THEATRE.—Saturday was the last night of the season. This evening the great Variety Vaudeville Acrobatic and Ethiopian Combination will make their first appearance. The programme commences with a "Grand Parlor Entertainment," by the ladies and gentlemen of the Company; next "The Unapproachable Olio of Oddities," by Mlle. Josephine, Eugenia Garretta, Lewis Parker, Richard Brown, J. H. Parker and Carrie Armstrong; then the "Great Gyro Act," by Edward Montague; next "Uncle Jeff," by Parker, Larkin, and Wood, and "A Beautiful Bouquet of Dances," by Mlle. Josephine; concluding with J. H. Larkin's vaudeville of "Hemmed In, or Dutch Perplexities," "Johan Von Openheimenheimerfert," J. H. Larkin, other characters by the company.

Doors open at half-past seven p.m., performance to commence at eight.

"BLUSTEROUS."—A strong wind has been blowing during the greater part of to-day, lifting the dust and whirling it through the air in clouds. It looks portentous for a storm.

Raining a little as we go to press.

RUNAWAYS.—A span of greys, with light spring wagon, dashed up East Temple St., yesterday, at a terrific rate of speed, without a driver, and brought up at the corral of Mr. H. P. Kimball.

JUDGE BOREMAN.—This gentleman has entered upon his duties as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory, the oath of office having been administered to him, on Saturday, by Chief Justice McKean.

ARRIVED.—John W. Young, Esq. arrived from the east last night, in good health and spirits.

SERENADED.—Last evening Brother W. A. McMaster, who left this morning for Arizona, was serenaded, by the Sunday school choir, as a manifestation of respect for him. He was teacher of the theological class of the Sunday school.

A SHOOTING AND CUTTING SCRAPE.—A terrible affray occurred a little after six o'clock yesterday morning, on Commercial St., between two negroes, and in which other colored individuals were more or less mixed up, resulting in the serious wounding of two of the parties, and another receiving a wound that will probably prove fatal.

The particulars of the affair, so far as we have been able to learn, are about as follows: A number of negroes had been gambling during the whole of Saturday night, and yesterday morning a general dispute arose among them, the principal belligerents being Charley Mingo and Clint Floyd. The altercation at this stage resulted in a scuffle between these two, during which Floyd drew a knife and inflicted two severe cuts upon Mingo, one on the arm and the other in the back.

Mingo went to a surgeon and had his wounds dressed, and then, in company with Bill Gale and Biz Gale, called at the City Hall and entered a complaint against Floyd. It being early in the morning, officers Charles Livingston and Alex. Burt were not then astir. The latter told Mingo and Clinton to go and try and find the whereabouts of Floyd and they would follow as fast as possible and arrest him. The officers dressed as hastily as possible and started for Commercial street, and when they were about midway between that point and the City Hall they heard the report of fire-arms, and they ran towards the direction whence the sound proceeded.

Clint Floyd and Charley Mingo were the combatants. The first named blazed away at his antagonist with a Remington six-shooter and the latter with a Colt's five-shooter. Both weapons were emptied, therefore eleven shots must have been fired.

None of Floyd's bullets took effect upon Mingo, but Bill Gale received one in the left side. His wound, however, is not supposed to be dangerous, as the ball, it is believed, raced around the ribs and came out at the back.

Mingo did not attempt to escape when the officers arrived, but Floyd ran into the Salt Lake House, by the back way, and hid in one of the upstairs rooms. Officers Livingston and Burt followed and searched for him.

In their search the officers came upon a room, the door of which could not be opened sufficiently wide to admit of a person entering, but enough to show that a sheet had been dragged over the side of the bed, preventing any object underneath it from being seen. The officers, although convinced they had located their man, preferred not to break in the door in order to capture him. The room was divided from another by a partition which did not reach the ceiling. Mr. Burt climbed over this partition and got upon the bed, while Mr. Livingston kept his pistol directed to a hint under the bed, in case Floyd should offer resistance. The sheet was then pulled away from the front of the bed, and as Floyd was under it he was soon pulled out from that position.

On the way to the City Hall Floyd said he was wounded, and complained of suffering from its effects. Dr. Anderson was sent for to examine his injuries, when it was discovered that a bullet had entered his left side and probably lodged somewhere near the back. The ball is so deeply imbedded that it has been, thus far, impossible to reach it. The chances for Floyd's recovery are therefore very small, the danger of inflammation being very great. It is probable that his fate will be decided, one way or the other, by to-morrow. He lies at the City Hall.

It is likely the case will come up for examination this evening.

UNIVERSITY TERM.—Another term of the University of Deseret commenced to-day—the last term of the present academical year. At this season the number of students is generally smaller than at other times, which gives those who do attend a proportionately larger share of the attention and services of the faculty.

A CHANGE.—Performances at the Theatre now commence at eight o'clock. Doors open at half past seven, or just half an hour later than heretofore.

ARRIVED.—By private letter from Liverpool, we learn that Elders Erastus Snow, W. C. Staines and Joseph Birch, and Sisters Little and Schettler arrived at that port April 3rd.

SALT LAKE CITY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The members of the Salt Lake City Teachers' Association and acting teachers of this city generally, are requested to attend a meeting of the Association, Wednesday, April 23rd, at half past 7 p.m., at the University building, as business of importance will have to be transacted.

EARL G. MANNER,
President.

CONCERT.—The programme of a concert, to be given at the Nineteenth Ward Literary Institute, for the benefit of the Ward Sunday School, has been handed to us. The pieces to be rendered are well chosen and we presume those who attend will have an interesting time.

Prof. Beazley will be conductor and Mr. John Chamberlain organist on the occasion.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE.—There was quite a commotion and no little excitement in the neighborhood of East Temple, First South, and Commercial Streets at about 11 o'clock, to-day, caused by the fire bell, at the City Hall, being sounded, and a large number of individuals shouting at the same time. Firemen ran from every direction and the steam fire engine and the hose carriage were brought out of the engine house in double quick time, when several persons arrived at the Hall and said the fire was extinguished.

The alarm arose from a quantity of old straw and other rubbish, at the rear of "Cheap John's" establishment, taking fire, the flames reaching a height of from that to ten feet. Fortunately they were extinguished by Mr. Robert Patrick and some others, by the application of a few pails of water.

And the flames not been extinguished in their incipiency it is difficult to imagine the amount of destruction that might have ensued. It is supposed that somebody had thrown a quantity of hot ashes on the pile of rubbish which took fire.

It may not be amiss to mention, incidentally, the condition of the lane where the fire started. Heaps of straw and other inflammable material, and any amount of filth are there from one end to the other. Besides the wretched condition of the locality in a sanitary point of view, it would be the easiest thing imaginable for an immense fire to originate there from the careless casting aside upon the inflammable rubbish of a lighted match or partially consumed cigar. This matter certainly needs looking after.

SANDY STATION ON FIRE.—We learn, as we go to press, that Sandy Station, on the Utah Southern Railroad, is on fire. The steam fire engine and a number of members of the Fire Brigade have gone there, by train, from this city.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

EASTERN.

NEW YORK, 21.—A New York correspondent has had an interview with Don Carlos, who justifies his present course by saying that the act by which the throne of Spain was given to Isabella was a violation of the organic law of the kingdom, and therefore illegal, and he proposes to continue the fight for the rights of his house, begun by his grandfather. His programme of government is that everything shall be through a free Cortes, there shall be complete decentralization in everything but general politics. Castellar and Figuerns, Don Carlos holds, are men of great ability, but a republic is never possible in Spain without assuming the wildest socialistic character of Thiers. As to Cuba, he holds the abolition of slavery to be indispensable, but gradual and not at the expense of the proprietors. No government, however, dare allude, in Spain, to the alienation of Cuba.

A call has been issued for a national convention of the producers and consumers of the U. S., to be held in this city, May 6th next, to promote, by co-operation, the interests of producers and consumers; also to consider what can be done to reduce the cost of transportation by rail and water between the west and the sea board. The Senate committee on transportation and routes proposes to be present in person or by delegates.

Henry Ward Beecher, in a sermon last night, invoked the Father of all mankind to remember in mercy the children of the forest, whose pent up wrongs had driven them to bloodshed and diabolical murder.

The public school war in Jersey City is becoming bitter, the interference of the School Board has been invoked.

A vessel has cleared from Philadelphia, which it is believed will be turned into a gun boat, to aid in freeing Cuba from Spanish dominion.

CHICAGO, 21.—A Washington special says the present attitude of the government with regard to the Louisiana disturbances may be summed up as follows; acting Secretary of War has instructed General Emery, in command of the Department of the Gulf, not to use troops in any of the local troubles except to enforce the decisions of the United States circuit court, and in the event of the troubles becoming general, to await the requisition of the governor on the President for troops.
