PEDAGOGUES. — Mrs. Swisshelm has written to the Pittsburg Commercial a letter of sharp criticism on the methods of teaching in the common schools of Pennsylvania. She says the arts of reading and grammatical composition are systematically neglected that the pupils may be instructed in mathematical mysteries and linguistic niceties of no practical use. She gives instances within her own experience of the grossest ignorance in ence of the grossest ignorance in the matters of orthography and grammatical composition among teachers of good standing. We do not know that the matter is so bad upon their representations; that the people are in danger of being oppressed and involved in vexatious litigation by the acts of this prepeople are in danger of being oppressed and involved in vexatious litigation by the acts of this pretended legislature; and that peace is now and can only be preserved during the existing state of affairs at the expense and through the army of the U.S. The bill provides for a new election on the fourth Tuesday in May, '74, for State officers and members of the legislature. The President is required to appoint a superintendent of election, either a civilian, or an army officer not below the rank of Somebody having sent the editor of the Truckee Republican a nice, warm mince pie, he iumps at the conclusion that the donor is a lady, that she is in love with him, that she is married and has a jealous husband, and hence her reluctance in making herself known. I'erhaps he will change his opinion after eating the pie. We once knew an editor of an Oregon paper who received a pie in a like mysterious manner, and next day the following legend was conspicuously displayed in his editorial columns: "Owing to the severe illness of the editor no paper will be issued from this office for a week." army officer not below the rank of Major Gen'l; he is to appoint two registerers from each political party, and they are to appoint supervisors of registration from each party.
