EVENING NEWS ime, the people are fast drifting ato that condition which was fore-old by the Prophet Joseph Smith - - Sopt. 30, 1861 Friday, IRON COUNTY ANNUAL FAIR

PAROWAN, Sept. 25, 1881. Editor Deservet Neuva:

when he said, "Mob rule and an roby would yet prevail in the nidet of this once favored people," midst of this once favored people," and day by day we see the fulfill-ment of the prediction. In the State of Alabama, where a short time ago considerable excitement prevailed, matters have quieted down and the only result now apparent is the more thorough advertisement of

Editor Deserve Neuer Our 10th annual Fair was held here on the 25d and 24th insts. The guantity of orchard,garden and field produces and other articles was not as large as unual, owing to the short have a fair this season, did not pre-pare articles for exhibition; but the quality was not aurpassed in any provious year. There was a grand display of apples, peaches, plums, pears, etc. It was decided by quite a number of acknowledged judges that our fruit could not be beat any, where, especially our apples; no fine-er could be found in the world. There was also a very excellent dis-play of very fine vegetables, of near y all kinds. Bome fine sides of lea-ty all kinds. Bome fine sides of lea-ty all kinds. fancy needlework of all kinds, beau-titul home-made flowers, ladieshats, etc. The Primary Association had one table set apart for them. The dis-play of the children's work was ex-cellent, done mostly, if not entirely, by the little girls of the society. Harmless and innocent sports were provided for the young folks, and all others who chose to go and witness them. On the second day of the Fair, the house was called to order for a few settlements. The subject of having a county fair for Iron County, next year, was considered, and it was unanimously agreed that we should have a coun-ty fair. The president, secretary and treasurer of the Gardeners' Club of this place were appointed a com-mittee to make the necessary ar-rangements for the Iron County Fair to be held in Parowan, the county seat, september, 1882. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO ALL of said District to meet on Monday, 19th of October, at 10 a.m., in the Brighton School House, for the election of seven Trustees, one Secretary and Treasurer to serve for the term of one year from the day of election, and also to take into consideration the organiza-tion of a Stock Company.
