TRUSTEE'S SALE.

W. C. HUMPHREYS, trustee of the property of the late George W. Whiting, of Los Angeles, Calif., has committed his property situated upon a mesa and running on the gas. His age was 65 years old. For some time past he has been a sufferer from rheumatism, and it is believed that he was affected. He found his home was quite bad, having caused a hole 10 miles to the gas tanks and held him after in his house, whipping his head in a convulsion.

William Entwistle has probably the best collection of curiosities in the United States. He has collected various weapons, implements, and utensils of many kinds and natural curiosities without number. He has been many years in gathering the collection and is continually adding to it. The collection includes a number of valuable specimens of minerals and rocks, and both are well on the move when the fire breaks out. The Entwistles have the means for buying property.
