

fellow-conspirators now await the course of justice.

finished the draft of his anshal memage and the usual cate is taken to prevent a promature exposition of its contents, of the delivery of the document to Con-gress. All copies will be in manuscript, schenck's connection with the Emma will be paid by the first of April, when the road will be free of floating debt.

the ith inst., Senor Galves, the Guataenor Zavalla.

among the people.

state that a treaty of peace had been

hair has been interviewed. He says, vays some sacrifice must be made to General Grant, and expresses a personal preference for William Culien Bryant, although he thinks Trumbull would make a splendid candidate, as would also Judge Davis, Judge Rauney, Exnder arrest at the New York Hotel.

president. His answers were in spirit that of his only letter that he remembers to have seen in print, to Wm. Larimer, Leavenworth, on the fourth of May last, viz, that he is not an Leavenw, -The last official bulletim of

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE,

The NEW HYMN BOOK

Opposite the entrance to the Tabernacle,

ADMISSION, 500.; CHILDREN, 10c.

Open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

THOMAS FITCH,

Pine Lumber OF EVERY KIND

FERAMORZ LITTLE,

D. O. CALDERS

SUPERINTENDENT

