

DEATH OF MRS. WAREING.

Well Known Resident of the Eighteenth Ward Passes Away.

The death of Mrs. Mary Gibson Wareing of the Eighteenth ward, is a shock that will be widely felt. The sad event took place at her home on C street, at 5:15 Tuesday evening, Oct. 1, and came after only a few days' illness, concerning which most of her friends were unaware. Seized with an acute attack of pneumonia, she rapidly declined in spite of the tenderest and most skillful care given with tender sufferings. She passed away in peace, as calmly and restful as a child sinks into slumber. Her son George and her daughter May were with her at the time, her remaining daughter, Eliza, being absent on a visit to California.

Mary Gibson, as she was known when she was born native of Scotland, and was born June 21, 1842, has three children, George Wareing, Esq., of Z. C. M. J.; Mrs. Eliza Van Dyke, and Mrs. May Hillam all of Salt Lake City. Her only living brother is Hon. William Gibson of Vernal, Utah, and she also has a sister, Mrs. Eleanor O'Kelly, of Riverside, California.

Mrs. Wareing lived for about 50 years in Salt Lake City and during the early part of this period, being expert with the needles, she supported herself by doing fancy work. After her marriage, she devoted herself to home duties almost exclusively. She held no official position, but for many years and up to the time of her final illness, was a worker in the Salt Lake Temple.

The funeral will be from the Eighteenth ward chapel on Sunday October 6, at the hour of noon.

GIRLS' GYMNASIUM.

Class Abandoned at Y. M. C. A. on Account of Lack of Support.

A communication complains of the abandonment of the women's gymnasium class at the Y. M. C. A. and intimates a lack of "Christian spirit" on part of the Y. M. C. A. Stey. Cox says he would only be glad to have the girls organize and maintain a gymnasium class, and the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and fixtures will be given the women if they agreed to go in the expense of maintaining the gymnasium and baths for a mere nominal fee. The young women did organize a large class two years ago, but the class was given up, and with the average attendance dwindled to 20, and last year, the association lost over $300 on the proposition. This did not pay and the secretary found it necessary to abandon the class.
