Pennell Was Not a Suicide

Statement That Cause of Death Was an Accident—Wife Still Unable to Give Any Account of the Affair, She Being Unconscious—Victim Evidently Had a Great Fear for Identification.

March 11.—Mrs. Arthur Pennell, who with her husband, was dashing yesterday afternoon, is still unconscious at the Sisters' hospital, and is not expected to recover, according to the attending physicians. Pennell is suffering from a fractured skull and probably internal injuries. She has not been able to give an account of the events which led to the death of her husband.

Following 12 days after the murder of Arthur Pennell, who was killed by a car, the death of Pennell, who has been in the hospital for several days, has given rise to many speculations. The police have been unable to find any trace of the car which was seen by Pennell's wife as they were driving on the highway. It is believed that the car was a Buick, and that it was driven by a man who was seen by Pennell's wife as they were driving on the highway.

Medical Examiner Danzer, who made an examination of the body of Arthur Pennell, who was killed by a car, has given a statement that the cause of death was an accident. He stated that the car was driven at a high speed, and that it struck Pennell's car, which was traveling in the same direction. The car was driven by a man who was seen by Pennell's wife as they were driving on the highway.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1903. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

SUDDEN DEATH OF C. E. THORSTENSEN

His Lifeless Remains Found in Bed This Morning.

WELL-KNOWN BUSINESS MAN

Recently Appointed Manager of Utah Knitting Factory at Ogden—Other Weber News.

(Special to the "News.")
Ogden, March 11.—This community was much shocked this morning on learning that Mr. C. E. Thorstensen, the recently appointed manager of the Utah Knitting Works, had been found dead in his bed at the home of Peter Anderson in Glasgow addition.

The circumstances surrounding the death of the gentleman are somewhat strange, and it has been decided to hold an inquest on the body. It appears that Mr. Thorstensen has not been feeling well for some time, but when he retired to rest last night he seemed to be in good health and spirits. This morning when Mr. Peterson called at his room to wake him he received no answer, and on entering his apartment he found the body of the gentleman in bed. He did not, however, give his reasons for this statement. A jury of inquest was accordingly impaneled and an inquiry will be held this afternoon.

The deceased was 38 years of age and had resided at Logan until about three years ago, when he came to Ogden to take charge of the Ogden Knitting Works, which position he held until about a year ago, when he went to Salt Lake to superintend the knitting factory there. A few weeks ago when the Utah Knitting Works company was established at Ogden, he returned here to manage its affairs. He was regarded as a thorough business man and an expert in the knitting business.

While, as above stated, the circumstances of his death are rather strange, his friends are not inclined to believe that he died of a sudden. They declare there could be no reason for such a step. His family relations were of the most pleasant character, and he had an excellent position and financially was doing well.

He leaves a wife and four children who are at present at Salt Lake, and his friends are all here. His death is a great loss to the community.

CASTELLO IS DEAD.

Pai Castello, the man who was shot by Southern Pacific brakeman Malone a few days ago, died at the Ogden general hospital last evening as a result of the wounds received. Malone was not charged with the murder, but it is confidently believed he will soon be liberated as the dead man made the statement that he fired the first shot and the brakeman fired in self-defense.

The case against Castello is now being handled by the district attorney.

WATSON AND LISTER.

William Watson and Robert Lister, who it is alleged held up and robbed a man from Summit county a few days ago, were arraigned before Judge Howell this morning and entered a plea of not guilty. They will have a hearing this afternoon.

Riser, a fireman on the Oregon Short Line at 12:30 on the night of March 2 at 10 o'clock, was called for trial. The case was conducted by the defendants themselves, and they were acquitted.

Wilson Calls It A Whitewash.

Representative From Wasatch So Denominates the Report on Industrial School—Statement Accuses Dr. Condon Who Replies in a Manner That Takes the Breath of His Legislative Colleagues—Report is Adopted.

The first thing done in the house this morning was receiving the report of the committee on the state library, which recommended the appropriation of $3,000. Many reports were read from the judiciary committee and others. The conference committee on Senator Lewis' dog tax bill, No. 92, reported amendments and the bill will come up again and probably pass.

The committee sent to investigate the industrial school at Ogden made its report, which ended by recommending a new building and more equipment. It exonerated the management from the charges preferred and brought the irascible Representative Wilson of Wasatch to his feet, who said it was a whitewash and he was opposed to it. This aroused Dr. Condon, who said he knew absolutely that when this matter was first agitated there was a single spark of fire that could be fanned into a blaze, and that the report read amply justified his oft-repeated assertion that there was not a scintilla of evidence against either the superintendent or the trustees. He said he was not a prophet but a realist, and that he had seen the same thing in the past. He said he had seen the same thing in the past.

On motion of Representative Done a committee of three will be appointed to consist of one from the majority, one from the minority and the chief clerk to make a final revision of the house journal, and that they be given a month's salary for so doing.

SAW SENATOR SMOOT SEATED

John C. Culler Says Utah Man Made Favorable Impression Among His Colleagues—Protests May Be Pigeon-Holed For All Time—Business in the East

Mr. Culler returned home Monday from his three weeks' absence in the east, and after having had the pleasure of seeing Senator Smoot admitted to his seat, Mr. Culler said in an interview this morning that Mr. Smoot created a favorable impression from the first, and this impression was made more firm by his making the acquaintance of the other senators, and placing himself in the way of being freely questioned. His answers were ready and seemed to please, and the general sentiment was that with the polygamy charge out of the way there was no reason why he should not be elected.

Mr. Culler said the old senator concluded his labors from the galleries, and then witnessed the convening of the new senate in extra session. The new senator from Utah was well received and from what Mr. Culler could see he left with the firm belief that the protest from the 19 citizens would be not in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, and that the Sherman anti-trust act would be not in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

REPORT ON NORTHERN SECURITIES CO. CASE.

St. Paul, March 11.—The report of the testimony taken before Frederick G. Ingerson special examiner in the case of the United States Trust Company, Northern Securities company and others, has been filed with the clerk of the federal court. The report comprises four volumes of approximately 500 pages each, and much of the testimony has been published from time to time as it was taken. The filing of the report makes public for the first time the proceedings at an interesting session held Nov. 12, 1902, in New York, in which the contents of the government and the defendant are outlined. The securities of the company maintained that the company was not in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, that since the passage of that act other railway companies have acquired by purchase and lease control of the lines, and that the Sherman anti-trust act was not intended to apply to such combinations.

FIGHT ON SMOOT VIRTUALLY ENDED

Such is the Opinion of Congressman George Sutherland.

SENATOR HAS MADE FRIENDS

Found Clean Cut Business Man Instead of Long Faced Fanatic—Remarks on Other Affairs.

Congressman George Sutherland has returned from the vexatious atmosphere of Washington, thrown off the active care of a congressman's life and is buckling in to the legal work that has piled up on his desk since his political fortunes diverted him from his chosen field.

SMOOT FIGHT IS OVER.

He states, with very apparent pleasure, that in his opinion the fight against Senator Smoot is practically ended. Senator Smoot has been seated," said he, "and in my opinion he will not be unseated. He has made good friends in Washington and at present there is very cordial feeling in his favor in the senate. Many of the senators had expected to find in him a long faced fanatic, and instead they met a clean cut business man. Some of the senators came to me and said that Smoot was not at all the kind of fellow they expected to meet."

Congressman Howell has also made a very good impression in the house. I had the pleasure of introducing him to the members, and the satisfaction of witnessing the marked respect that was shown him.

THE BUTLER SCANDAL.

Mr. Sutherland was a member of the committee that investigated the charges of fraud attending the election of Mr. Butler, of St. Louis, who was unseated on the recommendation of the committee. "This investigation," said Mr. Sutherland, "disclosed the most monstrous frauds that were ever brought to my attention. We had to throw out thirty-two districts entirely. I will state a few cases to serve as an illustration of the enormous methods employed in St. Louis. In the election of Mr. Butler, we found 40 names registered from one house number, and on investigation it developed that the place was a house of ill-fame. Mr. Butler himself is the proprietor of a transfer stable and we found 111 names registered from that stable. Our investigation disclosed the fact that not a single ball was thrown in the stable, notwithstanding the testimony of Butler's witnesses, that these men were men of families but slept at the stables. We found long lists of names that had been registered in alphabetical order, clearly indicating that the directory had been consulted and a few names beginning with 'H' had been simply transferred without an effort to hide the fraud. Scores of names were registered from house numbers that were vacant lots, and in fact the fraudulent practices were so numerous that the committee, composed of men whose local political experience had opened their eyes to nearly every species of political fraud, were appalled. The Democrats set up the cry that we were unduly hastening the investigation and smothering the testimony favorable to the side which charge is utterly groundless, as we gave every one an opportunity to be heard as fully as possible, over 2,000 pages of testimony having been taken."

AS TO FILIBUSTERING.

Mr. Sutherland spoke warmly of the "filibustering" of the Democrats during the last week of the session. He said that "Joe" Cannon was greatly wrought up when he made his speech on Wednesday morning, and he perfectly justified when he characterized the attitude of Senator Tillman and others as "legislative blackmail."

"The South Carolina senator pressed a claim for $45,000 for his state, that he said arose out of the year 1812. The committee that considered the claim said the palmetto state was entitled to 28 cents." "Now we had to permit ourselves to be held up, went on Mr. Sutherland, "because Tillman said he would talk the entire appropriation bill to death if his claim was not granted. And under the rules he could have done it, and this precipitated a catastrophe upon the country. There we were and we could not help ourselves. But the efforts of the minority in the house to obstruct legislation failed. We had to resort to every parliamentary expedient within our power to carry on the work, however."

INDIAN RESERVATIONS.

"The most important bill that has passed Congress this session, so far as Utah is concerned," said Mr. Sutherland, "is the one that provides for the opening of the Utah Indian reservation, and the mineral lands on the Uncompahgre and Haverly mountains, whose amendments to the Indian appropriations bill that make this provision. The amendment relating to the Utah reservation was introduced and carried through by Senator Rawlins, whose splendid efforts in this matter are of uncalculable benefit to the state. The amendment provides that the secretary of the interior shall send an inspector to treat with the Indians and obtain, if possible, their consent to the opening for public entry, the entire reservation, which consists of about 2,000,000 acres. If the consent of the Indians cannot be obtained by June first of this year, then the secretary shall cause to be allotted to the Indians a strip of land not to exceed 25,000 acres, and the opening of the balance of the reservation shall occur on Oct. 1, 1904."

Was Formerly Law Partner of Chief Justice Fuller.

Chicago, March 11.—Samuel K. Dow, formerly one of the most prominent lawyers of the Chicago bar and partner of Chief Justice Fuller, died today at the residence of his son-in-law, Orrin L. Evans. Mr. Dow had been an invalid for many years. He was one of the founders of the Republican party and was active in the movement looking to Abraham Lincoln's first nomination. He was elected to the state senate in 1872 and later declined a seat in Congress and nomination as lieutenant-governor of Illinois.

Utah Forest Reserves.

The last thing Mr. Sutherland did before the adjournment of the last Congress was to talk with the officers of the interior department relative to the forest reserves in this state. He found that the Logan forest reserve and the Aquarius forest reserve in the southern part of the state will be created.

Senate Rules To be Examined.

Senator Allison Introduces Resolution Authorizing Committee on Rules to Go Over Them to See What Changes, if Any, Are Necessary, and to Inquire Whether or Not it is Expedient to Limit Debate.

Washington, March 11.—At the opening of the senate today Mr. Frye, the president pro tem, called attention of the senators to the fact that under a strict interpretation of the rules only such business as properly belongs to the matters under consideration in executive session should be presented at this extra session of the senate. He said it only confuses the record to have others introduced now, as it would all have to be reintroduced at the regular session in December.

Mr. Allison, of Iowa, offered a resolution which he said he thought was proper at this time, authorizing the committee on rules to re-examine the rules of the senate with the view of ascertaining what changes, if any, are necessary and especially to make inquiries whether it is expedient in any way to limit debate in the senate, and if so to what extent. The resolution further provides that the committee is authorized to sit during the recess of the senate and to select to submit a report to the senate of their conclusions as soon as practicable, after the beginning of the session next December.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 74 to 16. The committee on rules will have the original manuscript of the Cuban constitutional convention, and several orders and circulars of the department of Cuba, etc., were ordered returned to the war department.

The senate committee on foreign relations today authorized the several reports on the extradition treaties recently negotiated between the United States and Mexico and Guatemala. The Mexican treaty is an amendment to the existing treaty between the two countries, adding the crime of bribery to the list of extraditable offenses. The Guatemalan treaty is new and covers the crimes usually included in extradition treaties.

WARRANT FOR W. WRIGHT.

Is a Member of the London and Globe Finance Corporation.
London, March 11.—A warrant for the arrest of Whitaker Wright, director of the London & Globe Finance corporation, was issued today.

Following the order issued yesterday to the official receiver of the corporation, Mr. Wright, a summons for the latter was obtained, but when an officer went to his residence to serve it he was informed that Mr. Wright had gone to the continent on account of his health, hence the issue of the warrant.

In the house of commons today Swift McNeill, Irish nationalist, asked House of Commons to order that steps be taken to prevent Mr. Wright from attempting to escape from justice. The secretary declined to answer such a question without notification.

Funston in Washington.

Washington, March 11.—Gen. Frederick Funston was at the war department today in response to a summons from Acting Secretary Sanger to discuss matters connected with his new assignment to the department of the interior at Columbia. Mr. Sanger desired to acquire special information respecting conditions in Alaska, which is in the hands of Gen. Funston's new command. Mr. Sanger said he was going to that territory the secretary is charging him with subjects of inquiry. It is especially desired to be obtained as a basis of re-asserting the rule regarding the issue of licenses issued to civilians to occupy sites on military reservations. It is also contemplated to eventually reduce the size of these reservations in Alaska and General Funston is to ascertain how far this reduction should go and when it can be effected.

Echo of the Gordon Scandal.

London, March 11.—A sensational sequel has been furnished to the scandalous Gordon trial which occupied the attention of the British public for the night of Lady Granville Gordon when the child, Cicely, for the possession of which suit was brought. She has since disappeared and Lord Granville's declaration that he does not know whereabouts.

Accepts German Officers' Resignation.

Berlin, March 11.—Emperor William has accepted the resignation of five officers of the naval staff, including Capt. Obenheimer, who commanded the German cruiser "Goeben" at the time of the capture of Manila by the American forces.

Capt. Obenheimer's resignation, it is asserted, had nothing to do with the Philippines incident, in which the cruiser "Goeben" was captured by the Americans. His resignation was a result of his report of July, 1902, the text of which was made public today.
