

BLACK FRIDAY WORSE THAN RED SUNDAY.

Estimated Two Thousand Persons
Were Killed and Wounded
At Lodz, Poland.

TROUBLE WORK OF REVENGE.

Was Started by Social Democrats and Jewish Bund to Avenge Dead
Comrades.

REIGN OF TERROR BEGAN AT DAWN

City Given Up to Bloodshed—Anarchy
And Fierce Street Fighting Prevailed All Day.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 24.—Yesterday "Black Friday" in Lodz, surpassed all the horrors of "Red Sunday" in St. Petersburg. While it is not yet possible to ascertain the exact number of the victims, estimates place the killed and wounded as high as 2,000.

The troubles here were initiated by the Social Democrats and Jewish Bund, who determined to avenge their comrades killed in the rioting on Wednesday, Thursday, the feast of Corpus Christi passed off quietly, but during the night workmen attacked the patrol. In this fighting two officers and seven Cossacks were killed. One of the latter was shot by a girl of 13 years.

At dawn Friday commenced a day of terror.

The city was given up to bloodshed, anarchy and fierce street fighting prevailed all day. Barricades were hurriedly constructed in the Jewish quarters at dawn. Men climbed to the roofs of houses, cutting telephone and telegraph wires to use for entanglements in the street, while others cut down telegraph poles and used them in strengthening their barricades which already had been constructed and in building others.

Early in the day, two bombs were thrown from the crowd into the barracks, killing or wounding 20 soldiers.

This started the shedding of blood which continued until after midnight.

At 11 o'clock all the factory hands struck and flocked into the streets. Cossacks, dragons and infantry charged the dense, surging mob time after time, firing volley after volley into the serried mass. The rioters later replied with revolvers while their comrades on roofs and in windows joined in the fusillade. Some dashed violent from points of vantage upon the troops in the streets below. The burning fluid drove its victims into a frenzy and led to scenes of a terrible character. Fighting continued throughout the day and only diminished in its intensity at midnight when the city was plunged into utter darkness, as practically all the street lamps had been destroyed. Even then, occasionally volleys and isolated rifle shots were heard in different quarters, the troops having received orders to shoot any person appearing in the streets.

The dead were carried off to the cemeteries in military wagons. But this morning many dead and wounded were still lying in the streets and courts yards. Terrible, indeed, is the plight of the wounded for medical aid is unobtainable and many are dying from the lack thereof.

There was a renewal of bloodshed this morning. A regiment of dragons and one of infantry have been ordered here from Warsaw.

The casualties up to noon add 18 killed or wounded to yesterday's appalling total. So far as yet ascertained 130 persons were killed outright during the fighting of Friday and 41 died in the hospitals during the night. Of the wounded 320 sustained only slight injuries which were attended to on the spot by the ambulance surgeons. All the hospitals of the city are filled to overflowing and owing to the insufficient number of beds many of the wounded are lying on the floors.

All the shops, stores and factories are closed and business is at a complete standstill.

The rioters this morning attempted to set fire to the government offices but were scattered by a strong force of troops.

Capt. Nilsen reached port Monday last and showed his patriotism by having the word "Sweden" erased from the ship's papers. He also had the word "Sweden" and the word "Norwegian" erased from the ship's papers. He also had the word "Sweden" and the word "Norwegian" erased from the ship's papers.

Rats taken from the steamer Chili are being examined.

Five or six years ago when there was so much talk about race suicide, the birth rate here was only 26 per 1,000. Last year the rate was 28 per 1,000. The prospect is now that in 1905 it will be 32.

GERMANY STILL WATCHING FRANCE.

sions of People.

STUDYING NOTE ON MOROCCO.

Rouvier Has Left Many Points Open
For Discussion—No Trouble Anticipated.

Berlin, June 24.—The foreign office officials are busily engaged in studying the French note on Morocco, the unusual length of which will necessarily delay answering it. Emperor William's absence at Kiel, the foreign office says, will cause no delay in the negotiations, inasmuch as he is daily informed on all points, and his decisions are promptly given.

As the study of Premier Rouvier's answer progresses, the fact becomes evident that he has left many points open for discussion and from which further negotiations can continue. The greatest reference now seems to be in agreeing on whether Germany and France shall seek to reach a separate agreement before the meeting of the conference, thus eliminating many matters from international action. Germany apparently holds the view that it would be an act of discourtesy to the powers which have already agreed to attend the conference if she arranged any matters beforehand with France.

Official circles here continue to follow the news with keen interest but without anything like excitement, much less bellicose inclinations. They watch closely the movements of public opinion in France, and while it is recognized that the French people at large have grown much less chauvinistic toward Germany in the last few years corresponding with the waning influence of the nationalistic-military combination in French politics, some opinion still prevails in Berlin that the leaders of the opposition to the French government again succeed in inflaming the passions of the people and arousing a storm which the republican leaders would be unable to withstand.

ASST. SECY. LOOMIS GOES TO EUROPE ON SECRET MISSION

New York, June 24.—On a secret mission for the state department, Assistant Secretary Francis B. Loomis sailed today on the steamer Philadelphia.

Concerning the mission Mr. Loomis would only say: "I am not only going as a special ambassador to receive Paul Jones' body, but also have been commissioned by the president to perform a secret mission for the state department while abroad. I must decline positively to state what that mission is."

"Has it anything to do with peace?" was asked.

"I can say nothing," he replied.

Mr. Loomis said he expected that his secret mission would prevent him from returning with the warship squadron which will bring the body of Admiral Paul Jones, as he had expected to do, but that he would return in about a month. Mr. Loomis added that the exercises attending the departure of the body of Admiral Jones from France would be held on July 1 or 2 in the American church in Paris.

PURPOSE OF MISSION.

Washington, June 24.—The assignment of Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state, who sailed from New York today for Europe as a special ambassador of the United States government to receive from the French government the remains of John Paul Jones, has been a subject of much interest.

Mr. Loomis will not return to the United States with the remains of John Paul Jones, so far as they are concerned, his ambassadorship will terminate with the receipt of the body and its transfer to the American squadron. He has been commissioned by the president, however, to make an investigation of the business methods of the various diplomatic posts of the United States in Europe with a view to bringing about such reforms as may be suggested by the inquiry.

With his own experience in the state department, it is expected that this mission will occupy him for perhaps two months. His inquiry into the business methods of the diplomatic posts and merely have to do with the administrative affairs of the posts. Mr. Loomis will not return to the state department to remain in any considerable time, and he may not return at all as assistant secretary of state. That he will receive some appointment at the hands of the president seems certain now, but it has not been determined yet what the appointment will be.

SENTENCED TO HANG.

Mrs. Aggie Meyers Who Murdered
Her Husband.

Kansas City, Mo., June 24.—Mrs. Aggie Meyers, who, at Liberty, Mo., recently was found guilty of murder in the first degree, was today refused a new trial and was sentenced to be hanged on Aug. 11.

The case was tried in the state supreme court. Mrs. Meyers was convicted with Frank Hoffman, who was infatuated with her, of killing the woman's husband, Clarence Meyers, a painter, at their home in this city in May, 1904.

The crime was most cold blooded. Hoffman, who was a box under sentence of death for his part in the crime, testified at the woman's trial that she had urged him to kill Meyers, had let him into their home on the night of the murder, had given her husband a sedative to put him to sleep and then, while he cried to her for help she first struck him over the head with a bed-post and then slashed his throat and back with scissors and a razor. Hoffman had first stunned Meyers with a brick.

billiard cue. Hoffman was arrested in Montana where he had escaped on Monday night from Mrs. Meyers.

Since her arrest Mrs. Meyers has shown practically no emotion and when sentenced today she smiled.

The appeal, which will act as a stay of execution, will, it is expected, be filed within a short time. The appeal be passed upon until November next at the earliest.

She stood while Judge Alexander passed sentence upon her. The judge was visibly agitated. There were tears in the eyes of the court stenographer, a young man.

The group of men who heard the solemn pronouncement of sentence were affected by it. The one person in the courtroom who was seemingly unmoved and unconcerned was the murderer herself. Mrs. Meyers stood looking squarely. There was not the tremor of a muscle. Her face was expressionless. She sat down and later that it was a smile upon her face as she chatted in an undertone with her lawyer.

PAUL MORTON.

Will Stay in New York All Summer
Looking After Equitable.

New York, June 24.—Paul Morton returned from Washington today and resumed his work as chairman of the Equitable society. He was in conference during the morning with representatives of the expert accountants, who are making an investigation of the Equitable affairs under his direction.

Mr. Morton was accompanied by a young man, who is his secretary. He had not accepted any further resignations, nor would he intimate when he intends to take such action. From this time until the end of the month when he returns to Washington, he will remain in New York.

Concerning the man whose name was said to be in the salary list of the Equitable society, Morton said that he was not in the salary list. He said that he was not in the salary list. He said that he was not in the salary list.

AUTOMOBILING NOW TO THE FRONT

Devotees Are Investigating Some Of the Country Lanes for Shady Trips.

SOME OF THE FAVORITE RUNS.

Private Garages to House Cars of Wallace Bransford and Col.
Helm.

Automobiling for the summer is just getting under way and the favorite lanes through the valley are finding their explorers and devotees, while the round the city tour will begin with the finishing of the East South Temple street paving. Then the evening parties will run east to Sixth East on South Temple, turning south to Liberty park, and doubling back from Twelfth South on state street, veering west to Second West at Sixth South and then to the Warm Springs, returning on the same road to South Temple street.

The favorite country run is out to the base of the Wasatch mountains, along the old county road, returning by way of one of the many tree-lined lanes that run into Murray from the Cottonwoods. One favorite run is west of the Jordan along the beautiful Redwood road, and finally over to Tumble by way of the lake shore, or back from Brigham Junction by way of Draper and the east bench roads.

The road to Provo and the road to Ogden are not popular because of bad stretches that cause difficulty. When the roads are improved by a satisfactory manner these interurban runs will become favorites.

Several prominent automobile enthusiasts are now beginning to keep strings on the cars to use for different purposes. The big touring cars that take an 18-mile clip on country roads without jarring their occupants are too soft and not agile enough for pavement shopping, and for that reason D. C. Jackson has just ordered a small runabout to supplement his string, in addition to the big motor which is due to arrive next week.

Private garages are a new feature, too, that are coming into use in the homes of country people. At the home of Wallace Bransford and Col. Helm, a brick structure in the rear is being equipped to house the automobiles, of which there is now a handsome collection.

While there has been an informal understanding with the police department for some time that automobiles should not use the City Creek canyon driveway, an ordinance to that effect is being drawn up by City Attorney Day and will be presented at the meeting of the city council Monday evening.

LAKE OF SODA WATER.

Wagon Overtured and Load of Bottles Crashed Into Street.

A small boy's dream of bliss was what happened as a reality on East South Temple street today, when a soda water wagon, overtured, transforming the street into a miniature lake of floating fizz water. The trouble adds one more "kick" on the paving, as it was due to the bumpy condition of the ground that the accident occurred.

A driver for the Salt Lake City Soda Water company was attempting to turn his wagon around on the south side of the street where work has recently begun. To make the turn he was forced to leave the confines of the narrow roadway and get into the rough dirt, which proved too much for his wagon and horses. The horses were removed from the wagon, and it was lifted onto its wheels, soda water side up with care, then drove away leaving the broken bottles and lake of soda water behind.

MRS. HOBART COMING.

Widow of Late Vice President and Party of Distinguished Guests.

Mrs. Hobart, widow of the late vice president of the United States, will arrive here tomorrow morning in a special car with a distinguished party of six guests who are touring the west. After staying here for 24 hours they will leave for Yellowstone park Monday night over the Oregon Short Line. For the through trip a special private coach has been furnished with six horses.

LUMBERMEN HERE.

Special Train Carrying 250 Arrives
This Afternoon From Coast.

The Lumbermen's association of Nebraska arrives in this city this afternoon from a trip to the Portland fair and the northwest generally. The party which is comprised of 250 people, is traveling on a special train. They propose to stay in Salt Lake until tomorrow afternoon taking in the sights when they will leave for home over the Rio Grande-Northern, Colorado Midland and the Burlington.

BAGSHAW'S RECORD.

Distinguished Horse Thief Again at His Old Tricks.

It appears from evidence secured by the officials today that Ray Bagshaw, the man who was arrested last evening by Deputy Sheriff Isaac Emery for stealing a horse from the Kimball family stable, has quite a record in that line of criminality. He served a term in the state prison for horse stealing in Beaver county and was released from the prison on March 18, 1903.

On June 6 he got a horse and buggy from the Regal livery stable at Murray and sold the horse to a party in this city for $20. On June 12 he hired a team and buggy from the Salt Lake Livery & Transfer company and failed to return them and the rig was held the next day tied to a hitching post at the west entrance to the city and equity building.

Thursday he hired a fine saddle horse from Kimball's stable in this city and rode it to Bonanza, where he sold it for $25. Yesterday a short time before his arrest, he hired a horse and buggy from Bell & Sellers on State street and probably would have sold them also had not been arrested when he was. The suit was found today at the Commercial market and was returned to its owner. It is more than likely that Mr. Bagshaw will return to his old cell at the state prison in the near future.

PUSHING THE PAVING.

No Time Being Lost in Work on South
Temple Street.

Contractor P. J. Moran is pushing things on the east South Temple street paving proposition. The troublesome junction at E and South Temple streets has been finished, and by Monday teams will be running over it. The asphalters are hurrying up the remainder of the north side of the street east of the Kearns residence to Seventh East street, and concreting has begun at the west end of the south roadway. The street railway service is rapidly laying new south-side tracks, so that the street presents a very lively appearance.

BUSY AT STOCKYARDS.

Eight Thousand Cattle and Thirty Thousand Sheep Handled This Week.

This has been another busy week at the Salt Lake stockyards, and Manager C. J. Lewis is feeling decidedly secure, not at all nervous and thankful that tomorrow is a day of rest. Cattle of all breeds are being sold, and including some 8,000 head, were cared for at the yards this week. Some 30,000 head of sheep were also handled. Indirectly it may be said that Salt Lake people do not realize how much business is carried on at the head yards.

CHICAGO STRIKE.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Chicago, June 24.—John V. Farwell, Jr., today gave out the following statement on the strike situation: "Inasmuch as a settlement giving adequate protection to a non-union man seems unlikely, the employers are preparing to refuse to take back any striking transfers. In such an event, of course, no further conferences could be held. The strike has ceased to be a strike, but rather an annoyance. It no longer has any effect on business."

STATES ATTY. HEALY AND AREA. STATE ATTY. FAKE.

Heal, Atty. General, and Area, State Atty. Fake, appeared before the June grand jury and submitted evidence secured by the Atty. Gen. and present grand jury in the strike investigation. The strike investigation ended today, and the jurors on Monday will vote what true bills the state attorney and his assistants advised.

SVEDISH RADICALS.

Prosecuting Campaign in Favor
Of Making Demands on Norway.

Stockholm, Sweden, June 24.—The uncompromising element in the riksdag is actively prosecuting a campaign in favor of presenting to Norway demands representing Sweden's irreducible minimum and obtaining guarantees from Norway before passing the bill conferring on the government powers to negotiate terms for the formal separation of Norway and Sweden. This faction considers that the government ought to be authorized to contract an emergency loan of $25,000,000 and mobilize troops to support Sweden's demands. The government, however, has still the strong, united backing of the moderate party which is prepared to entrust the king and the ministry with the powers demanded for untrammelled negotiations in regard to the necessary guarantees to be given before agreeing to dissolution of the union.

New Cases of Yellow Fever.

ALSO MUCH BETTER SEWERAGE.

Time for All Lovers of Peace and Prosperity to Stand and Work Together for the City's Good.

The bow of promise is shining brightly for Salt Lake. The future is assured. Ours is to be a larger city. It is to be so soon. The growth is already on. It cannot be stopped. It may be blocked and retarded but it cannot be stopped. The slogan is "Onward." Those who do not espouse every interest to that end are not friends of Salt Lake or of Utah.

During the week there has been a general and universal rejoicing over the decision of the supreme court with reference to the recent $1,000,000 bond issue. It was such a decision that gives the American people confidence in the men who administer and pass upon the laws by which they are governed. The supreme court was one body that the "knockers" could not influence although it has been "knocked" by the hammer striking crowd for what it did in a matter of right and civil government. But the main proposition is that justice was vindicated, and that the compromisers against the city's progress failed in their efforts to stop improvements.

FOR "GREATER SALT LAKE."

Now the good work is to go on and it has been observed that the last day or two of the construction of the sewerage system are a climax on to the road wagon and helping the procession along by shouting for "a greater Salt Lake." That is the spirit that is animating and that is all that is needed.

THE BOND MONEY.
