STAKE PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion convened in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall, on Saturday, July 3, at 11 a. m.; Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Stake, presiding. Owing to the Assembly Hall being repainted, etc., was the reason for the Priesthood meeting in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall.

Singing. Prayer by Elder Martin Lenzl. Singing. Roll called showing as follows: Three High Councilors, two Patriarchs, Elders Elias Morris and George B. Wallace; of the presidency of the High Priests' quorum, nine presidents of Seventy and six home missionaries.

All the wards of the Stake were properly represented excepting the Farmers and Cannon wards of the city, and North Jordan, East Jordan and Pleasant Green of the country. The presidency of the First, Second, Third, Fifth, Ninth, Tenth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth quorums of Elders were represented by their presiding officers. The Lesser Priesthood was represented by members from the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth city wards, and Big Cottonwood and Granite of the country. The Sabbath schools of the Stake were represented by Stake Superintendent Thomas C. Griggs.

Elders Orson F. Whitney, George F. Gibbs, Joseph E. Taylor, Charles W. Penrose and Angus M. Cannon addressed the meeting, the subjects touched upon, in a very spirited manner, being the great necessity of humility; the atonement of Jesus Christ and its far reaching effects on the whole human family; the doing of the will of God at all times in preference to our own; the importance of magnifying every calling in the Priesthood to the spirit thereof, ever keeping in view the salvation of all.

The keeping of the Sabbath day holy was strongly advocated, and the dealing with breakers of it enjoined upon the Bishops.

In view of a meeting to be held in the Tabernacle on Sunday evening, as was announced, the Bishops of the city wards were asked to administer the Sacrament in the wards in the afternoon for this occasion, and to invite the people to attend the services in the Tabernacle, at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Adjourned until Saturday, August 6th, at 11 a. m., to meet in the Assembly Hall. Benediction by Elder Elias Morris.

AN HISTORIC SWORD.

A letter dated at Safford, Graham county, Arizona, from Alonzo H. Packer contains the following:

"I read with much interest the correspondence from old timers; as I am more or less acquainted with all these incidents they are the more interesting. I have an old relic which if deemed worthy can be placed among the many that will be on exhibition at the Jubilee. I have in my possession a sword that the late Judge Holbrook of Bountiful, Davis county, Utah, used on the 24th of October, 1838, in a hand to hand conflict in the battle of Crooked river where Apostle David W. Patten fell a martyr to the cause of truth. After the battle Mr. Holbrook discovered that while in the midst of the conflict he had made a niche in the edge of this sword. This niche yet remains. I prize this sword above anything I possess. On reflecting back to the parade grounds at Brigham City, Utah, when my father Jonathan T. Parker, as major, with this sword to band marching at the head of the Boxelder militia, always brings to me a pleasant remembrance of my father now dead.

"I was born April 14th, 1841, in Nauvoo; crossed the Plains with my parents when but seven years old, walking the entire distance from Winter Quarters on the banks of the Missouri river to Salt Lake valley, bare footed. My father drove one of the four wagons that entered the valley Aug. 31, 1843, arriving about sixteen days in advance of the other wagons. Father built the first house erected in the First ward, Salt Lake City. The first grist mill in Utah was a small one built on City creek not far above where President Young's houses now stand. An Indian boy stole a sack of corn meal from this mill; his chief procured a pair of shears and cut off the boy's hair close to his head. This to him was a great punishment. I will mention no hardship, for any old veteran of the Church will know from the above dates that I have passed through many."

Carson, Nevada, Appeal: Recently Sheriff Kinney of Carson informed a Chinaman who had been in jail fifty days for selling whisky to Indians that his time was up. The poor fellow's jaw dropped nearly a foot when this intelligence was communicated. He was having a very nice time in jail, with a sure bed and three positive meals a day. The idea of being thrown out to the street with a hot summer coming on was anything but pleasant. He began to argue with the jailor that there was some mistake about the time and that he had three more days coming. The sheriff wouldn't listen to him and, taking him by the arm, led him out into the street. The poor fellow argued and begged and pleaded for a few more days, but the sheriff was inexorable and told him to get out.

John M. Plunkett, a United States customs inspector, was killed early Saturday morning while on duty on the steamer Resolute, in San Francisco harbor. Plunkett was standing in the house of the steamer chatting with Captain Kommerow, the master of the vessel, when there came a sudden crash just under the Resolute's bows, and the next instant the pilot house was torn from the neck of the vessel. The Resolute had run into the anchored schooner Sacramento, and the jibboom had raked across the decks of the steamer. The heavy timber was driven with great force through the pilot house and is ed crushed the revenue official against the after wall of the house, from which spot the injured man dropped through an aperture to the engine room beneath, crushing his head in the fall.
