LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Anthony Elected President Pro

Tem, &c.

WASHINGTON, 25.—Secretary

Gorman called the Senate to order, and read the letter from Vice President Wilson, dated Saturday last, announcing that a pressing engagement would prevent his attendance at the opening of the Senate to-day.

Boutwell submitted a resolution, deleting H. B. Anthony president pro tem; the Senate agreed, and the Secretary was instructed to inform the President and the House of Representatives of the election.

The President presented a communication from the Secretary of War, transmitting copies of the correspondence relative to certain disorders in the State of Louisiana ordered printed, and referred to the committee on elections.

After Johnson's speech on the Louisiana question, Senate obtained the floor, and spoke in defense of the President's action in the Louisiana matter, and denouncing the outrage of the white leaguers in the south. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

Telegraph Bills Introduced.—Irving Discharged—George Smith introduced a bill to establish certain telegraph lines in several of the States and Territories, and to regulate the rates of telegraph communication, and other intelligence by telegraph.

Williams, of Indiana, introduced a bill to amend the National Union Telegraph Co. of Wells,

Fargo, and a branch mint at St.

Louis.

On motion of Dawes to discharge

Irvine from custody it was so ordered.

Cesena offered a resolution to suspend the rules during the remainder of the session, so far as to prevent the Speaker from entertaining any dilatory motions pending the consideration of any public bill or joint resolution, or any motion for adjournment, or any motion to bring such business before the House for consideration; the order also to apply to amendments offered by the House or adopted in the Senate and arising from the concurrence of the House. The reading of the resolution was followed by

Louisiana troubles. The correspondence dates back to Oct. '74, and begins with the translation of General Emory to the war department, and the strong disapproval of General Emory's action in making an affidavit against the citizens of Shreveport, under which they were arrested for alleged violations of the enforcement act. Emory informed Merrill that his action, in violation of the law, was the result of his mischievous in his tendency, whereupon Merrill explained that his action was on account of the fact that no citizen could have made the affidavit except at the risk of his life, and he submits voluntarily reports of the lawless condition of the Red River region, these reports being all to the department. Adjutant General
