THEATRE.—The very large gathering at the Theatre last night to witness "Diedrich, or Life in New York," shows the high estimate which the amusement-loving portion of the public of this city place upon the broadest kind of humor and nonsense. "Diedrich, or Life in New York" may have the elements of an ordinary successful sensation play, but now, save the "bulbs" made by Diedrich, the hero of the piece, a "Dutchman, but no fool," who is fully initiated in the mysteries of German accent and dialect, it has little to command it. But the blunders and adventures of Diedrich, and the very agile pranks of "Little Mac," while very successfully personating an ape, keep the audience in an almost continual state of laughter. It seems of the best houses seen at the Theatre for some time, and while nothing could very well give stronger evidence of the depraved taste of the Theatre-going public, so long as the demand for these Dutch-English farce monstrosities continues, the supply will equal it.

"Diedrich" with new songs, will be repeated to-night. Some of the new scenes and tableaux in this piece are very excellent.

Elder W. Woodruff will preach in the 13th Ward Assembly to-morrow afternoon. Services commence at 2 o'clock.

FIREMEN, ATTENTION!—Members of Alert Hose Company have their monthly meeting at Engine Hall at 7 p.m. to-night. JNO. W. SNELL, Secretary.

MEETING OF THE D. A. & M. SOCIETY.

The Board of Directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society, are requested to meet at the H. Storlien's Office to-night, at half past six o'clock.

ERRATUM.—In Engineer J. D. T. McAllister's report of the Fire Department in yesterday's News, the amount of damage done by the burning of Mr. Thomas Horne's residence was said to appear $4,150. It should have been $4,150.

S. S. LIBRARY COMMITTEE.—The Sunday School Library Committees are respectfully requested to meet at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow, Sunday, January 12th, at 4 p.m. A full and punctual attendance is invited.

SMALLPOX.—A correspondent at Morgan City, Morgan County, informs us that there is considerable excitement in that locality concerning the smallpox. At Morgan, Richville, and Porterville, all schools and public gatherings are discontinued for the present, as a preventive to the spreading of the malady. The part of Morgan where the disease has appeared is under quarantine. Many persons, old and young, were reported to have died before the nature of the disease was known. One case terminated fatally on the 8th, the victim being an eight year old son of Brother Robert Hogg.

MORE OF THE CORINNE CATTLE STEALING.—A correspondent writing from Birmingham, Jan. 8, gives us a few additional particulars regarding the Corinne cattle stealing affair. He says the robbers commenced in August of 1870, continuing up to the time the arrests were made. The stolen cattle mostly belonged to the residents of Brigham City and surrounding settlements. Little more of them was taken to Snake River and various points in Montana, besides which many were disposed of in Corinne. The stealing was not confined to cattle alone, but included a considerable number of horses. It is expected that further developments in the case will tend to implicate other citizens of Corinne besides those whose names have already appeared in connection with it.

FROM BEAR LAKE.—Elder David P. Kimball is in town, having arrived from Bear Lake a few days ago. Since his arrival he has been laid up with a severe cold. He is now convalescent and will soon reappear to attend the annual meeting convened with the County Court, he being one of the officials of Uintah County.

STILL AT LARGE.—William Brandon, the prisoner who escaped from the chain gang yesterday, is still at large.

HORSES STEALING.—A man who lives in the Eighth Ward and whose name we are informed, is White, had a horse, saddle and bridle stolen from his stable at a late hour last night.

IT HAS ARRIVED.—Alsatian. In its weak march, the epizootic has reached this city. There are, we are specially informed, seven genuine cases in the north-eastern part of the town. Two of the horses belong to Mr. Maximus W., two to Mr. Nathan Sears, two to Mr. Ralph Snowball and one to William son, of Mr. George Mortenson, who may be either cases of which we have not yet been informed. The appearance of the epizootic need not create any undue fears among herds owners, for if care be taken to keep the animals warm and not overwork them the dreaded malady may not be very serious. The animals are attired grain or other heating food should not be given to them. The food should be kept soft, and easy of digestion.

In addition to the cases above mentioned we have heard of instances of horses that have been taken with violent coughing, whining and other premonitory symptoms.

RETURNED.—Elder Wilford Woodward, who has been on a visit to Woodruff and Randolph, Bear River Valley, for a few weeks, returned last night, by way of Evanson. We learn from him that there are now about one hundred families at Evanson, and that the winter has been unusually mild thus far, enabling stock to do well on the range. There is about one foot of snow on the ground in the valley.

We learn from him that there are now about one hundred families at Sunday, excepted, but, in accordance with a request from the government, it has been decided, however, to open on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

We intend, so soon as our finances will permit, to open in the afternoon for ladies, but for the present will accept the best we can offer, and some time after the first of January get better.

To Messrs. Haydon and Gilchrist we are indebted for the use of our land, an almost nominal rental. In consideration of the matter of rent, rather than choice, but a little enterprise will enable all to find it. Look on East Temple street for No. 9, over the First National Bank.
