Outlaws Attacked by Soldiers.

Mysterious Murder.

WORCESTER, Mass., 2.—John Bullard, a farmer of Shrewsbury, living in a house with one brother only, was murdered in a mysterious manner, to-day, while his brother was absent at the store, about one mile away. Great Excitement Over the New Mining Board Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—Much interest was manifested to-day among brokers and operators in mining stocks to hear the quotations of sales in the American Mining Board, which had been expected quotations would be received before the morning call here, and a considerable desire was evinced to obtain them. The quotations of the new mining board were considered due to the belief that they would form the centre of attraction in the New York Board, though at the time the quotations had been bulletined prices fell off. In the afternoon the street was full of rumors regarding the progress of business in the new board. Many rumors and bogus dispatches were afloat. Extra, containing quotations and telegrams relative to the new enterprise, are meeting a ready sale on the street this evening.

China and Japan News.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 14.—The United States flag-ship Tennessee sailed on September 14th for Chefoo. The Argentine sailed on the same day for Vladivostok.

The fire in Takasima coal mine was extinguished and work resumed.

The attempt by Chinese merchants to establish a line of steamships between Shanghai and Japan, failed, and the enterprise abandoned.

Prime Minister Sanjo, with several members of his cabinet, continue their journey of inspection through the northern provinces.

Staircase, the Russian says, has received from the Mikado a Japanese decoration of first-class.

The mint has received orders to coin, without delay, small silver coins, and copper to the value of three million dollars.

The extraordinary demand for silk has partially subsided, and the price has slightly fallen in consequence. The annual purchase of silkworm eggs by European traders, commenced briskly.

The drought in the interior is at an end, and all apprehensions of a failure of crops have ceased. The prospects are good for an unusually bountiful harvest.

Constant communications are still kept up between Japan and Korea, but the Koreans are still hostile against the recognition of other nations.

A Japanese passenger steamship was sunk by a collision in the Inland sea on September 1st, and several lives lost.

The steam yacht for the Mikado, 1,500 tons, was launched successfully at Yokohama, near Yokohama, Sept. 4.

Hong Kong, Sept. 4, Shanghai, 6.—Internal disorders are increasing in the interior of the provinces, and numerous assaults upon Christian natives are reported from all quarters.

The northern district is still devastated by famine.

The circulation of money is greatly restricted in consequence of the apprehensions of foreign and domestic disturbances.

The British gunboat Swinger returned to Shanghai from a survey of the coast, and reported that she was attacked by natives and compelled to retaliate, but this is not yet confirmed, the officers are waiting to give any information as to the particulars of the cruise.

Foreign interest now centres in Chefoo, the diplomatic representatives of the assembled nations, and Li Hung Chang arrived on August 18th to confer with Sir Thomas Wade respecting the final settlement of the long deferred Yungtze affair. This visit of the Chinese functionary was postponed as long as possible by every device that could be invented, but Wade remaining firm, concession was unavoidable. It is now hoped that the Chinese will gradually submit to the British demands, and hostilities be averted.

His manner since coming to Chefoo, is extremely conciliatory, and he has visited the foreign shipwreck, and given a state breakfast to the envoys of England, France, United States, Germany, Russia, Spain, Austria and the papal nuncios. Numerous speeches were made, all of an amicable tendency, although the actual situation was not touched upon. Nothing was said to suspend operations on the foreign railway at Shanghai during the progress of negotiations.

Blaine on Adams' Letter.

CINCINNATI, 2.—J. G. Blaine, in a political speech this evening, referring to Charles Francis Adams' letter said: "Mr. Adams goes out of his way quite gratuitously to speak of myself in a tone that is personally offensive. I have not only not visited him, but I have not even indulged myself in Mr. Adams' personal and political gossip at Washington in 1871 was busy with Mr. Adams' name and it
