

YEE LOOK LOSES HOARDED SAVINGS

Yee On, Another Heathen Chinese,
Languishes in Jail to Answer.

THIEF LOCKED THE SAFE.

It Was Open, But He Did Not Know It
And Soon Had the Combination
Turned Against Him.

Yee Look, a Chinese store keeper at 51 Plum alley, is mourning the loss of over $300. Locked in a cell at the city jail is a Mongolian named Yee On, charged with burglary in the second degree. It is claimed by Look that On broke into his room last night and stole the money. On was arrested this morning by Sgt. Johnston and $235 was found on him. On had been working for Look and knew where the latter kept the money in his room. He overlooked, or rather failed in getting $1,000 in cash which Look had in his safe. The safe was unlocked but the thief evidently thought it locked and tried to open it. In manipulating the combination the thief locked the safe and thus failed to get the $1,000.

When arrested this morning for the theft On declined to make any statement. He would neither admit or deny his guilt, but pleaded that word be sent to his father, who is said to be a prosperous merchant at Carson City, Nev. Look had a talk with the man but could not induce him to say where the balance of the money is.

LOOK CHARGES BURGLARY.

Look says that On has been working for him for some time and was familiar with the store and knew where Look kept his money. Last night Look paid a visit to some of his countrymen but before leaving he securely locked his door. On went to the place and tried to open the door with a hatchet. He broke open the money drawer containing more than $300 and took it all. He then tried to get into the safe but locked it by fooling with the combination. While telling his story to Chief Pitt this morning, Look was asked why he kept so much money on hand. "I think you have been running a gambling game there," said the chief. This was indignantly denied by Look, who declared that he had the money for change. Look filed a complaint against On, charging him with burglary.

HOBSON LECTURE TUESDAY.

Event Promises to be One Where Interest Will Abound.

"America, Mistress of the Seas," the subject chosen by Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, who appears in the Lyric theater tomorrow night, is one that should give the speaker a chance to voice some of the sentiments that the halls of Congress did not permit. It is said that he will.

A most peculiar condition is presented in this respect. Elected to Congress from his native state of Alabama, a rock-ribbed Democrat, yet he led the fight which was precipitated by the president when he asked Congress for a special appropriation for the construction of four new battleships. Congressman Hobson—who is also Capt. Hobson—made an energetic fight, but, presumably for the purpose of making campaign material, the measure was defeated. This, also, of course, defeated Hobson. But it was not in this case Hobson's choice.

In the reception of Capt. Hobson the officers at Fort Douglas are using every effort to see that the post is properly represented, and the assurance is given that it will be. Principal Eaton of the High school is going to have the cadets out in full force, in addition to which the politicians of both parties are making arrangements to both fitly entertain Congressman Hobson and also give him a rousing welcome.

WOMAN DROWNED.

Mrs. L. Lottie Heik Meets Death in Monroe Hot Springs.

(Special to the "News.")

Monroe, Sevier Co., April 20.—Mrs. L. Lottie Peterson Heik, wife of William Heik of Marysville, was drowned here on Saturday while bathing in the hot springs.

The unfortunate woman has been here some time taking treatment for dropsy under a local doctor. Her health showed decided improvement following the daily baths and she returned to her home a few days ago to look after the interests of her family. She returned Saturday to resume the bath treatment. She had just entered the pool when she lunked forward, and before her husband could carry her to the bank she had expired.

She leaves a husband and nine children, the youngest only a few months old. The Relief society took charge of the body. The deceased was 38 years of age and was married at Anna-bell, where her people are buried and where the remains will be taken for interment.

CHARGES GROSS CRUELITIES.

After Nearly Thirty Years of Married Life Divorce is Sought.

Mrs. Mary J. Lewis has filed suit for divorce from her husband, David C. Lewis, in the third district court. They have been married 29 years, the ceremony having been performed at Brigham Junction Sept. 5, 1879, and there are two grown children, one of them married. Mrs. Lewis charges her husband with gross cruelty and abuse, the charges being as follows:

Sept. 6, 1906—Threatened to knock her brains out.

Nov. 25, 1907—Said he would "knock the devil out of her."

Jan. 25, 1908—Threatened to kill her.

March 29, 1908—Wished that the ice cream she was eating would poison her and on the same date that the food she was eating would choke her.

Mrs. Lewis further claims he has mistreated her many times during the past five years, threatening to kill her at different times. She asks for a decree of divorce, ten acres of land and such other relief as the court may deem equitable.

TO EXPLAIN IN COURT.

Warrant Issued for P. J. Delmas on Battery Complaint.

A complaint has been filed in Judge Diehl's court and a warrant issued for the arrest of P. J. Delmas, of the Delmas Copper company, charging him with battery upon the person of E. J. Watts, formerly of the same company. It is said that Watts was a director in the company and held a small amount of stock but was recently removed by officers of the company. The trouble between Delmas and Watts occurred Saturday afternoon at the entrance to the Atlas block. Delmas, according to story told, had just returned from a visit to the directors of the company at Palsade, Nev., and called a meeting of the board of directors. He learned that Mr. Watts had been visiting the directors and that the latter had called a meeting. Watts replied that he was a director and would call a meeting whenever he desired. It is alleged that Delmas said something about Watts "bitting in on the affairs of the company," and Watts made a reply in kind which was followed by a scuffle and then blows. Watts declared that Delmas struck him on the head and face with his clenched fist. Watts, it is said, tried to get to Delmas, but friends intervened and then Watts went to police headquarters and swore to a complaint against Delmas. The latter will have a hearing before Judge Diehl.

NARROW ESCAPE IN RUNAWAY.

Charles Rasmussen, residing at Twelfth South, near the Redwood road, had a narrow escape from serious if not fatal injury in a runaway accident yesterday. He was driving a horse and buggy, and the animal became frightened at a passing train. The horse ran away, tearing madly east on Twelfth South street. The animal suddenly turned and crashed into a fence. The buggy was reduced to kindling wood and Rasmussen was hurled high into the air and over a fence. He was picked up and carried to a near-by house. There it was found that he had not been dangerously hurt. The runaway horse was captured by a mounted policeman.

SPECTACULAR RUNAWAY.

Two Horses, Two Wagons and the Wey Automobile in Thriller.

A spectacular runaway, containing every element of the up-to-date thriller except the casualty list, occurred this morning. The start was at the Temple pharmacy. The end is not yet. J. M. Ashworth, driving an express motor, happened to have his fiery steed with the ordinary drop weight while he went into the apothecary to discharge his errand. During the absence of the driver the animal used as motive power to the four-wheeled machine a frightened look, dashed madly about and with its speed indicator at the last notch made a run on Bond Temple street that would have done credit to any volunteer fire department. In its wild race, the outfit jostled madly into A. Fred Wey's automobile. The gasbuggy was not badly injured, but the horse and wagon were driven animal lessened. Seeking what it might find, the animal continued its course and when at the "News" corner made a flying leap for the "News" mail wagon. The spirit of good fellowship was soon apparent in the actions of the horse maintained and operated by the "News." The patient and docile creature was maintained and operated immediately warmed and it, too, took up a wild race to reach the destination being sought by the speeding express horse. At the last report, the "News" animal had the express horse outdistanced, but neither had been stopped. Kindling wood had been picked up all along the route to the express horse.

INTO OGDEN BY DECORATION DAY

Inspection of Simon Bamberger's
Road to Junction City Shows
Great Work Accomplished.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, April 20.—Senator Bamberger took a party of newspaper men over his line at this end today, and what they saw proved a revelation to many of them. Work is completed on the huge Parker cut and Effe fill, the latter representing the handling of 70,000 cubic yards of dirt. The Murdoch line is also completed. These are all right at this end of the line and leave sand ridge the only cut to be finished.

The sand ridge the only cut to be finished. This done the rest of the line can be laid rapidly. To hurry affairs two crews are at work upon it besides a steam shovel, which is gouging out a road like 2,000 yards of dirt a day. In the neighborhood of 50 men are also busy with line construction.

Senator Bamberger and those at work are laying out rails across the temporary wooden bridge. The temporary terminal will be located at Grant and Twenty-fifth streets and it will be to this point that visitors will be taken. Automobile omnibuses will meet trains at Grant and Twenty-fifth streets and carry them up to Idlewild. Senator Bamberger's report in Ogden canyon.

Everyone is happy over the compromise reached in the lawsuit in which the Bamberger and Union Pacific lines were principals. By this agreement all obstructions to the work all right and adequate safety appliances, dangers of a crossing were removed.

PROSPERITY GAINS.

Seattle, Wash., April 19.—C. M. Levy, third vice-president of the Northern Pacific, in charge of the operating department, in an interview for the Post-Intelligencer, said that his company would spend $1,500,000 in the next 30 days for freight cars in anticipation of increased business. "Business has steadily increased since the first of the year," said Mr. Levy. "January was a slight improvement in February. March was a great deal better than the preceding month, and the record for the upward trend. The Northern Pacific will finish a great deal of line improvement work this year. The cars will be reduced and curves straightened out at various places."

STILL OUT OF WORK.

(Special to the "News.")
Ogden, April 20.—When the Southern Pacific shophmen, who were laid off last Wednesday, appeared to resume work, they were told that they would be needed until May 1. Five hundred men are without work and this month will have seen them at work but 13 days altogether. The men are being sent to Des Moines, the way one of the foremen put it.

SIGNS FORETELL MOVING.

On the exterior of the Railroad Exchange building new railroad signs tell of the coming of the new line. The Rio Grande and Burlington have signs up, the latter's being somewhat small and "out of place" when compared with the Rio Grande's huge lettering. Ogden signs are going up. The railroads have been notified that "moving day" will be May 15 sure, now.

ALLEGED BAD MEN CAUGHT.

Nightwatchmen Whitwell and Caldwell of Murray captured two would-be burglars this morning as they were trying to break into the Atlas saloon. The two had been watched for some time, owing to suspicious actions on their part. After being arrested one gave his name as Fred, but the other refused to tell who he was and was booked as John Doe. On the way to jail one of the men threw away a number of skeleton keys, which were recovered. The keys were given to the police. It was learned that the probable true name of the prisoners are Frank Wilz and Harry Watson. Marshal Maus is of the opinion that the two are the thieves who recently operated in Farmington. They are now lodged in the county jail.

WEATHER TALK.

Put away the Merry Widow hat and festive low shoe, topped by the noisy stock for tonight's weather is to be unsettled, showers are predicted for Utah and partly cloudy for this locality. "Unsettled and cloudy" is also the forecast for the lower part of the country but stormy in the northwest and southwest and fair in the east. With all sorts of weather surrounding Utah the weather man decided it safest to forecast "unsettled" which he did and which it is.

SMALL BOY AND MATCHES.

The Combination Nearly Proved Disastrous at Mitchell Home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, 1360 south Fifth East, had a narrow escape from destruction by fire shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning as a result of the combination of a handful of matches and a 2-year-old boy.

The Mitchell's went to Ogden Saturday and left their three boys, aged 9, 7 and 2, at home in charge of a neighbor.

Yesterday morning the neighbor left the house for a few moments and the 9-year-old boy started to make a fire in the kitchen. He left a box of matches where the baby could reach them. The little fellow decided to build a bonfire in the pantry. He shut the door and began operations. When the flames gained sufficient headway to satisfy the youngster, he came out of the pantry and notified his brothers. The neighbor returned at that moment and quickly sent in an alarm. The fire department responded and put out the blaze. But little damage was done.

DEATH OF H. T. SHURTLEIFF.

H. T. Shurtliff of Mill Creek died early yesterday morning, at the family residence, 3615 south Fifth East street, from nephritis. The deceased was 68 years of age, and had resided in Utah since 1849, coming here with his parents when he was a child. From the time of his coming here until his demise, Mr. Shurtliff had resided almost continuously on the same parcel of land. A widow and six children survive him. The names of the children are: H. D. Shurtliff, guard at the Utah penitentiary; E. D. and Arthur E. Shurtliff, who are in business at Twin Falls, Ida.; L. R. Shurtliff, clerk of the Idaho state court; Mrs. Nellie Shurtliff Morgan, at La Belle, Ida.; and Mrs. Charles Bell of Mill Creek.

CITY COUNCIL FORECAST

"Inner Circle" to be Present by Its Delegated Authorities, the "Patriot" Councilmen.

One of the matters to come up before this evening's session of the city council is the protest of the congregation of the Westminster Presbyterian church against the opening of a saloon on the corner of First South and Fourth West streets, within 80 yards of the church building. There was formerly a drug store in this location, but request for a liquor license was made on the establishment of a saloon on the corner of First South and Fourth West streets.

At a meeting of the Westminster congregation held yesterday to protest against the granting of the license, the following petition to the council was unanimously adopted: "We, the undersigned, do hereby request your honorable body not to grant a license to the establishment of a saloon on the corner of First South and Fourth West streets."

The board of trustees of the church held another meeting during the afternoon adopting the following resolution: "Whereas, we are informed that a license has been granted to open a saloon on the corner of First South and Fourth West streets, we, the members of the board of trustees of the Westminster Presbyterian church, in specially called meeting, do hereby protest against the granting of such license and ask that the same be revoked forthwith, because of its nearness to the church and Sunday school and in the interests of decency and morality. This board believes that the license must have been granted under a misapprehension of the facts in the case and ignorance of the nearness of the saloon to the church and Sunday school, and request that the city council take immediate steps to investigate the matter and act accordingly."

Another matter which will doubtless be brought up in tonight's meeting is the proposed appointment of Mrs. Bero as matron at the city jail. This appointment has been urged by the "American" patriots at every session of the council for several weeks, but each time the matter has gone over. The proposition is to replace the present matron, who does the work all right and who has held the position for many years with absolute satisfaction, by the prison city authorities—her only claim being that she is not an "American" party member and the "patriot" want to install at a higher figure per meal than is already being charged a woman who is of the same political affiliation with the majority of the council, even against the principle of economy and satisfactory service.

The matter of awarding a fat plum to ex-Chief of Police George Schmitt for all his tribulation and suffering in cruel cases as a "martyr" to the McWhirter robbery affair, may also come up this evening. George no doubt "needs the money" and the office of Chief of the detectives of Salt Lake City has long remained without an incumbent, in the minds of the "gang."

BIDS FOR SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

Bids for school supplies for the coming year have been tabulated in the office of the board of education, covering all the supplies needed outside of books, such as pens, pencils, paper, etc. The total amount of supplies required for the year will foot up to probably three or four carloads; and the cost will be in the neighborhood of $10,000. About 19 houses have submitted bids, most of them being local concerns. The bids will be passed on by the committee on teachers and school work, and then submitted to the board.

COURT IN TOOELE.

Judge Armstrong has gone to Tooele to hold a session of the Third district court for a few days.

ANOTHER DE SAUTELLE STORY.

This One Involves Dove and Money in Oakland, Cal.

Chief of Police Pitt is in receipt of a communication from Mrs. M. A. Clover, a widow of Oakland, Cal., which brings to light more swindling operations of C. E. De Sautelle, the alleged employment agent swindler now in the county jail awaiting trial on the charge of defrauding Miss Irene Bickford of $75.

Mrs. Clover informed Chief Pitt that De Sautelle gained her confidence and secured her affection and then induced her to part with several hundred dollars of her savings. After the man secured the money he disappeared and left Mrs. Clover in destitute circumstances. She wrote Chief Pitt inquiring for De Sautelle, and he informed the woman that the man is awaiting trial for defrauding Miss Bickford.

STATE BUILDS RESERVOIR.

Monster Project in Platte Will Irrigate 22,000 Acres.

The state board of land commissioners will construct the big Platte reservoir, costing complete, $250,000. This action was decided upon at the meeting held by the board Saturday afternoon at the site of the project had been visited and inspected by the members of the board. The reservoir will be built in Sevier and Sanpete counties and the lowest bidder when completed will be $5,000 acre feet. The tract which the water stored in this reservoir will irrigate is not less than 22,000 acres, situated in the two counties.

IT IS THE INTENTION TO BEGIN WORK ON THE PROJECT IN JUNE, COMMENCING WITH THE TUNNEL WORK. BIDS HAVE ALREADY BEEN NEGOTIATED, BUT THE LOWEST BIDDER WITHDREW HIS BID AND WILL BE ADVERTISED FOR ON THE WHOLE WORK.

The land adjacent to the reservoir and the water rights in its hands, and thus make back the amount of money laid out on the construction. The reservoir will probably be completed some time in 1910.

CITY DEFENDANT IN ANOTHER SUIT

Agnes M. Coalter Asks for $2,000
Damages for Changing
Street Grade.

CUT SIDEWALK FOUR FEET.

Plaintiff Claims Her Property Has Been Rendered Undesirable for Residence Purposes.

Another suit against the municipality of Salt Lake claiming damages for changing the grade of streets and sidewalks in front of residence property on Third and O streets on Third street this morning. Agnes M. Coalter is plaintiff in this latest suit, and she places the amount of damage done to her residence property on Third avenue by the grade enforced by the city at $2,000. In her complaint plaintiff alleges that before the change made by the city the grade in front of her premises between N and O streets on Third street was a natural one, and that it had been satisfactory to her and to her predecessors in ownership of the property and to the inhabitants of that part of the city for many years, but that the city arbitrarily enforced a new gradient reducing the natural grade on the sidewalk in front of her property by four feet, rendering her property undesirable for residence purposes and damaging her in the sum named in the complaint. Plaintiff also asks interest on the $2,000 from Dec. 1, 1907.

PAPERS ARRIVE.

Ohio Officer Comes to Utah to Secure Parole Breaker.

Requisition papers for the arrest and return of John Radcliff, a fugitive from justice and escaped prisoner from Ohio, were received in the office of Secretary of State Tinney this morning. Radcliff had been arrested and was being held in Ogden pending the arrival of the Ohio officer with requisition papers. Officer H. J. Collier from the Buckeye state arrived, armed with the necessary papers, and will take Radcliff back to Ohio to finish his sentence in the state reformatory. He was committed to the reformatory for assaulting a man by the name of James Folsen in his native state with a revolver, shooting him three times. Folsen did not die, however, and young Radcliff, who was only 19 years old, was sent to the reformatory. He is also alleged to have been committed while he was out on parole. When apprehended at Ogden, Radcliff employed an attorney and fought his arrest with an application for a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was denied by the Ogden justice, and the young fellow was held for the arrival of the officer from Ohio.

HUSBANDS USE FISTS.

Mrs. Robert Alma Rogers in a divorce suit filed today charges her husband with beating her with his fists and otherwise treating her in cruel and inhuman manner. He also wantonly and cruelly kicked her, according to the complaint, while plaintiff was recovering from the effects of a surgical operation, without just cause or provocation. Plaintiff therefore asks for a decree of divorce, the custody of their two boys, alimony of $20 per month, and all the household furniture.
