

KILLED HER MAN AND THEN HERSELF

Mary Roberts Clark, Widow,
Shoots Frank Brady in New York Restaurant.

SHE USED TWO REVOLVERS.

Shooting Culmination of a Series of Quarrels and Fulfillment of A Threat.

New York, Jan. 22.—Sweeping through the crowded restaurant which takes up the eighth floor of Macy's department store, and into the gentlemen's cafe, a tall, stylishly dressed woman today bent for a moment over the shoulder of a diner, whispered something in his ear, and then, drawing a revolver from her muff, emptied the contents of the five chambers into his body. As her victim, Frank Brady, a newspaper advertising solicitor, slipped lifeless to the floor, the woman flung the weapon from her and, taking a second revolver from her muff, shot herself, first in the head and then twice in the breast. She died a half-hour later.

A note found in the woman's purse proved her to be Mrs. Mary Roberts Clark, a manicurist, widow of a police officer, and stepmother of a 6-year-old son, Raymond. Brady was 30 years old and the sole support of a helpless, aged mother, for whom he had made a home. The shooting was the culmination of a series of violent quarrels, and, according to the woman's intimates, in fulfillment of a threat to murder Brady in a public place, before the world, unless he renewed the attentions she asserted she received from him when he was less prosperous and she in a position to befriend him.

The police had little difficulty in tracing the tragic story. The suicide, who was about 30 years of age, was Mary McKean when she married John Roberts. When the latter died, a year ago, she assumed the name of Clark, and supported herself and child, first as a wardrobe woman at an uptown theater, and then as a manicurist. She was a prepossessing appearing woman, and had marked bustness ability. While she was in prosperous circumstances, and before the death of her husband, Brady had lodgings at her home, and she declared she helped him. A few months ago he left her home and made a home for his mother, whom he brought here from New Jersey.

Recently, Mrs. Clark thought that Brady was avoiding her, and when he called at her home occasionally they quarreled a few days ago Mrs. Clark called upon her attorney and told him that something serious was going to happen. Today she went to her bank, made a cash deposit, wrote a note identifying herself, and referring the reader to her attorney, and, armed with three revolvers, went to the store, where she knew Brady usually lunched.

Stepping from the elevator she waited aside the waitress who approached her, and made her way hastily to a small smoking room for gentlemen, just on the main dining hall. The big room was filled with women who were lunching after the morning shopping, and amid the buzz of conversation her isolated manner attracted little attention, only from the waitresses, one of whom, noticing her approach to the men's cafe, asked if she was seeking some one.

She brushed the girl aside, and the shooting took place a few seconds later.

TOOK A SQUARE MEAL AND HELD UP THE RESTAURANT

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—Within a block of Fillmore street, which was crowded with pedestrians at the time, the restaurant of Kubek & Wagner at 1230 Webster street was held up just before midnight last night by two men who had just eaten a meal in the place. The robbers confronted the proprietors and Joachim Boyson, a customer, with their pistols, went through their pockets and then rifled the till. They made their escape with $67 and a gold watch.

SUBMARINES A SUCCESS.

Torpedoboats Tarantula, Viper and Cuttlefish Make a Long Trip.

New York, Jan. 22.—The trip of the submarine torpedoboats Tarantula, Viper and Cuttlefish from Newport, R. I., to the New York navy yard is causing much interest and comment in naval circles. The trip was made in 17½ hours, although much of it was through rough and heavy seas and in the teeth of a very stiff breeze. This is the first time that boats of their class have made

BEWARE OF COLDS.

Health Officers say they are the Primary Cause of Consumption.

The ravages of the dread "white plague" has aroused in the national health departments the keenest alarm and every effort is now being put forth to prevent its further spread. A prominent physician on the advisory board recently summed up the situation in a very simple manner by declaring that if people would give common colds the proper attention the increase of consumption would be materially checked. A neglected cold weakens the entire system and especially the pulmonary organs and renders them liable to the attack of the tubercle germ. He also gave the formula for a very simple remedy for colds which he claimed if generally known would prevent an enormous amount of suffering and eventually save many lives. The formula is as follows:

Two ounces of glycerine; one half ounce Concentrated oil of pine; half pint of good whisky; this is to be used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours, the bottle shaken well each time.

He claims this will cure any cough that is curable and frequently break up a severe cold in twenty-four hours. He cautions that care should be taken to get the real Concentrated oil of pine which any first class drug store can supply. It is put up in tin screw top cases for dispensing thus avoiding the bulk oils and patent medicine imitations frequently put out in wooden boxes and which are insoluble and injurious.

such a trip under their own power. The boats will go into drydock and after scraping and repainting they will go to Newport News, said to be the longest trip ever made by submarines. They will undergo a number of tests. The three boats are 83½ feet long and have a beam of 18 feet, and are fitted with 250-horsepower six-cylinder gasoline engines. They were launched Oct. 24.

SONS OF CHINESE PRINCES MUST TAKE RIDING TEST

Washington, Jan. 22.—Mail advices from China contain an order requesting the sons of imperial princes and clansmen to be examined in Pekin as to their proficiency in the saddle. This step is taken so that the art of their ancestors may not be lost.

FOR LOVE OF A GIRL.

Much Wanted Man Captured by Detectives at Trysting Place.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The love of a girl who, against the wishes of her mother, had been secretly meeting Horace Simmons, led to his arrest last night on the charge of being implicated in the murder of Policeman William R. Moon, who was shot by highwaymen on the night of Jan. 2.

Grace Warner, 21 years old, has been meeting Simmons every night while detectives were searching the city for him. The police learned of this and last night followed her from her home. Just as Simmons greeted her half a dozen detectives surrounded the couple and Simmons was forced to surrender at the points of revolvers.

Simmons, according to the police, is the most desperate highwayman who has worked in Chicago since the car barn bandits. William Brown, the confessed slayer of Policeman Mooney, and Thomas McCann, an accomplice, both say Simmons was with them at the time of the murder. Simmons is wanted on an indictment for the murder of Herman Hansen, a saloonkeeper who was shot and killed in a hold up several weeks ago. Twenty or more saloon robberies are charged to him. Recently a reward was offered for his capture.

LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS.

Los Angeles, Jan. 23.—Rennie A. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Walker of Canton, O., who are now in this city, is thought to be lost in the mountains. He has been missing since the morning of Jan. 15.

TO RENT J. GOULD'S HOME.

New York, Jan. 23.—The old Jay Gould residence, corner Forty-seventh street and Fifth avenue, has been leased and the four-story brown stone house will be altered to accommodate places of business. For years the building has stood vacant and Miss Helen Gould has finally been induced to lease for a long term of years the building which was for so long her father's home.

TICKET BROKERS.

Denver, Jan. 22.—On application of a number of railroad companies, Judge R. C. Lewis, in the United States district court here today, issued a temporary restraining order forbidding ticket brokers from doing business in this state. A hearing will be given Jan. 30 on the question of making the injunction permanent. The restraining order is issued under the precedent created by the United States supreme court in what is known as the Northern case.

BRYAN BLAMES LAWS.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—William J. Bryan rounded out a very busy day in Nashville with an address before a monster audience at the Ryman auditorium tonight. It was accompanied by Judson Harmon, who also spoke briefly tonight.

Mr. Bryan in his speech tonight took occasion to say that the idea that prosperity was an inevitable result of Republican ascendancy and administration had been rudely exploded in the last few months, and contrasted the ridicule heaped upon his advocacy of the silver dollar with the prayerful anxiety with which capitalists had so recently grabbed for clearing house certificates. He scored imperialism, the cost of it and the wrong. His history of legislation against trusts and the prosecutions that have been undertaken met with hearty applause. He did not blame President Roosevelt for the past, but scored the laws and their exponents, who would compel the people to stand and shiver every time a Wall street gambler got cold. The main idea of his speech was that the Democrats everywhere are united, while the Republicans are divided, so that the railroad regulators, the tariff reformers, the advocates of arbitration between capital and labor and the "trust busters" are, he said, in an overwhelming majority.

CALLING IN DEPOSITS.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The secretary of the treasury late today announced that owing to great improvement in financial conditions throughout the country he had begun the gradual withdrawal of deposits of public moneys in moderate amounts, from the national banks. The first call has been made upon New York banks and amounts to approximately $10,000,000. This is in addition to about $10,000,000 returned by the New York banks since Dec. 26. The secretary also announced that a general call for a moderate amount will be made upon banks in other cities at an early date.

STEAMBOAT WAR OVER.

Seattle, Jan. 22.—The rate war in steamboat passenger traffic between Seattle and Vancouver which has been waged between the International and Navigation company and Cook and company, since route last June, was brought to a close yesterday when an agreement was reached by which Cook and company relinquished all steamboat business on the sound and for a consideration in the neighborhood of $50,000 transfer ownership of the steamboat Waiwale to the International and Navigation company.

SHAW HASN'T RESIGNED.

New York, Jan. 22.—Ex-Secy. Shaw stated today that he has not resigned from the presidency of the Carnegie Trust company, but had contracted to sell his holdings in the company, and if paid, according to terms, would resign on March 1.

NEVADA LEGISLATURE WAITS ON SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Carson, Nev., Jan. 22.—The Nevada legislature is waiting on the special committee having in charge the constitutional bill, for the relief of the strike situation in southern Nevada. Both houses adjourned after holding a half-hour session today, until tomorrow morning. A petition from the Gold Hill miners' union was read in both houses, asking that no state

PHYSICIANS DISCUSS NEW THEORY

Cooper's Views of Human Stomach Noted by Medical Men.

A recent article in the New Orleans Item gives an account of the effect upon the medical profession of that city with regard to L. T. Cooper's theory that the human stomach is responsible for most ill health. The article is as follows:

"The astonishing sale of Cooper's preparation in this city has now reached such immense figures that the medical fraternity have been forced into open discussion of the man's theories and medicines."

"The physicians seem to be divided with regard to the young man's success in New Orleans—some being willing to credit him for what he has accomplished, while others assert that the interest he has aroused is but a passing fad that will die out as quickly as it has sprung up."

"In a statement recently obtained from a well-known physician of this city the position of those in favor of Cooper is well voiced. The doctor said: 'I am not a believer in proprietary medicines, but I must admit that some of the facts recently brought to my attention concerning this Cooper medicine have gone far toward removing the prejudice I had formed against them. I first heard of Cooper's new ideas and medicines. Numbers of my patients whom I have treated for chronic liver, kidney and stomach troubles have met me and stated that Cooper's medicine has accomplished wonderful results for them. I notice particularly in cases of stomach trouble that the man has relieved several cases that were of years' standing and proved very obstinate to treatment."

"I do not wish to stand in the way of something that may be for the public good, simply through professional prejudice, and I am inclined to give Cooper and his preparations credit as deserving to some extent the popular demonstration that has been accorded them in this city."

"We sell the Cooper medicines. They are proving remarkably successful throughout the entire United States.—F. J. Hill Drug Co., 80 W. Second South, Salt Lake City."

power bill or any measure taking the range of policing from the local authorities be passed by the lawmakers. The petition was spread upon the minutes.

In the senate, Senator Oddie stated that while the bill asking for state rangers has been completed, yet the special committee begged time, as the matter was all-important and the few points that might be suggested defective would have to be gone over by the committee. He is of the opinion that it can be presented at the session of tomorrow.

There seems to be a better feeling as to the possibility of the passing of the measure in the house.

Nearly all of the state officials are holding conferences with the members from their district, and Congressman

Bartlett is lending what aid he can to the committee, as well as to the forces who are endeavoring to improve conditions in the Nevada mining camps.

The special committee held a night session in order to bring the measure before the lawmakers this morning, and will continue its work today, in the hope of hurrying matters.

RUEF CAN'T GET COUNSEL.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—Abraham Ruef's failure to secure counsel in the two days' time allowed him for that purpose by Superior Judge Lewis on Monday was the cause today of another delay in fixing the date of his trial, the court granting him further time until 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

REDFERN WHALEBONE CORSETS—MODEL 3131—One of the newest high-bust models. For the long-waist form.

The bust is soft-finished so as to round back under the fullness of the form without showing any lines through the most snugly fitting gown.

There is a special fitting feature in the round lower portion of the hip gore, which tapers to a point where the hose supporters are attached. The hose supporters have the famous "Security" rubber button tips.

REDFERN 3131 is made of imported coutille, trimmed with soft point d'esprit lace and shirred ribbon and ribbon roses. Boned with selected Arctic whalebone. MODEL 3131—Imported coutille, price $6.50

REDFERN WHALEBONE CORSETS—STYLE 9—Slenderness is only pretty with evident curves!

Redfern 9 is a model distinctly made for young ladies; designed to assist in the developing of the form, which in this model becomes bewitchingly sylph-like in its curves. Filled with supple Arctic whalebone, and trimmed exquisitely with valenciennes lace. Style "9" coutille.

Price $3.75
Attached are the "Security" rubber button hose supporters.

REDFERN WHALEBONE CORSETS—REDFERN STYLE "G"—Note the height of bust—it is one of the extreme models of the season that is thoroughly practical, and withal, beautiful.

The back is 14 inches long and under arm 6 inches in depth. The gores are set double, resulting in a firm control of the bust in the corset shape. A Junoesque type of figure is rounded by this model. Wide webbing "Security" rubber button hose supporters. "G" coutille $6.00

REDFERN WHALEBONE CORSETS—MODEL 24—Is a new whalebone corset, high-bust, but dipping under the arm for attaining freedom of movement. This model suits the average-long waist form, giving to perfection the long, rounded lines of waist, with the admired spring at the back and rounded hips.

The bust section is especially designed to encase the bust easily and smoothly, showing no lines through the thinnest and most snug-fitting gown.

MODEL 24 is made of imported coutille of very fine weave, richly trimmed with laces and washable ribbons. Boned with selected Arctic whalebone of the finest quality.

REDFERN 24—Imported coutille. Price, $6.00

Keith-O'Brien will give away on the first of March, and on the first day of each month thereafter until further notice, a magnificent "Tourist" Automobile, 1908 model, 5-passenger car.

A NEW DESIGN IN THE WARNER'S RUST-PROOF—The make of corsets whose designers introduce the most truly practical and fashionable shapes of each season.

STYLE 189 is novel, inasmuch as it is high above the waist with a comparatively short hip that slopes up sharply towards the back. The long, straight front line gives a chic air to the form corseted in this model that is decidedly Frenchy. The beauty of tall, slender forms is enhanced in this model.

A point to call your attention to in Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets of model 189 is that the corset terminates around the top in not dissimilable through the dress.

NO. 189—Coutille, $2.00

WARNER'S RUST-PROOF NO. 284—A model for the stout, short-waist figure. This model is one of the finest of the new season's productions. The long skirt suppresses the abdomen and reduces the hips. The corset is moderately high in the bust, giving the stylish support to the form, with perfect comfort.

Three broad side-steels and a double set of strong wide elastic webbing hose supporters, with the "Security" rubber button tip. Trimmed with rich flatly applied lace, threaded by a double row of satin ribbon insertion, finished with a ribbon bow. Boned with guaranteed rust-proof boning.

No. 284—Batiste. Price, $2.75

WARNER'S RUST-PROOF NO. 282—New high-bust model for the average well-developed form. Gives the beautifully rounded waist, with the perfectly straight front line. The bust is roundly brought forward and enclosed easily by the corset top, which is designed to show no line of the corset top through the snug fitting gown. The corset skirt is long, drawing back the fullness of the figure. The back at the waist has a charming spring.

Beautifully made of imported coutille, with dainty lace frilled on the top, threaded with satin ribbon, finished with a handsome ribbon bow.

No. 282—Batiste. Price, $2.25

THE LONG BACK GORE—There's a new feature in corset-making that results in creating a type of form that is round and comparatively small of waist for even large forms. This feature is noted in the designing of the back section and the split hip-gore and the curving into the waist of the tapering seams, reducing the waist size. The corset skirt as it encircles the hips shapes them toward the back, retaining, however, the straight line of the clasp below the waist.

These admirable features are found only in Warner's Rust-Proof Models, and may be particularly noted in No. 213, shown here.

No. 318—Strong batiste. "Security" rubber button hose supporters attached to the front. Price $2.75
