INFORMATION WANTED.—P. W. Reardon wishes to know the whereabouts of a man named Evans, whose given name he has forgotten, and who has a brother in Chatham, Canada West, named Israel Evans. The latter has but one arm. The Evans whom Mr. Reardon is desirous of hearing from, is supposed to be in this Territory. Should this meet his eye he will please communicate immediately with P. W. Reardon, post office, Salt Lake City.

RECOVERING.—Brother John Lindsay, of the 20th Ward, who received severe injuries in his head some time since by an accident, while at work near the point of the mountain west, has so far improved as to be able to be around again, though his recovery is by no means complete.

SMALLPOX.—We learn by letter from Centerville, Sept. 11th, that up to that date but three cases of small-pox had occurred in that town, and that one of the three patients, a child a year and a half old, died on the 10th. The authorities of Centerville are taking every necessary precaution to prevent the spread of the disease, and the appearance of the disease has caused but little excitement there.

A SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Somewhat of a sensation was in town about ten o'clock this morning by a shooting at a man in the Seventeenth Ward had shot his wife and then attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself. The facts of the affair were bad enough, but not near so horrible as the rumor, for the incident was, after all, a bloodless one.

A little before the hour above named a pistol shot was heard in the tenement house of Thomas Jenkins, South Temple street, about two and a half blocks west of this office. Immediately after the firing of the shot there was a general rush of women and children from the building to the street, when it was announced that Robert Charles, a gambler, who with his family, occupied a portion of the house, had shot his wife. Happily this was not so, but he had shot at his wife, and the shot had taken effect on her, the ball lodging harmlessly in the ceiling of the room, and she made her escape through the doorway.

Shortly after the people had rushed out of the house, Charles came out with the pistol in his hand, five-shot, and walked towards town. Mr. Taylor, of Folsom, Romney and Co., and some others followed him, for the purpose of having him arrested, when Mr. William Jennings came along in his carriage, who, on being informed of the affair, immediately drove to town and informed Officer John Y. Smith of what had occurred. By this time Charles had arrived at the store of Hagne Brothers, gunsmiths, where he has been known for several years, and proceeded to the room upstairs. On going into this room he said to a man named Charles, who was there, "I have shot her," meaning his wife, "Hagson," on seeing the pistol in Charles' left hand, endeavored to take it from him, but he refused to give it up. Hagson then went down stairs, when a pistol shot was heard, and it was supposed that Charles had committed suicide. On arriving at the Messrs. Hagne's store, Officer Smith found Charles lying face downwards, on the floor. He turned him over, took the pistol from him and found that he was uninjured, the ball, as in the attempt to shoot his wife had lodged in the ceiling, in the city jail where he now lies.

When Charles attempted to shoot his wife there were two children, a boy and a girl, in the room. The father of the family, upon the life of Mrs. Charles, by her husband, was a feeling of jealousy on the part of the latter, for which Mrs. O. says there was not the least shadow of foundation. Charles has been a resident of the Territory for a number of years, and himself and wife are the parents of a family of four children. It is stated that Charles is a heavy drinker, which has probably had the effect of impairing his mind to such a degree as to cause him to be imprudent with the idea that his wife was unfaithful to him.

Mrs. Charles did not manifest the amount of distress at the attempt of her husband to shoot her as might have been expected, but she was very much distressed by the fact that her husband had killed himself, and her grief was heartrending, and when this news was reported the reaction in her feelings was equally affecting.

We are informed that Charles threatened to shoot his wife two or three days ago, that a pistol, which he then had, was taken from him by a friend, and he afterwards giving it to Mrs. C., who took it to the Messrs. Hagne's store.
