.

Costs a Spokane Policeman a Ten Days' Lay Off.

Officer J. M. Pike has been laid off from duty as a policeman for ten days as a result of trouble he had with Evangelist Oliver in the First Methodist church last Thursday night. The charges made against him by Special Police Officer C. Covey, of conduct unbecoming an officer, were sustained to that extent by the police board. It is understood that no severer penalty will be inflicted on the officer.—Spokane Record.

SHORES NOW GIVE ONE MONTH'S MEDICINE AND TREATMENT FREE TO ALL BEGINNING A COURSE OF TREATMENT AT ONCE.

MISS E. CLARK, 2675 LaFayette Ave., Ogden, Utah.

Miss Clark sends Drs. Shores the following statement for publication, in her own handwriting: "Drs. Shores and their medicines have wrought such a change in me for the better that I think I owe it to them and to the public to tell the world of my recovery."

"For five years I have been a sufferer from Catarrh. My head and nose were almost closed at times, making it difficult for me to breathe. I was fast becoming deaf and losing the sense of taste and smell. I was sick all over, could not sleep at nights, and was so nervous. My hands and feet were always cold and swollen. About one year ago I commenced taking through my nose. We had several doctors and medicines, but all to no effect. SEVERAL DOCTORS SAID MY THROAT WAS PARALYZED AND THEY COULD NOT HELP ME, but after using Drs. Shores' medicines but two weeks my voice returned in all its former clearness, and I can hear much better, see, taste, and smell better—in fact, I am almost entirely cured. I feel so much better I feel as if I never could be grateful enough to Drs. Shores for what they have done for me. I wish them all the success possible, and if any doubt this statement, PLEASE CALL ON ME."

(Signed) MISS E. CLARK, "2675 LaFayette Ave., Ogden."

ANDREW BERG, Valley House, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Berg says: "I have been a very sick man for a long time, and after trying some of the best doctors in California and Utah, found that I was gradually getting worse—as they only gave me temporary relief."

"My trouble was Catarrh, Sore Throat, distressed Stomach and Kidney disease. My head and nose constantly stopped up. I coughed a great deal, could not eat, my stomach was always sour, and I had terrible pains from the kidneys. I lost twenty-five pounds and was unable to work, and really felt like I was ready to die any day."

"I began treatment with Drs. Shores of your city late in September, and I must say, without much hope of relief, but to my great surprise and satisfaction I began to mend during the first month, and today I feel very much better. I have gained five pounds in weight. I can eat better, my stomach feels easier, kidneys give little or no trouble now, and my cough is almost gone. I am getting better every day, and at last see a cure and relief in sight."

"I am glad to endorse the doctors, for I know they understand their business."

(Signed) "A. BERG."

ELLING D. OLSON, Fourth North Street, Between Fifth and Sixth West, Salt Lake City.

"The subject of the above picture is the son of Mr. Axel Olson, the well known State street grocer. Eling attends the Jackson school, and his playmates and teachers well know of his former troubles. His stomach was in bad shape, food did not digest, but lay like lead in the stomach. He constantly suffered from headaches in school, was unable to study hard, could not sleep at night, did not eat much, and what he did eat did not nourish him. His father brought him to Drs. Shores, and in two months' time the little fellow has done wonders under Drs. Shores' masterly handling. Today he is practically a well boy, no aches and pains, headaches all gone since the first week's treatment, stomach in good shape, and to use his own words, 'I never did feel so good in my life as I do now.' Parents, don't let the little ones suffer; bring them to Drs. Shores and have them cured before they are too far gone."

DRS. SHORES & SHORES not only cure Catarrh and Stomach Troubles, but they cure Nervous Diseases, Kidney Diseases, Bladder Troubles, Heart Disease, Disease of the Stomach and Bowels, Piles, Fistula and Rectal Diseases, Female Complaints, Diseases of Women and Children, Rickets, Spinal Troubles, Skin Diseases, Deafness, Asthma, Bronchial and Lung Troubles, Consumption in the First Stages, Ovarian Diseases, Sciatic Rheumatism, Hay Fever, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Eye and Ear Diseases, Gout (or big neck), La Grippe, Lost Manhood, etc., Blood Diseases, Private Diseases, Scrofula, all Forms of Nervous and Chronic Diseases that are Curable.
