PEOLERS MUST PAY LICENSE

Itinerant Vendors of Buggies, Wagons, Etc., Amenable to State License Law.

POSTPONES WEDDING A WEEK

South Lacked Five Days of Being 21—Burglars Enter Home of Barney Cornwell.

Ogden, Nov. 28.—The law passed by the last legislature providing that itinerant peddlers must secure a license before they can follow their vocation in the State of Utah, is to be tested in the courts. For some time past peddlers who make it a business to travel through the country selling buggies, wagons, and other vehicles, have been doing business in the adjoining counties. The matter was brought to the attention of District Attorney Iverson, who on investigating the case, found sufficient grounds to prepare a complaint, charging J. A. Beyer, George T. Bacon, George Sawyer and John Ecker with violating the law providing for an itinerant pedler's license, by selling and carrying on their buggies and other vehicles in residents of Davis county. The warrants for their arrest were placed in the hands of the sheriff of Davis county, who took them in custody, but they were released on bail.

For some time past these men have been doing a good business in selling wagons, buggies, and other vehicles, and it was held that the law was unconstitutional. In Utah, however, District Attorney Iverson claims the law is different, and is constitutional, as it does not discriminate against any particular class of peddlers. The defendants have store, Mr. Wm. Wahlgren being the manager.

The poles of the Idaho Light & Power company are erected and houses and public buildings are being wired ready for the electric lights.

The Western Milling & Elevator company has a warehouse 77 by 23 feet completed. The elevator house up above all other buildings, but at present work is suspended, owing to the thought, to the financial stringency. Thousands of dollars in what some call "sunburnt currency" are in circulation, but as it seems to be good in all branches of trade people are very glad to get that.

AMUSEMENTS GALORE.

Theatrical troupes are not passing up without calling. The Royal Slave company presented the play of "Lost Name on the 12th inst. Josephine Jeffery & Co. presented "Poodle Paradise," the "Gambler's Wife," and "Small We Forgive Her," on the 11th, 12th and 13th, respectively. On the 14th Quincy Adams Sawyer was presented by the company of that name. Each company was greeted by a full house.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bates were made happy by the arrival of their second son on the 18th inst.

The Primary association is preparing for a fair on Thanksgiving day, and in the evening the Woodmen of the World present a grand ball at the opera house.

CHINESE WOMAN DISAPPEARS.

And With Her $30,000 Belonging to Other Women.

Los Angeles, Nov. 28.—Chen Chow Yung, a Chinese woman, is alleged to have disappeared from Chinatown with a sum aggregating $30,000, representing capital invested in the "Chinese Women's Depository Syndicate," which she formed. It is alleged that the woman intended many wealthy residents of the Chinese quarter, meanwhile posing as a hair dresser. Failure to pay promised dividends, it is said, resulted in the discovery that she was missing.

ROOSEVELT MAKES TRIP TO MADISON'S HOME.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The home of President Madison near Montpelier, Va., was the objective point of a trip which occupied President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Quentin today. The start was made from the new union station on a special train over the Southern railway at 9 o'clock this morning. The entire trip is to occupy seven hours. On arrival at Montpelier the party will be driven to the Madison estate, which is now occupied by William Dupont and family. After an inspection of the ancient home-ward the party will begin the return journey, taking luncheon on the train, reaching Washington at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The trip was arranged as a variation of the usual Thanksgiving at Pine Knot, Va., where Mrs. Roosevelt owns an estate. It also is in fulfillment of the president's desire to visit the homes of former presidents and make a pleasant outing for the holiday. A Thanksgiving day dinner will be given at the White House this evening.

DIED IN THE SURF.

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 28.—Despite the heroic attempt of Mrs. W. T. Pitcher to rescue him, Thomas Frank Brinnemaid, believed to be a member of the firm of Brinnemaid & Co. of Des Moines, Iowa, died in the surf yesterday afternoon. Heart failure superinduced by going into the water, is believed to have caused death.
