home. He left Sidney on the 17th of June, with eight converts, on board the Australia, and stopped at New Zealand, where Bro. Shreeve joined him with 22 immigrating Saints, six of whom were his own converts. The vessel next touched at Honolulu, where, after a day's pleasant visit with the Saints there, they left for home. Brother Shreeve, after leaving Brother May in Australia, arrived at Port Littleton, New Zealand. He immediately proceeded to Christ Church, where he found a branch of the Church in good condition, under the presidency of Elder James Burnett. He continued in that neighborhood for about five months, during which he baptized 13 persons, and had charge of the mission until the arrival of
