SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT. Mrs, Henry Ford Overturned From

Buggy and Badly Hurt,

Ogden, Jan. 8 .- Mrs. Henry Ford received serious injuries yesterday shortly after noon on Twenty-fifth street by being thrown from her buggy by a runaway horse which dashed into the vehicle in which she was riding. Mrs. Ford was driving down the hill slowly when she observed the runaway horse with a rope around its neck to which was attached a hitching post,

She turned her buggy to one side, but the horse in its mad chase, ran into the buggy completely upsetting the same, throwing Mrs. Ford out, render-ing her unconscious, in which condi-tion she was ploked up and taken to Dr. Powers' office. The physician on examination found her arm broken just above the elbow and the ligaments of the arm terribly torn. He dressed the injuries and sent the woman to her home where she is resting easily today. The fracture is a serious one which will require considerable time to heal as the flesh was incerated so badly.

days ago one lone car was sidetracked here, the first in six weeks. The question is a serious one because there are so many in need. As soon as the news is out that a car has come, teams begin to line up at the depot. Many people are using sagebrush, and other kinds of poor stuff, which is not sufficient this cold weather. People are suffering. Frivate citizons have been interceding and now the Commercial club and mayor are sending to the Utah Fuel company, asking for assistance.
