

WHEEL ORDINANCE BEFORE COUNCIL

Discussion, Lasting Over Two Hours, Results in No Action.

BUCKLE'S MEASURE KILLED.

Substitute Offered—Treasurer on Water Scrip Fund—Robertson Contradicts Him—Other Business.

After a discussion lasting fully two hours and a half, Councilman Buckle's proposed bicycle ordinance, introduced several weeks ago, last evening received its death blow. Too many amendments were adopted and the ordinance was killed. The amendments caused the discussion. Quite a few of them were adopted and a number were voted down. After the amendments had all been tacked on the author of the bill was scarcely able to recognize it. After the twentieth amendment had been offered Councilman Edgar Howe arose and moved to strike out the enacting clause of the ordinance. Second to the motion came from all parts of the council chamber. Then another discussion took place, resulting in the carrying of the motion by a vote of 5 to 4. Buckle, Cottrell, Fenstrom and Thomas voting in the negative.

Mr. Howe then offered a substitute ordinance and more talk followed. Finally, upon motion of Cottrell, it was laid over for next week.

Howe's ordinance is, in most respects, the same as the one offered by Buckle. The chief distinctions are that the period during which specified walks could be ridden upon is from November 1st to April 30th, and instead of all of South Temple, only the south side and the north side of E street to be open during the period named.

WATER SCRIP FUND.

In response to a resolution adopted by the council calling for a statement regarding the water scrip account, City Treasurer Mr. Morris has today communicated addressed to the members, said the fund was established by himself and auditor last July, the two having reached an agreement that the fund should be the best way of keeping this account correctly. Mr. Morris further stated that the method was adopted with the full knowledge and consent of the finance committee, including its chairman, Mr. Robertson.

Money received for water scrip is credited to this fund, and scrip redeemed in water rates, is charged against the account. If the money remaining in this fund was expended with the regular revenue of the city, it would be practically borrowing the amount of such outstanding scrip against the revenue of future years.

"If the money was turned into the general revenues it would practically be borrowing money against the revenue of future years," the communication read. Mr. Morris called an opinion from the city attorney to the effect that the water scrip is clearly a liability of the city and has to be taken into account in calculating the limit of indebtedness.

In closing, the treasurer referred to the instructions given him by the Council not to open any more special funds without the approval of the council. "The machinery of the details of method which the treasurer shall adopt in order to keep his accounts correctly," he said, "and in conformity with the requirements of law, in so far as they are not prescribed by law are, I take it, matter for his own discretion."

"I have always complied with the wishes of the Council in so far as I have learned them and I hope to be able to continue to do so, while at the same time adhering to the law and to correct methods of conducting the business of this office." The treasurer suggested that the instructions referred to be withdrawn. He also submitted a statement of the water scrip fund. It showed a balance of $27,093.10, made up of $18,408 taken from the special tax fund and a charge of $1,792.42 against the waterworks department.

Upon motion of Robertson the communication was referred to the finance committee.

Before the subject was disposed of Mr. Robertson took the floor and entered an emphatic denial to that portion of the treasurer's letter stating that the fund had been established with the knowledge and approval of the chairman of the finance committee. The speaker had heard such a move was contemplated, and the remark he made at the time was that if a fund was to be created for the redemption of water scrip, the proper thing would be to do away with water scrip altogether.

PREVALENCE OF "SMALLPOX."

Health Commissioner King sent in a communication calling attention to the prevalence of "smallpox" and the inefficiency of the present pesthouse for the accommodation of patients. He recommended that the old mill, about a mile this side of the present pesthouse, be fitted up for use as a detention hospital, believing that it could be fitted up at small expense and would be a permanent and suitable place for the purpose. The sanitary committee was instructed to report upon the probable cost of fitting up the mill.

Dr. King also recommended the construction of another garbage crematory. At present the garbage is hauled to the city dump—an unsanitary method. He said that it would take thirty days to build a crematory, and that the work should be started in time to complete it before spring. Referred to sanitary committee.

HIS POSITION IN MATTER.

After the reading of the minutes Councilman Canning rose to a question of personal privilege and said he wanted to prove that his position in the Pioneer square matter, with respect to the action of certain councilmen from the Second precinct, was correct. Canning had fairly proceeded when he was interrupted by Cottrell, who raised a point of order. The chair ruled the point not well taken. An appeal was taken and the chair sustained by a vote of 6 to 4. Canning was desirous of proving, by excerpts from the daily papers, that at the Second precinct convention held October 12th, 1899, before nominations for city councilmen began, A. S. Reiser introduced a resolution to the effect that it was the sense of the convention that Pioneer square should be maintained as a public park, and pledging the nominees of the convention to ask for appropriations from time to time, as necessary, to maintain the park.

The resolution, the papers said, passed unanimously.

Cottrell and Robertson, who opposed Canning, being given the privilege of the floor, said the member from the Second could be heard when the matter of donating the square came up again.

THE INDIGENT DEED.

Col. Maurice M. Kalgin called attention to the alleged hardships and dis-

ARRIVAL OF BERNHARDT AND COQUELIN.

The arrival of "the divine Sarah" and "the great Coquelin" on America's shores is an event of unusual importance. Mme. Bernhardt says this is to be her farewell tour in this country, but that is what the foreign stars always say. She is accompanied by a retinue of personal servants and a carload of wearing apparel.

There is a prevailing among some of the poor of Salt Lake, growing out of the present controversy between the city and county authorities as to which shall pay the expenses of burying the indigent dead, the case of Patrick J. Mahon, an old soldier, who died October 13 last, leaving a widow in destitute circumstances and no funds for his burial, was cited. Through the action of the attending physician, it was stated, Undertaker Jos. W. Taylor buried the old gentleman. Mr. Taylor's bill amounted to $48, of which amount the city paid out of its funds $35, leaving an unpaid balance of $13. Petition cited subdivision 75, section 206 of the Revised Statutes, which he said, conferred authority upon the Council to bury the indigent dead, and to pay the expenses thereof. Referred to committee on municipal laws.

DON'T LIKE THE WATER.

The Salt Lake Brewing company, by Jacob Morris, general manager, asked that it be given pure water instead of the unclean water now being conveyed to the brewery from Parley's canyon. Recently a change was made in the city water system, by which the brewery was connected with Parley's creek, which, petitioner said, was unfit for use in its business. If the condition continues, petitioner says, it will result in a great loss to its business. It having already been compelled to neglect and forego certain features of its business. Petitioner further stated that it was the principle of the country to "foster home industries," and claimed the brewery was the largest manufacturing institution in the State. The petition was referred to the waterworks committee.

THE CONDUIT CASE.

The law firm of Richards & Varian presented the bill for $367.50, on account of services rendered the municipality for briefing and arguing the case of Salt Lake City against Joseph H. Smith et al. in the United States circuit court of appeals, and for expenses of attending court at St. Paul. The bill was approved by City Attorney Frank B. Stephens, and the amount was ordered placed upon the appropriation list.

TO LEASE CITY LAND.

C. E. Pace petitioned the Council to lease him about 344 acres of land belonging to the city, situated in Dry Canyon, to be used for grazing purposes. Petitioner offered $150 for the use of the land from December 1st next until May 31st, 1901, from his own funds. He stated that he would have men continually with the stock so that the animals would not trespass on any of the city water sheds. Referred to committee on public grounds, with the city attorney associated.

PARK POLICEMAN REMOVED.

Chief Hilton sent in a communication removing Edgar S. Urry as park policeman on account of his services were no longer required. The chief wanted the matter referred to the police committee for investigation, but it meant an additional expense to the city, as Mr. Urry was receiving $30 a month salary. The action of the chief was confirmed, Thomas and Buckle voting no.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The Portland Cement company asked the privilege of laying a 2-inch private pipe on the right bank of the water mains, granted, upon motion of Councilman C. R. Howe.

The board form, with an added amendment that the auditor instead of the recorder should certify that the bonds were within the limit of indebtedness, was adopted.

A recommendation from the city attorney that the water bonds be printed so as to be ready for issuance as soon as Mr. O'Meara's restraining order was dissolved, was referred to the finance committee.

The appropriation list included an item of $7,731.34 for the Excelsior Wood-ent-Stave Pipe company, upon its last estimate for the reservoir, and about $16,000 was appropriated on Moran's account.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS PLAY.

Eustice H. Miles of England Defeats Robert Moore of New York.

He Scored Twelve Points to His Opponent's Eight—Scoring Was Very Low—Football News.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 21.—Three squash racquet courts were opened last night by the Crickier club at Haverford with a match between Eustice H. Miles of England, the amateur court tennis champion of the world, and Robert Moore, professional of the Tuxedo club, New York. The courts in which the match was played is 15 feet wide, 30 feet long and 15 feet in height, and in consequence necessitated rapid play. As a result the volleying was incessant and the scoring so slow that the expiration of twenty minutes, the time limit agreed upon, Miles had scored twelve points and Moore eight. The former was therefore declared the winner.

Previous to the Miles-Moore contest, Albert Ellis, of the Philadelphia Racquet club, played Moore a match, limited to a period of twenty minutes, and was defeated by a score of 13-5 and 6-4, the latter being the score of the second game when time was called. C. J. Hickey of the Philadelphia Racquet club, officiated as referee and marker.

Corbett says the westerner, whose name he does not care to mention, will offer a purse of $15,000 for a twenty-round bout between himself and Jeffries, to take place east of the Mississippi. TRIAL OF JESSIE MORRISON

Charged With Cutting the Throat of Mrs. Olin Castle.

Eldorado, Kas., Nov. 21.—Miss Jessie Morrison, charged with killing Mrs. Olin Castle last June by cutting her throat with a razor, was placed on trial here today. The case is one of the most remarkable in the history of Kansas crimes. Miss Morrison's alleged motive for the murder was jealousy; she having been a former sweet-heart of Castle, who is a clerk in a local "racket" store.

Miss Morrison, who is twenty-six years old, is the daughter of former probate Judge H. H. Morrison. The family has been prominent in Eldorado society for years. Mrs. Castle, who was a Miss Mary Wiley, was the same age as her alleged murderer, and her family was also well to do.

A short time before Castle's marriage to Miss Wiley, Miss Morrison, who had formerly lived in the same store with her, had been in the store with Castle. One afternoon a few weeks after the wedding, neighbors, attracted by Mrs. Castle's screams, broke into her house. They found her lying in a pool of blood from several ugly gashes in her throat, and with Miss Morrison, razor in hand, standing over the prostrate woman. Miss Morrison was, too, bleeding from several cuts.

Mrs. Castle lived for eighteen days. Before she died she made a statement declaring that Miss Morrison had attacked her without provocation, and sent word for her to come. The prosecution will contend that the defendant deliberately planned the murder, going to the Castle home armed with a razor, and purchasing a razor for the purpose, and that after several ugly gashes in her throat, she turned the blade upon herself.

Miss Morrison will plead self defense with her side of the story which is that Mrs. Castle called her into the house and after starting a quarrel, attacked her with a razor, which she took from a bureau drawer in the room. In the struggle that followed, Miss Morrison declared she wrenched the weapon from her adversary after receiving several cuts, and in defending herself inflicted several slashes in the victim's throat.

At the preliminary hearing last summer, Miss Morrison was held without bail. Much of her time in jail since then has been spent in reading the Bible.

The trial will doubtless become a legal battle as eminent attorneys have been engaged on both sides. The defense was a point recently when it seemed a copy of Mrs. Castle's dying statement, which was returned them at the preliminary hearing.

Olin Castle, the man in the case, is younger than either of the women concerned.

PUNISHMENT OF CHINESE.

Full Text of Imperial Decree Declaring What It Is.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The Japanese legation has received from the foreign office at Tokio the text of the Chinese imperial edict, dated the 15th inst., on the punishment of the anti-foreign officials. It is to the following effect: "Orders have been already issued for the punishment of the officials responsible for opening hostilities upon friendly powers and bringing the country into the present critical condition by neglecting to suppress and even by encouraging the Boxers. But as Pekin and its neighborhood have not yet been entirely cleared of the Boxers, the innocent people are still suffering terribly through the devastation of their fields and the destruction of their houses, a state of affairs which cannot fail to fill one with the bitterest feelings against those officials. And if they are not severely punished, how can the anger of the people be appeased and the indignation of the foreign powers allayed?"

"Accordingly, Prince Tuan is hereby deprived of his title and rank, and shall, together with Prince Chwang, who has already been deprived of his title, be delivered to the Clan court to be kept in prison until the restoration of peace.

When the Hair Falls Out

accompanied by mucous patches in the mouth, eruptions on the skin, sore throat, copper colored spots, swollen glands, aching muscles and bones, the disease is making rapid headway, and for worse symptoms will follow unless the blood is promptly and efficiently cleansed of this violent destructive poison.

S. S. S. is the only safe and infallible cure for this disease, the only antidote for this specific poison. It cures the worst cases thoroughly and permanently.

My Condition Could Have Been No Worse.

In the fall of 1897 I contracted Blood Poison. I tried S. S. S. and it cured me. I was getting worse all the time; my hair came out, ulcers appeared in my throat and mouth, my body was almost covered with copper colored spots and offensive sores. I suffered severely from rheumatic pains in my shoulders and arms. My condition had become so bad that I was almost unable to move. I had lost all hope of ever being well again when I decided to try S. S. S.

I must confess I had little faith left in my medicine. After taking the third bottle I noticed a change in my condition. This was very encouraging, and I determined to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. From that time on the improvement was rapid; S. S. S. seemed to have the disease completely under control; the sores and ulcers healed, and I was soon free from all signs of the disorder. I have been strong and healthy ever since.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

when they shall be banished to Sheng King to be imprisoned for life. Princes Yi and Tsai Yung, who have both been already deprived of their titles, are also to be delivered to the Clan court for imprisonment. The Prince Tsai, who has been already deprived of title and rank, is to be kept confined in his house. Duke Tsai-Lan shall forfeit his dual salary, but may be transferred with the degradation of one rank. The Prince Yung Xuen shall be degraded two ranks and transferred.

"As to Kang Yi, minister of the board of civil appointment, upon his return from the commission on which he has been sent for the purpose of making inquiries into the Boxer affair, he memorialized the throne in an audience strongly in their favor. He should have been severely punished but for his death from illness, and all penalties are accordingly remitted.

"Chao Shuy-Yao, minister of the board of punishment, who had been sent on a mission similar to that of Kang Yi, returned immediately. Though such conduct was a flagrant neglect of his duties, still he did not make a distorted report to the throne, and therefore he shall be deprived of his rank, but allowed to retain his present office. Finally Yu Hsien, ex-governor of Shan Si, allowed, while in office, the Boxers freely to massacre the Christian missionaries and converts. For this he deserves the severest punishment, and therefore he is to be banished to the furthest province of the country, there to be kept at hard labor for life.

We have a full knowledge of present trouble from the very beginning, and therefore though no impeachment had been brought by Chinese officials at home or abroad, against Princes Yi, Tsai-Lan and Tsai Yung, we order them to be punished in the same manner as those who have been impeached. All who see this edict will thus perceive our justice and impartiality in inflicting condign penalties on these officials."

Playwright C. H. Hoyt Dead.

Charleston, N. H., Nov. 20.—Charles H. Hoyt, the well known playwright, died at his home here tonight of paralysis, from which he had been suffering for several months past.

The death of Charles Hale Hoyt is marked with a pathos in marked contrast to the rollicking character of the plays that made him famous. The closing chapter of his life began with the death of his second wife, the beautiful Caroline Miskel Hoyt, a couple of years or more ago. He sought forgetfulness in a mad career of dissipation, which brought about his physical and mental collapse, resulting last August in his being committed to an asylum, and now in his death.

Mr. Hoyt was born at Concord, N. H., July 25, 1850. As an editorial and dramatic writer on the Boston Post his brilliant pen attracted attention, and he was persuaded to write a farce. His pen has since been responsible for "A Bunch of Keys," "A Flag Baby," "A Tin Soldier," "A Hole in the Ground," "A Midnight Bell," "A Brass Monkey," "A Texas Steer," "A Parlor Match," "A Temperance Town," "A Black Sheep," "A Contented Woman," "A Milk White Flag," "A Trip to Chinatown," "A Stranger in New York," "A Day and a Night," and "A Dog in the Manger."

He was a successful theatrical manager and figured in politics enough to be twice elected to the New Hampshire legislature and to be a Democratic candidate for speaker.

His first wife was Flora Walsh, who starred in his plays and died not long after their marriage. "A Contented Woman" was written for his second wife, Caroline Miskel Hoyt.
