

A TRUMPED UP CHARGE.

On Saturday last we published a dispatch announcing the arrest of President William Budge of the Utah State, on the trumped up charge of "conspiracy." The "Liberal" organ, in this city, has a special announcing the same event, which is rather stale news. This arrest is part of a real conspiracy to aid in the election of the Republic can elect in Idaho. The charge is absurd and rests upon no substantial basis. Two years ago some members of the Church in Idaho withdrew that they might exercise the elective franchise. Their withdrawal was unnecessary to the "Mormon" leaders of that region, and was pronounced absurd. They were not allowed to decide whether they were Church members or not. The present arrest is made on the hypothesis that President Budge conspired and procured this withdrawal. It is done to make a sensation and aid in the pretense that the "Mormons" of Idaho intend to vote, in spite of the fact that we do not believe that those who express the greatest alarm, or indignation, on this account have the remotest idea that the "Mormons" intend to do anything of the kind. There is no ground of such a notion, but it suits the purpose of certain demagogues to keep up the anti-"Mormon" agitation and so these extreme measures are adopted. The gentlemen was only put under bonds of five hundred dollars and his numerous friends tend to under an apprehension as to the final result.

A PRETENDING PREACHER.

"Small Sam" has been airing his circumlocutory propensities and his propensity for scandal mongering in the city of Philadelphia. He has had himself interviewed by some of the papers in that city. This is how this clerical infatuated draws the long bow and swings it around a radial sweep of 300 miles.

"Yes, sir. The Methodist Episcopal Church has founded at Ogden the first desecrated university enterprise in the inter-mountain region. The site is both healthy and geographically superior. For patronage we have a radial sweep of 300 miles, without conflict with any great institution of learning. Utah is filling up rapidly with a cultured, thrifty and ambitious population. They will require the highest possible educational advantages for their sons and daughters and do not want to traverse a thousand miles to find them at advantage. We propose to supply this urgent demand with one of the best university establishments in all America."

On being asked as to the object of his eastern visit, he said: "Many, equipped and emboldened by the professional occupation of his profession, Dr. Hill, having in connection with the proposed institution, surrendered the plate to him. The old plan of drawing funds on the plea of 'Mormon' opposition is resorted to, as indicated by the following interrogatory and answer:

"How do the Mormons view your enterprise?"

"They do not like it. They look upon a Methodist university in Ogden with the same animosity that they have toward the United States government at Fort Douglas in Salt Lake City. They regard such an enterprise as their Church supremacy and political power."

If this appropriately named person were asked to give any evidence, even of the remotest description, for his assertion regarding the existence of enmity in the "Mormon" mind toward the Fort Douglas garrison, it would be impossible for him to furnish it. The relations of the people with the garrison are friendly, the one is not in the least a menace to the other, and nobody believes that it is.

As to Church supremacy, that in which the Latter-day Saints believe is the strongest, numerically and otherwise—because the most potent spiritual—in Utah. This answers the special question of the Methodist and the Small pretender of their proposed university. The "Mormon" Church has been accused of exercising political power, because its members, like any other citizens, have exercised their rights and privileges, and in doing so have voted for their friends, to protect themselves against political fraud, abuse and otherwise. This is another cause of enmity on the part of the Methodist Church, which aims at political supremacy, even to the extent of interference with the enforcement of the law, a tender of assistance in that line having been made the other night by Governor Thomas—a pronounced Methodist—through Padon Mabey. The latter publicly pledged the Methodist Church to join with the officers of the State in that direction.

Here is another evil hope of enmity towards a body of believers in Christ:

"Then you think the Gentiles are certain to conquer the Territory?"

"Yes, and all the sooner if Congress could get over its insane squandrelousness about disfranchising the obeyal, lawless and defiant element of the Mormon following. If they were subjected to the last-of-the-law they would soon find it necessary to become loyal citizens or leave the country for other and better people to occupy."

The logic of this statement is that the way to make loyal citizens is to deprive them of their rights. They have heard this old, famished yell before about "Mormon" lawlessness and defiance before, but they have no evidence. If Small and some other notable Methodists had their Utah would be an exclusively Methodist Territory, and all other religious, being necessarily excluded and more or less disloyal would have to "leave the country."

"Why not make Utah a State and thus Americanize it?"

"Because that would not be to the effect of Statehood at present. The Mormons want Statehood, and presented one a very specious constitution to that end, but they are not to be treated with the organization of an American State. They have the Constitution and the law."

The "Mormons" are essentially the religious community which venerates the constitution, claiming that it is an inspired instrument. Mr. Small and his clique hate the Constitution because a lingering respect for it is what they call the "insane squandrelousness of Congress."

It is the palladium of human rights that stands in the way of the attainment of the anti-"Mormon" methodical desire. The Constitution forbids the application of a religious test, which Small wishes applied to the Latter-day Saints.

This article speaks in behalf of the Gentiles, claiming to express their wishes:

"What do the Gentiles generally want, looking to the future of Utah?"

"Either to wait until Mormonism is stamped out or to be satisfied to the State of Nevada, making of that present Utah territory and the great Utah region one grand, prosperous and loyal State."

While this consideration, effected and Ogden made the State capital by reason of her unrivaled advantages, the Union would gain immensely and the Mormon blots on the American flag would be so completely obliterated."

According to this logic the Gentiles want Utah linked up to something rather so that, by combining it with what is asserted to be rotten in Utah, thus increasing the aggregate of rottenness, "one grand, prosperous and loyal State" will be the product. After thus cleansing the platform of State by throwing in an advertisement of corruption, the class must be kept busy by making Ogden the capital of the purified commonwealth. It is presumed that this last suggestion is made on the ground that Small purposes making the "Union City" his future home.

In justice to the Methodist church it is fair to state that "Small Sam" is only a mongrel Methodist, having been a Congregationalist preacher and has not formally severed his connection with the latter denomination. It was doubtless convenient for him to make the change, as he evidently has an eye to the main chance. Mark it—he will yet be notable as the possessor of a much larger amount of wind than wisdom.

PITIFUL END OF A PROMISING CAREER.

HON. ISAAC P. CHRISTIANCY, ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan, ex-United States Senator and ex-Minister to Paraguay, died recently at his "chubby home" in Lansing, in comparative poverty and surrounded and uncared for by his family.

He attained as high honors as were ever reached by any man of his State, but his descent to oblivion was much more rapid than his trip to power and influence. As he, a number of years ago, introduced into the Senate and championed one of the many infamously measures that have been aimed at the "Mormon" people, his career and fate have become local interest attached to them.

One of the prominent journals of the country says: "His case is a striking example of how short a step it is from honorable fame and political success to total obscurity." For a month previous to his death Judge Christiancy suffered intense agony from cancer, near the roots of his tongue, and greatly desired his end to come peacefully. Indeed for several years he had stated that he had nothing to come home to desire to live.

A Philadelphia paper publishes the following sketch of his career:

"Judge Christiancy was born in 1825. He was born in Johnston, N. C., but removed to Monroe, Mich., in 1837. He lived for a score of years, rising from the ranks of struggling lawyers to the position of one of the most widely known attorneys in the West.
