A ROMANCE IN WYOMING.

A Young Lady Charged with Defrauding a Bank.—The Sugar Beet Industry.—Hill Weather at Helena.

The Hills (Nevada).—Independent stations that the thermometer indicated forty degrees below zero at Hallack last Thursday morning, and twenty-three degrees at Elko.

The coyotes are getting bold through hunger. Three huge holes below the snow a few days ago chased the wolfman's dog within feet of where the wolfman stood.—Rocky Mountain News.

Helena Herald. Residents of Helena sleep without windows open, while in surrounding states closed double doors will not keep out the intense cold. Montana is surely the banana belt.

Leavenworth (Utah).—Mrs. LeFrantz, of the hotel on Main Street, tell the other evening and next night gash over the right eye.

Acting on a hunch from the principalities of the country the commissioners agreed to allow $100 to be given as a contribution to the New Mexico's exhibit at the World's Fair.

Quite a romance, says the Cheyenne (Wyoming) Sun, has been enacted in this city. Charles J. Gibson, of West Virginia, came in on the noon train from the East and was soon after seen with Annie Gibson, of Larimer county, Colorado. After the meeting on time was past, they went up to the court house, procured a license and were married in time to take the California train. They had but forty minutes to do the deed and made ready for the journey.

The commissioners made committee a million and mining will be an important industry introduced by the railroad, providing that the hydraulic mining may be carried on wherever it can be done without injury to navigable streams. The same course will be taken with oil wells creating a field of development opportunities and appropriations $50,000 to construct dams and restraining works, providing that Congress appropriates at least the same amount.

The supreme court of Idaho has dismissed the writ of error in the case of Frank Reed, who is under indictment for murder committed in Shoshone County. Reed applied to the state for a writ of habeas corpus for a change of venue and the application was denied. The case was then taken to the supreme court, being the first of the kind ever heard in Idaho. The court holds that there is no law authorizing it to review criminal proceedings of any trial until the case shall have been concluded in the lower court.

A few afternoons ago a dispute occurred in a saloon at San Bernardino, Calif., between the notorious tough Jim Cadd and a mite named Stewart of San Francisco. Subsequently Stewart left the saloon and went into the street and struck a man behind the ear with a shotgun, crushing the skull. Stewart was shot down to a drug store and medical assistance summoned. His case is pronounced hopeless. Captain of the police, said he would not let the fight off, as he will probably be severely dealt with.

Sheriff Lovins of Prescott, Arizona, passed west through Laramie on Wednesday. A writ has been granted by Governor Osborne for the surrender of a man named Whiting who is wanted in Prescott for a murder committed in 1886. The man has been serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary. He was invited there for some time committed in Fremont county, but was acquitted. In the meantime the authorities of Prescott got up to his whereabouts and wired the sheriff at Laramie to him. He did so and the sheriff of Prescott failed to take him back to Arizona.

Arthur E. Robinson of London, England, arrived in San Diego, Cal., from New Orleans a few days ago on a part of his tour of the United States which is in making. He is engaged in buying and selling for trading and pleasure. The company's intention is to purchase 100,000 acres, settle the land with English colonists and enter into the production of best sugar on a grand scale. Mr. Robinson is now at Honolulu, where he is engaged in buying land that is well suited in quantity and quality for the purposes of his company. The company intends to erect factories when ready for the treatment of sugar, and the movements now are in progress, indicating the development of a numerous new industry in this country.

A sensational triple shooting affray has occurred at Butte, Montana. Charles Buley shot his wife and wife's whipper, with whom she was living, and then sent a bullet into the heart of his own son, Whipple, who was riding his horse. The bullet struck and killed the woman with the result that Buley was shot through the heart. Whipple and the woman came to Butte together recently from Spokane and their relatives at Littleton, Colo. Littleton is the woman's name and she is well known in sporting and variety theater circles throughout the Northwest and on the coast. Buley arrived on the 22d this month and was riding his horse about inciting a fall from his wife and son, sought the women with the result that Buley was a long distance from home and a native of Montana.
