DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, . . . November, 26 1868.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only.

No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—This evening Mr. John McCullough makes his first appearance in our Theatre as Damon, in the beautiful and favorite play of "Damon and Pythias." There is no need to say a word concerning such a well known and popular drama. As the patriot of Syracuse we expect Mr. McCullough will make a most favorable advent on our boards. His reputation in the leading roles of the legitimate drama is such that our theatre-goers may look for classic and finished impersonations from him. Mr. McKenzie plays Pythias with much vigor and impressement. Mr. Lindsay appears as the tyrant Dionysius, Miss Adams as Calanthe, and Mrs. Bowring as Hermion, with a full cast.

"Deaf as a Post" is a capital farce, in which Mr. Margetts portrays the stingy, sap-head Sappy, and Mr. Graham Templeton, the very deaf gentleman who illustrates the adage, "None are so deaf as they who will not hear;" with the other characters carefully distributed.

The bill should be of sufficient length and attractiveness to satisfy the most exacting.

LOWERING.—Accumulating clouds, making a dull, thick covering overhead, with falling snow flakes at intervals during the day, seem to indicate an approaching storm, which may be of prolonged duration when it does come.

REMOVED.—We notice that O.H. Elliott & Co., Booksellers and Stationers, have removed their stock from Hooper's Corner, to the building lately occupied as the Deseret Boot and Shoe Store, opposite Bishop Hunter's residence. They keep a large and valuable stock of books constantly on hand; and their canvassers are industrious in presenting to the public the claims of the numerous subscription books which they offer for sale.

ACCIDENT.—This morning as David H. Cannon was engaged in driving a bullock up to the City, from the Mousley farm on the State Road, the horse which he rode fell, and fell on his leg breaking it. He was conveyed to the house of his mother-in-law and surgical attendance from the City was promptly secured.

POLICE.—Mike Crowley and Thomas Smith, two "traveling transients" got themselves in a pickle this morning, by stealing some pickles from Joseph Hyde's wagon. They were arrested, brought before Justice Clinton, and after a "gentle reminder" from him departed on their way, not, however, in a rejoicing state of mind.

LAND OFFICE.—The Surveyor General's office for Utah Territory has been opened for the transaction of business, in Little's Row, Second South street. General John A. Clark, Surveyor General for this Territory, announces the fact to the public by advertisement. Settlers on land, who are citizens of the United States, or who have legally declared their intentions to become citizens, can now enter their lands, and obtain a title from Government. The citizens of this Territory have so long desired this, that now a Land Office is opened, we expect lands will be entered with all promptitude, that their occupiers may possess an indisputably valid title to them.

THROWING PEBBLES.—The practice of throwing pebbles, which many boys are apt to indulge in, may not be very dangerous in the country where there is little chance of any person being hit by them, though it is reprehensible in any place and in the streets of a city it is sometimes the cause of serious consequences.

We have heard of boys throwing pebbles around in our streets; and to-day a lady while driving a buggy along was struck by one, it having first struck the horse's head from which it bounded and struck her on the mouth. Such boys should be taken in hand, and taught better if they do not know already how wrong it is to practice such throwing. We have seen places where bands of young men would indulge in it, to the danger of every passer; and we are gratified to think that such is not the case here. But every grown person who sees little fellows occupying their time in this way should endeavor to have it immediately stopped, and to have the matter brought to the notice of the boys' parents.

DIED,—In Richville, Morgan Co., Nov. 22nd, of cancer in the stomach, Isaac C. Morris, formerly of Llanfair-Talhairn, Wales, aged 22 years and 8 months.

[Mill. Star please copy.

CONTRACTS LET.—The first grading contract of Messrs. Benson, Farr & West, on the C.P.R.R., is expected to be finished this week or early in next. Their second contract from Ogden, north and west, is about all let out in sub-contracts; and work is starting on it with energy. The grading on the Central line will seemingly be finished as far as Ogden in good time.

ROUGHS TRAVELING.—There is a large amount of travel at the present time on the road north of this City. Many of the individuals so journeying are honest, quiet, workingmen, who are seeking employment on some of the numerous grading contracts in Weber Canon and northward through Weber and Box Elder counties, on the U.P. R. R. and C. P. R. R. But numbers are as rough and as vicious looking men as can be found from Argenti to Bear River city. Some have bedding strapped to their backs, and are ready to take work where it offers; others have apparently nothing but the clothing on them, and it would seem calculate to steal sufficient to live upon. Of this latter class now and then parties can be found who boast how they fooled the Salt Lake police; or made them "back down." Should such characters make their way into any of the grading camps along the line mentioned they will do well to keep their peculiar proclivities and silly boasting in the background, and hide their filthy habits, or they may get roughly used. Not long since one of this stripe, caught stealing near the mouth of Weber canon, was treated to a ducking in the river with a rope around him, for the double purpose of cleaning him and teaching him that dishonesty was at a discount there. Those "boys" will stand nothing of that kind, and men who drink, swear, boast of their impurity, and practice dishonesty would be wise to keep from them.

The people through the settlements should be vigilantly on their guard against all such characters.

POLITICAL CHAMPIONS.—The Oregon Herald says that during the procession on the evening of the 7th inst., at Portland, two boys aged respectively ten and twelve years, the former a Democrat and the latter a Republican, got to quarreling and fighting over politics, the twelve-year old hero being the aggressor. In the combat the Republican champion got beaten and had a good cry over it. He excused his defeat on the ground that "he had been drinking and was not steady on his pins," and declared that there wasn't a boy in the crowd knew how much brandy he had in him.

The editor of the Herald thinks the above instance of youthful intoxication furnishes proof of a demoralized condition of juvenile society; there is hope for both Radicals and Democrats while they possess such doughty champions as these.
