SOME CHANCES AGREED UPON

Price of Individual Arc Lights Reduced
From $8 to $7.50—Meeting
This Afternoon.

Very little progress was made on the new franchise for the Utah Light & Railway company at the committee meeting yesterday afternoon. Nearly every section against which an objection was raised was passed until this afternoon for further consideration. It is understood that Judge Young and City Atty. Day had a consultation this morning and went over the points objected to and they will probably be settled at the committee meeting this afternoon.

The price of individual arc lights was changed from $8 to $7.50 per month. The question of giving the city 40 horses power of current free in addition to lighting all its public buildings was not settled. Judge Young said that the company would give 40 horse-power free and furnish all the lights for the city's buildings or it would give 40 horse-power and light all of the buildings except the isolation hospital and the city sexton's residence and would furnish light for those places at 1 cent per kilowatt hour with the exception of the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock p. m. during which time the rate would be 1 1/2 cents per hour. City Engineer Riter informed the representatives of the company that the city was getting power cheaper than that from the Telluride Power company. The matter was passed without being settled.

Judge Young objected to the following paragraph:

"But nothing herein, or in this ordinance, or shall be held to be in lieu of any license, toll or tax provided for in the laws of Utah, or in the ordinances of said city."

He said that the company had to pay a license of $25 for each car, and that the city should not be allowed to increase the license for the company to pay. Upon motion of Wells the paragraph was stricken out after a heated discussion between Wells and Hobbay.

Judge Young asked that a section be inserted in the franchise prohibiting the city from stringing wires for lighting purposes other than those provided in the franchise and also prohibiting the city from granting permission to other companies, excepting suburban railways, to run cars over the Utah Light & Railway company's tracks in the city. The matter met with some opposition and was not fully settled when an adjournment was taken until this afternoon.

AUSTRIANS BOUND OVER.

Bingham Riots Must Answer to the District Court.

The five Austrians who were arrested in connection with the riot at Bingham recently in which Deputy Sheriff Childress was wounded and an Austrian was killed, were given their preliminary hearings before Justice of the Peace George E. Lee at Bingham yesterday and all were bound over to the district court upon the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

After they are charged with assault upon Deputy Sheriff Childress and three of the five are also charged with assault upon John Hoggam and Joe Muelich. The three bound over on both charges are Frank Devlin, Yoso Buchich and Martin Sartha and their bonds were fixed at $1,000 each. The other two men are Gego Sturkovic and Anton Tolyanovich and their bonds were fixed at $500 each. Last County Atty. Willard Hanson conducted the prosecution.

Anton Bonnetti, who was charged with selling liquor without a license, was fined $25 by Justice Lee yesterday afternoon. He sold liquor to the Austrians on the night of the riot.

ONE OUGHT TO KNOW

HOW TO STRENGTHEN THE ORGANS OF DIGESTION.

A Course of Treatment That Really Cures
Indigestion Instead of Merely Relieving Symptoms.

There are plenty of remedies by which you can relieve for the time being, but the gas in the stomach and can smother nervous sensations and induce artificial sleep. But when you take your next meal all your troubles begin afresh.

You can humor your stomach by giving it indigestible food. Still there isn't much fun in that kind of eating and when you want to get some pleasure out of your meals again, you find that your stomach is weaker than ever.

There is only one sensible thing to do. Strengthen the stomach and when it is in proper condition it will do its own work better than any process devised by man can ever do it. When it is again strong don't abuse it. Choose rational food and study the effect even of that, as you may at best be a frankish stomach.

For a weak stomach, a lazy stomach, a broken-down stomach you need a tonic that will rouse the stomach to do the work that will keep it robust. The best tonic found for this purpose is the one used by Mrs. Nettie Darvoss, of Detroit, Mich., whose recovery from dyspepsia of nine years' standing attracted widespread attention in September last.

Mr. Strong had with interest her statement that she had been cured of chronic dyspepsia by a few weeks' use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He had suffered from the same way most of his life, and just then was having a very severe attack. He began the same treatment at once and in a few months wrote that he, too, had realized a complete cure.

"For years," states Mr. Strong, "I suffered greatly from indigestion. I tried many remedies and some of them would relieve me for a time, but the trouble always came back. About six months ago I had an unusually severe attack, and while I tried everything I had ever heard of, I found nothing that would reach the difficulty this time."

"One day I read in a Memphis paper an account of the very remarkable cure of a Michigan woman, a sufferer from dyspepsia of a most stubborn type. Twelve doctors had at different times treated her without success, but at last she was entirely cured, and in a short time, too, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Her statement to try the same remedy and it proved just what I needed. I took only three boxes, and I am convinced that I am permanently cured. I have not had the slightest symptoms of indigestion for the last two months."

"Multitudes of cases that had defied all other remedies have been quickly cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. E. E. Strong lives at Capleville, Shelby county, Tennessee. The remedy which he used with such success can be found at any drug store."

While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. Every dyspeptic should read "What to Eat and How to Eat." Write the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy.

HEALTH IS YOUTH.

Disease and Sickness Bring Old Age.
Herbina, taken every morning before breakfast, will keep you in robust health, fit you to ward off disease. It cures constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, fever, skin, liver and kidney complaints. It purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Mrs. P. W. Smith, Whitney, Texas, writes April 3, 1902: "I have used Herbina, and find it the best medicine for constipation and liver troubles. It does all you claim for it. I can highly recommend it to cents a bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept."

SITE FOR FIRE STATION.

Will Probably be Located on Tenth South and Eleventh East.

It is probable that the new fire station for the southeastern part of the city will be located on the three-cornered lot owned by the city at Tenth South and Eleventh East streets. The lot is pretty high up on the bench and would give the department a downhill run into Waterloo and other parts of that section, which has a rapidly increasing population.

Yes, Agnes, it is true. The Independent is the 'phone that talks.

AUTOMOBILE RIDE.

Children of Orphanages to Enjoy One Tomorrow Afternoon.

The orphans of Salt Lake are to enjoy a large time tomorrow afternoon as guests of the Salt Lake Automobile club. Besides a trip from end to end of the city and surrounding country, the occasion is to be made memorable by buckets of candy donated by a local manufacturer.

The club at one time prepared to celebrate Arbor day with a lilac parade, in the forenoon, but the weather preceding the March storms really forecasted a warm spring. The parade will now be given Decoration day, and Arbor day will be celebrated without the flowers, but in the cause of giving the children of the orphanages a really good time.

The invitation to owners of machines to be present, as issued today, is as follows:

The Salt Lake Automobile club has extended an invitation to the children of the two orphanages of Salt Lake to take an automobile ride on Arbor day, tomorrow, at 2 in the afternoon.

As there is a lot of the little folks, and we do not want to see any of them disappointed, we ask all the automobilists in the city, whether members of the club or not, to kindly turn out and assist us.

If you are too busy and cannot come yourself, we would be pleased to have you telephone the fact to either of the garages, and if you will let your machine come out they will be pleased to furnish a driver.

It is safe to say that not many of the children at the orphanages have ever ridden in an automobile, and they are looking forward with fond anticipation to a delightful, never-to-be-forgotten time. Come and help make them happy. Tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the corner of Twelfth South and State streets.

Respectfully,
SALT LAKE AUTOMOBILE CLUB.

NEVADA CATTLE AT KANSAS CITY.

Thirty-three Carloads of Steers
And Mixed Bovines Shipped From Carson.

DISTANCE OVER 1,700 MILES.

G. A. Hawkes Tells of Conditions in That Country for Stock-Raising.

The Drover's Telegram of April 10, has the following concerning a shipment of Nevada cattle to the Kansas City market:

Thirty-three carloads of steers and mixed cattle from the vicinity of Carson, Nev., made up the bulk of the long distance shipments of stock to these yards today. During the past six weeks several train loads of cattle have been brought from that territory to this market, and several more are billed to be brought through in the near future. The distance covered in this shipment, coming as it did by way of Salt Lake City, Pueblo and Grand Junction, is a little over 1,700 miles, yet the big shipment which was brought in for today's market arrived in good condition.

The cattle marketed today had been on the road since April 1, and had been unloaded and fed three times on the way. Nine loads of steers sold at $3.50, 12 loads steers at $4.85, three loads bulls at $3.00, balance of steers around $3.00. The string of cattle was divided as follows: T. E. Hickey, Carson, Nev., 12 carloads; Fred Dangle, Carson, Nev., 12 carloads; T. A. Henderson, Carson, three carloads; and J. J. Helton, Reno, Nev., three carloads. Also G. A. Hawkes of the same place, one carload. The latter, who is the live stock agent for the Denver & Rio Grande road, is also in the cattle business near Reno and he had charge of the shipment.

In speaking about the live stock interests in that country Mr. Hawkes said:

"We have not had as much snow in Nevada as they had in Colorado, but the cattle wintered well, and are doing well now. In Nevada we have the open range to a certain extent, and on this we run our cattle in summer. But the winter privileges are now owned by the other cattlemen of the mountains, and it is a question of time when the open range outside of the mountains will be a thing of the past. Of course we raise a great deal of feed all over that country under irrigation, which we keep for winter feeding. We raise alfalfa and timothy of a very fine quality, and of course never feed any grain to our cattle. They will batten on that hay and make good butcher stock."

"There are any number of sheep in Nevada, and I can say with safety that there will be more sheep shipped east this summer from Nevada than herebefore. We have been marketing the bulk of our sheep in California up to this time, but there are more sheep and especially lambs, now than the California market can handle this season, and for that reason a great many lambs will come to Kansas City this summer. So far as the cattle are concerned they appear to be holding their own in number, but they are not increasing. Some of the large ranchmen are beginning to cut down the size of their herds, and I think they will reduce the number as the open range becomes smaller. In this connection it can be stated that there are some of the best kept ranches in the vicinity of Carson that can be found any place in the entire west. The ranch of Fred Dangle, who has nine carloads of steers here today, is a model ranch. It is 16 miles square, and is laid out in driveways and well kept. It is cut up in pastures, and the traveler through the ranch will find well-kept fences and all the very latest improvements, and the best kept houses for the men on the ranch."

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., Monday, April 10. —All grades of cattle advanced rapidly last week, and now stand 40 to 50 cents above last Monday. Run today is liberal, as was expected in view of the big gains in price last week, 10,000 here, and 25,000 at Chicago. The market, however, is steady on most cattle, with the exception of a few sales where sellers failed to stand out for steady prices. The high prices of last week were based on the absolute certainty of short receipts for the next few months, and present high range is expected to stick. Corn fed branded steers sold up to $6.35 last week, and fed Montana steers, 1,000 pounds, at $5.45 to $5.60. Montana cows, $4.75 to $5.00, and 1,200 pound steers out of same shipments at $5.00. A big string of Nevada hay fed steers sold to packers today at $4.50 to $5.25. Stockers and feeders are 20 to 40 cents higher than last Monday, most gain on fleshy feeders, on account of competition from packers for them. Bulk of the country cattle sold at $3.55 to $4.75, good heavy steers and choice stockers higher. High grade Panhandle yearlings sold last week at $5.50 to go to the country.

Hardly any fluctuation was noticed in the mutton market last week, except a slight weakness on lambs about the end of the week, as proportion of lambs now coming are very scarce. Run today is a little better than usual, at 6,000 head, market steady with few exceptions today are, lambs, $7.35; yearlings, $6.50; wethers, $5.85; ewes, $5.50, but these sales are probably 10 or 15 cents below the extreme strength of the market on fancy or prime stuff. A good deal of clipped stock is now coming, and selling 60 to 90 cents under the same quality woolled stock, a little weaker directly without the wool. Reason on account of high price of wool this year.

vival services, and when stirring discourses were preached by Dean Eddie of St. Mark's cathedral and Rev. R. S. Walker of the East Side Baptist church. The dean spoke on the "Love of God," and said that to know that God loves one is one of the greatest experiences that comes to a man's life. Christ died for the ungodly, and yet how many thousands professing Christianity love to that same vital and living relation with God as he experienced. He did not choose his own field of labor; he followed the directions of the spirit, and wherever he met men or women that great passion to bring them to God exerted and made itself manifest. He saw that without Jesus Christ there was no hope for his brethren in the future. He loved the Master, and as an inevitable result of this passion came the other—his love for humanity.

Rev. P. A. Simpkins will preach this evening.

TYPES OF RUSSIAN WORKMEN.

The cut shows a group of Muscovite workmen of the class which has been such a disturbing element in the industrial uprising throughout the empire. They are ordinarily the most uncomplaining laborers in Europe, working long hours and receiving small wages. It is only when they are thrown out of work and become hungry that they accept the leadership of some political agitator and revolt against the existing order of things. The general industrial depression which has settled upon Russia has thrown great numbers of these once peaceable workmen out of employment, and they have been driven by their necessities to commit acts of violence from which they would ordinarily shrink.

grande tracks on Tuesday. They secured two pairs of shoes and some other articles of merchandise and then put on the new shoes and left their old ones lying on the railroad track near the store. The old shoes led to their identity being established. They were brought to the county jail and will probably be charged with inaccessibility.

According to the facts obtained by Deputy Sheriff Booth, the boys ran away from their homes in draper over a week ago and went to Provo where they were arrested upon request of their parents. They were held for two days and released and started to return to their homes and it was while returning that they committed the alleged burglary.

THE VIRGINIAN

By Owen Winter.

Unlike many of the "six best sellers," Owen Winter's novel, "The Virginian," has maintained a record of unusually heavy sales since it was first published. The demand for the book, however, is decidedly accentuated in this city by the announcement that the company presenting the story of the play is soon to appear. A large stock of this book is already received.
