

OCCUPATIONS OF BASEBALL PLAYERS

What the Big Leagues Do During
The Dull Winter
Months.

SOME TAKE LIFE QUITE EASY.

Most Big Leaguers are Thrifty and
Many Have Sng Bank Accounts
—Professionals in Game.

What do the big league players do
during the winter?

For six months the ball player is prominently before the public. His performance, good or bad, are exploited in the paper every day and his name is a by-word with every baseball fan throughout the country. His period of activity ends in the middle of April and ends the winter of October. Then he drops out of sight.

Few of the big league players reside in the cities in which they play. Just as the final game of the season is over, they like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities.

The big league players of the present are a thrifty lot. Most of them have money enough to live in a business of their own. Some of the players have so established their places of business during the winter that they can make a profit that compares very favorably with their salary during the summer months.

One of the most popular of the players is Fred Glade of the New York team. He is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

Johnny Kling of Chicago has a fine home and a fine place of business in Chicago. Kling's place of business is the baseball headquarters for the city. He is one of the cleverest pool players in the business and is regarded as the champion among the ball players. There are many who believe that he is without superior in the country, but Kling has always refused to compete for the championship title.

SEVERAL ARE RANCHERS.
Roy Hartzell of the St. Louis Browns is a ranchman. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

Fred Glade of the New York team is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

POPULAR OCCUPATIONS.
The managing of bowling alleys, the writing of sports stories and the management of sporting goods appears to be the most popular of the winter work. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

Wagner of Pittsburgh, one of the great players of the game, has been reduced to taking things easy this winter. Wagner lives in Carnegie and the hardest exercise he takes during the winter is the first of each month when he collects the rents from his many tenants. Until last year Wagner was a publisher. His baseball guide is getting more popular each year and will soon take its place as one of the most popular of the winter work.

STONE TAKES LIFE EASY.
George Stone, the wonderful hitter of the St. Louis Browns, takes things rather easy during the winter. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

THE BOWLING GAME APPEALS TO MANY.
Dixie Donahue is the manager of the Dixie alleys in Chicago. Out of a fallure Donahue has made a big success. The Dixie alleys are the most popular in Chicago and "Dixie" is reaping a big bunch of money out of the venture. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

WINTER BASEBALL GETS SEVERAL.
Winter baseball in Florida appeals to a number of the big leaguers. During the months of January and February the managers of the big leagues entertain the guests of the winter hotels in Florida. The teams represent the Dixie, the team of the Dixie system. The players work from two to four games a week and for their expenses. Mike Washington of Cleveland, and Dixie Donahue are a few of the star ball players who are out in Florida. Florida and incidentally pay a little money and get a lot of good things to Barney Peltz, the clever pitcher of the

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain. No woman will use "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

There is never a disagreement in any family on HESLER'S FLOUR. It makes the best hot breads.

St. Louis Browns, is a busy man during the winter. Peltz runs a book store in Farmington, is a book store, stationery and the like used in the public schools have to be bought at Peltz's place of business, for he runs the leading establishment.

John Kling of Chicago has a fine home and a fine place of business in Chicago. Kling's place of business is the baseball headquarters for the city. He is one of the cleverest pool players in the business and is regarded as the champion among the ball players. There are many who believe that he is without superior in the country, but Kling has always refused to compete for the championship title.

SEVERAL ARE RANCHERS.
Roy Hartzell of the St. Louis Browns is a ranchman. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

Fred Glade of the New York team is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

POPULAR OCCUPATIONS.
The managing of bowling alleys, the writing of sports stories and the management of sporting goods appears to be the most popular of the winter work. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

Wagner of Pittsburgh, one of the great players of the game, has been reduced to taking things easy this winter. Wagner lives in Carnegie and the hardest exercise he takes during the winter is the first of each month when he collects the rents from his many tenants. Until last year Wagner was a publisher. His baseball guide is getting more popular each year and will soon take its place as one of the most popular of the winter work.

STONE TAKES LIFE EASY.
George Stone, the wonderful hitter of the St. Louis Browns, takes things rather easy during the winter. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

THE BOWLING GAME APPEALS TO MANY.
Dixie Donahue is the manager of the Dixie alleys in Chicago. Out of a fallure Donahue has made a big success. The Dixie alleys are the most popular in Chicago and "Dixie" is reaping a big bunch of money out of the venture. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

WINTER BASEBALL GETS SEVERAL.
Winter baseball in Florida appeals to a number of the big leaguers. During the months of January and February the managers of the big leagues entertain the guests of the winter hotels in Florida. The teams represent the Dixie, the team of the Dixie system. The players work from two to four games a week and for their expenses. Mike Washington of Cleveland, and Dixie Donahue are a few of the star ball players who are out in Florida. Florida and incidentally pay a little money and get a lot of good things to Barney Peltz, the clever pitcher of the

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain. No woman will use "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

There is never a disagreement in any family on HESLER'S FLOUR. It makes the best hot breads.

St. Louis Browns, is a busy man during the winter. Peltz runs a book store in Farmington, is a book store, stationery and the like used in the public schools have to be bought at Peltz's place of business, for he runs the leading establishment.

HESLER'S FLOUR

What the Big Leagues Do During
The Dull Winter
Months.

SOME TAKE LIFE QUITE EASY.

Most Big Leaguers are Thrifty and
Many Have Sng Bank Accounts
—Professionals in Game.

What do the big league players do
during the winter?

For six months the ball player is prominently before the public. His performance, good or bad, are exploited in the paper every day and his name is a by-word with every baseball fan throughout the country. His period of activity ends in the middle of April and ends the winter of October. Then he drops out of sight.

Few of the big league players reside in the cities in which they play. Just as the final game of the season is over, they like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities.

The big league players of the present are a thrifty lot. Most of them have money enough to live in a business of their own. Some of the players have so established their places of business during the winter that they can make a profit that compares very favorably with their salary during the summer months.

One of the most popular of the players is Fred Glade of the New York team. He is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

Johnny Kling of Chicago has a fine home and a fine place of business in Chicago. Kling's place of business is the baseball headquarters for the city. He is one of the cleverest pool players in the business and is regarded as the champion among the ball players. There are many who believe that he is without superior in the country, but Kling has always refused to compete for the championship title.

SEVERAL ARE RANCHERS.
Roy Hartzell of the St. Louis Browns is a ranchman. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

Fred Glade of the New York team is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

POPULAR OCCUPATIONS.
The managing of bowling alleys, the writing of sports stories and the management of sporting goods appears to be the most popular of the winter work. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

Wagner of Pittsburgh, one of the great players of the game, has been reduced to taking things easy this winter. Wagner lives in Carnegie and the hardest exercise he takes during the winter is the first of each month when he collects the rents from his many tenants. Until last year Wagner was a publisher. His baseball guide is getting more popular each year and will soon take its place as one of the most popular of the winter work.

STONE TAKES LIFE EASY.
George Stone, the wonderful hitter of the St. Louis Browns, takes things rather easy during the winter. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

THE BOWLING GAME APPEALS TO MANY.
Dixie Donahue is the manager of the Dixie alleys in Chicago. Out of a fallure Donahue has made a big success. The Dixie alleys are the most popular in Chicago and "Dixie" is reaping a big bunch of money out of the venture. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

WINTER BASEBALL GETS SEVERAL.
Winter baseball in Florida appeals to a number of the big leaguers. During the months of January and February the managers of the big leagues entertain the guests of the winter hotels in Florida. The teams represent the Dixie, the team of the Dixie system. The players work from two to four games a week and for their expenses. Mike Washington of Cleveland, and Dixie Donahue are a few of the star ball players who are out in Florida. Florida and incidentally pay a little money and get a lot of good things to Barney Peltz, the clever pitcher of the

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain. No woman will use "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Our book "Motherhood," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by addressing application to Bradfield Regulator Co. Atlanta, Ga.

There is never a disagreement in any family on HESLER'S FLOUR. It makes the best hot breads.

St. Louis Browns, is a busy man during the winter. Peltz runs a book store in Farmington, is a book store, stationery and the like used in the public schools have to be bought at Peltz's place of business, for he runs the leading establishment.

For six months the ball player is prominently before the public. His performance, good or bad, are exploited in the paper every day and his name is a by-word with every baseball fan throughout the country. His period of activity ends in the middle of April and ends the winter of October. Then he drops out of sight.

Few of the big league players reside in the cities in which they play. Just as the final game of the season is over, they like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities. They like to get away from the city and live in the smaller cities.

The big league players of the present are a thrifty lot. Most of them have money enough to live in a business of their own. Some of the players have so established their places of business during the winter that they can make a profit that compares very favorably with their salary during the summer months.

One of the most popular of the players is Fred Glade of the New York team. He is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

Johnny Kling of Chicago has a fine home and a fine place of business in Chicago. Kling's place of business is the baseball headquarters for the city. He is one of the cleverest pool players in the business and is regarded as the champion among the ball players. There are many who believe that he is without superior in the country, but Kling has always refused to compete for the championship title.

SEVERAL ARE RANCHERS.
Roy Hartzell of the St. Louis Browns is a ranchman. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

Fred Glade of the New York team is a miller but Fred doesn't do any of the hard work. He is a second miller and his brother in several big flour mills in the northwest. The mills are all big payers and Glade's retirement to look after his business interests is an annual winter story.

POPULAR OCCUPATIONS.
The managing of bowling alleys, the writing of sports stories and the management of sporting goods appears to be the most popular of the winter work. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

Wagner of Pittsburgh, one of the great players of the game, has been reduced to taking things easy this winter. Wagner lives in Carnegie and the hardest exercise he takes during the winter is the first of each month when he collects the rents from his many tenants. Until last year Wagner was a publisher. His baseball guide is getting more popular each year and will soon take its place as one of the most popular of the winter work.

STONE TAKES LIFE EASY.
George Stone, the wonderful hitter of the St. Louis Browns, takes things rather easy during the winter. He has a fine place of business in St. Louis and a fine ranch in the northwest. The breeding of cattle is his chief business and a handsome income is realized each year. Hartzell is a fan of the western life and every year he insists that he be sent to the west. There is a fascination about the game, however, that he can't resist and when the bell rings for the spring practice he is always back for the spring practice.

THE BOWLING GAME APPEALS TO MANY.
Dixie Donahue is the manager of the Dixie alleys in Chicago. Out of a fallure Donahue has made a big success. The Dixie alleys are the most popular in Chicago and "Dixie" is reaping a big bunch of money out of the venture. Charley Hickock and Addie Jones of Birmingham, Cleveland, and George Up of Cincinnati are a trio of players who have taken up the management of bowling alleys during the winter.

SIX-DAY RACE.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—When the walkers in the six-day race stopped for the day at midnight tonight the score was as follows:

Hongland	Miles. Laps.
Shater	122
Messier	121
Player	120
Hartley	119
Blake	118
Lloyd	117

PACKY SELECTED.

McFarland Practically Certain to Meet Britt or Nelson.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Packey McFarland, who is practically matched to meet the winner of the Britt-Nelson match before San Diego's day in San Francisco, will tomorrow post a forfeit of $1,000 to guarantee his appearance in the ring, and the date set for the match will be late in March. Gilmore practically closed all arrangements with the western fight promoter tonight. The manager of McFarland desires Jeffries for referee, but in the event that the retired champion refuses to officiate, Gilmore will agree on either Welch, Malachuk Hogan or Doc Krons of Chicago. Packey has already started light training here, and is awaiting the arrival of transportation. The Chicago whirlwind and his manager will leave for the west on Monday.

Packey is anxious to get Nelson and is hopeful that the Dane will defeat the court fighter, but should Britt come out of his battle with the Dane with flying colors, Packey will face Britt. The Chicago lad says either of the two lightweights are easy for him and he believes he can stop either before the limit, which, in this case, will be twenty rounds.

THE AUTO RACE.

Banquet at Chicago in Honor of Contestants.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—The crews of the American and Italian cars and French car No. 1 in the New York-to-Paris automobile race were guests of the Chicago Automobile club tonight at a banquet in their honor. French No. 2 and the German entrant put up for the night in South Bend, Ind., intending to leave at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for Chicago. At about the same hour the American party, according to present plans, will leave Chicago for the west. The other cars now here, it was said, would not be ready to start before Saturday morning. Denial was made tonight by G. B. Chaffray, in charge of the announced route was anticipated.

"I was asked to alter the course," he said, "so as to cut out Las Vegas, but I see no reason why I should do so. The race must continue as planned. I said out. We must take a boat in Seattle on March 8, then continue north and then ship our cars by train to the coast."

If the plans of St. Chaffray are carried out, the ability of the automobiles will not pass through Las Vegas, and the express car. It will be impossible for the autos to reach here March 8, and the announcement of the route was not changed they will take the train to Seattle and pass up the western part of the country.

Elkhart, Ind., Feb. 27.—The German car broke down universal joint early today seven miles west of here and is being towed back by horses.

The second French car, which was carried here before noon, is being pursued by a constable, who has a writ of attachment for a claim made by a farmer for pay for the use of his horses in pulling the car through snowdrifts.

Sterling Ill., Feb. 27.—The car bearing a message from General Grant at New York City to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., rushed through Sterling at 2:15 p. m. and punctured the caused delay of an hour.

ITALIANS STORM COURT.

Armed Aliens Try to Rescue Country-men at Montreal.

Montreal, Quebec, Feb. 27.—There was a scene in the corridors of the Montreal court house today, when a party of Italians were brought before the recorder for carrying concealed weapons. Three hundred of their countrymen tried to rush the doors of the courtroom and the police had trouble to take them back. One man was arrested, and was found to have a long dirk concealed in his stock-in-trade.

Later all were sentenced to four years each. When the sentence had been pronounced, four of the sympathizers went to a saloon across the square from the court house, where they pulled out a siletto, made a solemn vow to kill the recorder. He escaped and the police are looking for him.

VENNER CALLED DOWN BY CHICAGO JUSTICE.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Judge Ball, in the superior court, today dismissed the bill filed by Clarence H. Venner of New York seeking to enjoin the Chicago City railway and the city from operating under the ordinance recently granted by the city. In concluding his opinion, Judge Ball said:

"This complainant purchased his stock and waited until the ordinance had been passed and bonds issued before he filed his bill; that he might come into his money and sit quiet. Justice Brewer of the supreme court of the United States, who said, in the case brought by the same complainant against the Farmers' Loan & Trust company:

"It looks very much as if he had dug a pit and was anxiously keeping the pathway to it in good order. Into this pit he has fallen, and must there lie."

FIVE HURT IN WRECK.
Edmore, Mich., Feb. 27.—A relief engine going to the assistance of a Pere Marquette passenger train, which was stalled in the snow near Whitman station, crashed into the rear of the train today and nearly demolished one passenger coach. Five passengers were injured, one fatally, and three others seriously. Miss Lida Jones, Belding, Mich., will die.

BECAUSE HE IS STINGY.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 27.—Valeria M. Coad, who claims to be the wife of Mark W. Coad, today filed affidavits in the district court to prove that her husband is worth more than $500,000. She asserts that he has failed to provide for her. Mrs. Coad asks a divorce with alimony, and is a well-known horseman and lives at Fremont, Neb.

YOUNGEST D. A. R. DIES.

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Lydia A. White, aged 80, the youngest daughter of the American revolution, is dead. She was in the enjoyment of good health until a few days ago, when a severe cold was followed by pneumonia. She was a native and life-long resident of this city. Her father was George Leonard, who served in the revolution under Gen. Washington and participated in the battles of Brandywine, Princeton and Germantown.

NOTED POLISH WRITER BURIED.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The funeral of Frank H. Jablonski, one of the foremost Polish nationalists and newspaper men in America, was held yesterday. Three thousand persons attended the services.

A cheerful disposition for ten cents per week. Sweet breath, no headache, no dullness, no blues. All that—and more—in a box of Cascarets.

Cascarets supply a natural need. They simply do what some foods will do; what fruits will do, if used in abundance; what exercise does.

They cause the bowel muscles to act. Their effect is as natural and gentle as the same effect from food.

If we lived out-doors, and ate whole wheat, green vegetables and fruits, we would never need Cascarets. But we don't exercise enough. We eat fine food, much starch, and too little of fruit and green things.

We live artificially, so we need an artificial laxative. Cascarets give us, in concentrated form, one vital effect that we lack in rich food. Some people need them more frequently than others. It depends on your food, your drink and your exercise.

But we all need them sometimes. The right way to take them is one Cascaret at a time. Take it just as soon as you need it. You can tell. Don't wait till night. Carry a box always with you. Ward off the dullness, the headaches. Keep yourself always at your best.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and 10 cents per box.

When you want a prescription, when you want it correct. Bring it to us.

A Reliable Store.
The Bridge Drug Co.
Obliging Druggists
18 Main St.
Phones: Ind. 480; Bell, 1520.

Bulk perfume, either in the finest imported or domestic makes is one of the specialties in our store of high class goods, in which particular attention is paid.

We have purchased every foreign and domestic variety in which quality is the feature, and we are constantly adding the newest popular orders to our list.

Kept under dark glass, they never vary in quality or strength, and you may buy them in any quantity.

SCHRAMM'S
Where the Cars Stop,
The Great Prescription
Drug Store.

Any of these troubles?
Constipation,
Poor Appetite,
Bilious Attacks,
"Sick Headache,"
Liver Disorders,
Stomach Upset,
"Bad Breath,"
IF YOU HAVE,
A. D. S. Fruit Lax will positively bring relief.

GODBE - PITTS
DRUG CO.
Where you get just what you ask for; not something just as good.

SCENIC LINE OF THE WORLD!
THREE FAST FLYERS DAILY BETWEEN OGDEN AND DENVER
—CHOICE OF ROUTES—
THROUGH PULLMAN AND TOURIST SLEEPERS TO
DENVER, ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS. Dining Car Service a la carte on all through trains.

For Folders, Illustrated Booklets, etc., address
I. A. BENTON, Gen. Agt. Pass. Dept.
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

GOLDEN SUNBEAMS
We collected some more good money last week for our clients. We can collect some for you if you turn in your claims. Red streaks of honesty exist in money and get it!

Wm. Smith, Murray, Utah.
Mrs. B. F. Hale, 1244 So. State St., City.
N. M. Hamilton, 235 So. Main St., City.
N. C. Schellenger, Kenyon hotel, City.
Raymond Merc. Co., Raymond, Alameda, Canada.
A. H. Moyes, Ogden, Utah.
Sidney Stevens Imp. Co., Ogden, Utah.
G. F. Culmer & Bro., E. 1st So. City.
Basor Bros. Merc. Co., City.
Edw. Pernley, Beaver City, Utah.
Studebaker Bros. Co., City.
McCormick & Co. bankers, City.
F. W. Wilson, grouser, W. 2nd So. City.
Nyth & Fargo Co., Pocatello, Idaho.
Hagman & Son, Salt Lake City.
Utah Light & Ry. Co., City.
Hawley Bros., City.
E. K. Rich, Jr., grocer, City.
T. Olney, Gen'l Delivery, City.
Walker Bros. Fry Goods Co., City.

MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION
Scientific Collectors of Honest Debits 70-100 Commercial National Bank Bldg., Salt Lake City, Utah. 15 Years income building.
Francis G. Luke, General Manager.
"Some People Don't Like Us."

JEWELRY
Manufacturing and repairing our foremost specialties. We have the finest equipped shop for this work and employ more skilled mechanics than any jewelry store for miles in any direction. We will be glad to show you through any time.

ESTABLISHED 1862
Jewelry Store
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH
1862

DELIQUENT NOTICE.
BLACK JACK CONSOLIDATED MINING COMPANY—Principal place of business, Provo City, Utah.
Notice—There are delinquent upon the following described stock on account of Assessment No. 1, of three cents per share, levied on the 10th day of January, 1908, the several amounts set opposite the names of the respective shareholders, as follows:

No.	Name	Shares Amt. Due.
30	Caleb Hawa	33 2.97
34	P. M. Dugger	33 2.97
37	Geo. A. Storrs	42 3.78
39	David Kinger	37 3.33
42	E. Eggersten	33 2.97
45	Wm. H. Tibbals	33 2.97
47	J. C. Sullivan	238 21.42
110	E. Eggersten	200 18.00
115	J. C. Sullivan	200 18.00
116	J. C. Sullivan	200 18.00
117	J. C. Sullivan	200 18.00
119	J. C. Sullivan	200 18.00
125	Wm. H. Tibbals	400 36.00