Though nations rise and men conspire. The roll was called. There were 12 Presidents of Seventies present. The 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 14th, 15th and 16th Elders Quorums were represented.

All the Wards of the Stake were represented by presiding authorities excepting the 5th, 12th, 19th, Mill Creek, Big Cottonwood, South Cottonwood, Granite and South Jordan.

The Priests of the South Cottonwood, Union, Draperville and West Jordan Wards, the Teachers of the 15th, Mill Creek and Brighton Wards, and the Deacons of the 3rd, 11th, 19th and Herriman Wards were represented.

The following reports were read:
A statistical report of the Stake for the quarter ending November 30th, 1881; reports from the 4th, 5th, 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 14th and 15th Elder's Quorums. A report of the Temple donations of the Stake for the four years, ending Sept. 30th, 1881, and a report of the Y. M. M. I. Associations for the quarter.

President A. M. Cannon made some explanations regarding the report of Temple offerings, and urged the importance of the Saints being alive to this work that the being alive to this work, that the labors for the living and the dead might not be impeded by our neglect. He referred to the prevalence of smok-

It was a disgrace that such things should exist among us, but the such things should exist among us, but as long as men with no other Ralph Savage, and Chas. It is brimful of good ambition in life than to make money deserve special mention for their exthose in authority, we must avail ourselves of such means as we have at our command to stem the tide of iniquity, and in this connection he Payne, of Kaysville, by members of halamily, on the 66th anniversary of his birthday, Jan. 4th. It was a pleasant affair, and greatly apprecited by the recipient.

Industry, and in this connection he urged the importance of Teachers—and none were too high to act as Teachers—inquiring critically into the condition of the families they visited and of laboring kindly with the erring, with a view of showing them the consequences of an evil course and of prevailing upon them to repent and follow after the ways of the Lord. He related several instances in his own experience of the happy results of this course.

President A. M. Cannon read the following:

following:

"Extract from minutes of a session of the High Council, Dec. 29, 1881.

It was moved that it be the sense of this Council that Presidents of Quorums are not justified in sustaining men in the Holy Priesthood who keep saloons for the sale of intoxicating beverages. Carried.

It was decided to present the above resolutions to the Stake Conference for endorsement."

Men of the Hour.—The publica ion of life-sketches of "Men of the Honr" which appear in many of the public journals, secompanied by portraits of the subjects, give a like-ness and very fair sketch of incidents in' the career of President John Taylor.

Joined .- In this city, on Thursday, January 5th, Mr. Alma Andrus and Miss Serena Gardner, both of Spanish Fork, Utah County, were married. The groom is the son of Elder Milo Andrus, the bride a daughter of Bishop Archibald Gard-ner, of West Jordan. The match is a good one, and we predict for the young couple a happy future.

A Fine Ceiling.—The ceiling of the 18th Ward new meeting-house is finished, and is probably one of the most chaste and beautiful of that of any similar place of worship in the Territory. It is semi-gothic, thrown into large squares by beams, which are grained in imitation of oak. The squares are panelled, in and full weights guaranteed. Saratoga is one of the best pieces presented by the Club, and its perormance must be scored A 1 in their repertoire.

> The Division Proposal .- To s man not very far up a tree, McGin-nis' proposition for Congress to use the slicing knife on Utah and divide her up among certain adjacent States and Territories, is not devoid of assurance. We have not heard that any of the sections immediately interested in the matter have been consulted regarding it, and the gentleman will do well to take his fingers out of other people's business and busy them in his own. Montana, represented by McGinnis, is not named in proposition, and those sections mentioned would doubtless prefer to represent themselves. But there is not much danger of the McGinnis method being adopted. It is no trivial matter to break up and change the whole face of things in an immense tract of populated country. Such a measure would be semirevolutionary, and would involve the question of the immediate admission of several new States into the Union, "Mormons" and all.
