

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

One of the large bridge teas of the week was that given by Miss Webster on Tuesday, about 12 tables being played. The rooms were decorated in white and pink, the parlors in bridal-wreath and the dining room in carnations, the table having a silver bowl filled with carnations, while pink-shaded candles were at either end. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. John Zane, Mrs. James Finlen, Miss Margaret Park and Miss Lorene Leary. Prizes were won by Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. Karl A. Scheid, Mrs. James Ivers, Miss McCormick, Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, Mrs. Grant Hampton, Mrs. Charles, Mrs. L. Terry, Mrs. L. E. Ritter, Mrs. Leary and Miss Park.

Mrs. W. H. Bird entertained at a bridge tea Tuesday afternoon for Miss Florence Grant, the rooms being decorated in hearts, and about a half dozen tables played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Richards, Miss Hampton, Miss Jean Odell and Miss Winifred Lynn. Miss Florence Grant was awarded the guest prize.

Miss Florence Grant will be guest of honor at several social affairs. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Odell will entertain at a dinner Sunday at their country home at Bonnevillie. Monday Miss Kate Groo will entertain and Wednesday Mrs. Matthew Cullen will be hostess at an afternoon affair in her honor.

Miss Abbie Wells entertained yesterday afternoon for Miss Retta Pyper, the affair being at the country home at Bonnevillie. The rooms were decorated in red carnations and covers laid for 12.

Miss Dorris Hyde entertained at cards last night at her home.

Miss Della Burt was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday for Miss Lillian Farrington, the decorations being in red carnations and covers laid for 12.

The Woman's Republican club entertained at cards on Tuesday night at Unity hall, the decorations being in flags, and refreshments served. About 20 tables were played.

Mrs. George Slocum was guest of honor at a bridge tea on Wednesday, given by Miss Madsen.

Mrs. J. A. Sanborn entertained at a card party on Wednesday night for Mrs. J. M. Anderson, her guests being chiefly members of the Ladies' Reserve club. The decorations were in carnations and ferns and about seven tables were played.

Mrs. M. H. Walker entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Mima Rogers whose marriage is soon to take place. A number of the ladies' friends and relatives being present and enjoying a pleasant afternoon.

On Wednesday Mrs. James Ivers and Mrs. James Finlen of Chicago entertained at a bridge-tea at the Ivers home, the decorations being in green and white with moonlight and Sheena daisies used with ferns and green-shaded lights. About 16 tables were played and winners at each table received a prize. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Helen Welsh of Park City and Mrs. C. S. Vadner, Miss Katherine Judge, Miss Dorothy Kinney, Miss Webster and Miss McGrath assistants.

Mrs. Leslie Savage gave a luncheon on Wednesday for Miss Stingley, the guests being mostly friends and relatives, and brides roses being used in the decorations. Covers were laid for about a half dozen.

Miss Cosgraff gave an elaborate dinner at the Knutsford on Thursday in honor of Miss Stingley and Mr. Campbell, whose marriage takes place next week. The table was decorated in bride's roses and smilax, and covers were laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. J. A. Sanborn entertained at a Kensington on Thursday, about 40 guests being present. The decorations were in red and white carnations and roses, and a delightful program was given during the afternoon including songs by Mrs. J. Hal Moore, a piano solo by Mrs. Stephen Lynch, a violin and cornet solo by Victor and Murray Snow, accompanied with the piano played by Mrs. Smith, and a recitation by Miss Vida Bradford. An orchestra also rendered selections throughout the afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. F. Hanna and Mrs. J. P. Ostler.

Mrs. Sidney G. Saville entertained at a card party on Thursday for Miss Retta Pyper, the amusement being 600 and Miss Ethel Felt winning the prize. The decorations were in white plants and flowers and about a half dozen tables were played.

Mrs. H. C. Hoffman entertained the little girls who took part in the "Crystal Slipper" at an afternoon party on Thursday for her little daughter Naomi, the time being spent in card games and dancing, each little guest receiving a doll and the larger ones a rose. The hostess was assisted by Miss Rae Barch and Miss Louise Osbourn.

On Thursday the graduating class of the Bryant school were guests of honor at their annual party, the occasion beginning with a luncheon given by Mr. W. J. Halloran, and Miss Halloran at the Commercial club, followed by an Orpheum party given by Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hanchett and later at a supper at Franklin's given by Warner Morrison.

Miss Rae Barch entertained the "golden tables" of the "Crystal Slipper" at her home yesterday the time being enjoyably spent with games and other pastimes.

Miss Florence Grant was guest of honor yesterday at a card party given by Mrs. B. F. Raymond.

Mrs. J. M. Anderson who leaves shortly to make her home in Seattle was guest of honor this afternoon at a luncheon given by Mrs. T. D. Smith.

Gordon Academy was the scene of two delightful functions yesterday. Miss Bishop entertaining the seniors at an elaborate dinner and a large reception following for the seniors in the evening.

Miss Norine Thompson gives an Orpheum party this afternoon in honor of Miss Margaret Walden who leaves shortly for the east.

Miss Bessie Johnson and Miss Mabel Crumby entertained the seniors of the University kindergarten class at a card party yesterday afternoon, the rooms being prettily decorated and a delightful time spent.

The alumni banquet at Gordon

Academy on Thursday night was an elaborate affair the rooms being decorated in the school colors, purple and white and a program of toasts given by the following: Dorothy Thompson, president of the alumni; toast master. Those who responded were Miss Esther Allen of the class of 1897; Bert Walters 1903; Miss Eva Johnson, 1905; Miss Alicia Tibbets, 1906, and Miss Stella Davis, 1908.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

THE SILK AFTERNOON FROCK.

Some of the pretty little frocks for afternoon wear are those simple models of rough silk, pongee or tussor in some becoming shade, such as the natural pongee or Copenhagen blue, with a dainty guimpe of allover embroideries, or lawn or batiste, much inset with dainty lace and embroidery insertions. An effective use of self-trimmings is illustrated in this jumper model with princess skirt joining a skeleton-like jumper.

In the contest went to Mrs. C. D. Roodliff, Miss Stingley, Miss Mildred McMillan and Miss Mary Smedley. About four tables were played at Mrs. Alexander's second affair on Tuesday and the prizes were won by Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. C. D. Roodliff, Mrs. Taylor and Miss Greta Cosgriff.

On Wednesday Mrs. Alexander entertained about 29 guests, and her decorations were in yellow, daisies being used with yellow shaded candles, and the prizes going to Mrs. R. A. Keesee, Mrs. Robert Gledhill, Mrs. W. D. Donohoe, Mrs. Richard Stingley and Mrs. L. L. Terry.

Mrs. Russell Tracy entertained the Monday card club this week at luncheon at her home, the decorations being in bridal wreath and Miss Hanner winning the prize.

Notably pretty exercises attended the field day at Rowland hall on Monday evening. A large reception will be held at the hall.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing entertained on Thursday at a large tea, assisted by Mrs. M. Burt and Mrs. James Finlen. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlor in pink, the hall in red and the dining room in green and white, peonies, carnations, stock and snowballs being used with candlelight shaded in the chosen color. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Miss Cosgriff, Mrs. Warren Crook, Miss Frances Graham, Miss Mary Smedley, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Mamie Sappington, Little Dorothy Crook welcomed the guests at the door.

Miss Stingley and Miss Sadler were guests of honor on Thursday at a delightful luncheon given by the Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan, covers being laid for about a dozen friends. The decorations were in green and white, a green basket filled with white sweet peas and lilies of the valley forming the centerpiece and the place cards being hand-painted in lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett entertained at a dinner on Friday night, the decorations being in pink with roses and pink shaded lights and white and green tablecloth with white sweet peas and lilies of the valley forming the centerpiece and the place cards being hand-painted in lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Edward Moore leaves on June 11 for Canton, O., where she goes to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Pinkerton.

Mrs. W. S. Loomis and Miss Nellie Pearsall are planning a trip to northern California.

Mrs. Charlotte Newman is here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer.

Bishop F. S. Spaulding and Miss Sara Spaulding leave on Monday for the east, whence they sail early in June for a tour of Europe.

Mrs. Robert Gemmill and her sister, Miss Mabel Anderson, will leave early in June for Europe, where they will spend six months traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Papp will be at home Sunday afternoon, at 35 Seventh East.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice will return today after several weeks spent in California.

Mrs. Nellie Berry left this week for Whittish, Montana, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bert Orr.

Harold Russell will be here early next week to spend a part of the summer with the Dwyer family and his little daughter Doria.

William and George Igleheart, with their aunt, Miss Igleheart, will return here the first of June, after a year spent in Paris and Lucerne, where the boys have been in school.

Another party in honor of Miss Stella Paul was a china shower given by the Misses May and Maud Baxter, Friday evening. Those present were Misses Maud Symons, Lisle Bradford, Beth Bradford, Stella Paul, Maud Baxter, Vera Neal, May Baxter, Elizabeth R. Cannon, Effie Clayton, Maud Neely, Ardell Neely, Lucy Paul, Jane Walkington, Maud Paul, Jean Brown, Holly Baxter, Beth Baxter, and Mrs. Matthew Asper, Mrs. J. H. Paul, Mrs. Elizabeth Paul, Mrs. Ray Bradford and Mrs. S. E. Baxter. Many interesting games were played and dainty refreshments served.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes

Mrs. W. C. Alexander was hostess at a series of bridge teas this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, the first being for Miss Stingley. The decorations were in bridal wreath and peonies, and prizes will join her niece, Miss Mina Pollock, and together they will sail June 20, to spend the summer abroad.

Mrs. W. Walcott Thompson expects to leave the first of June with her children to spend the summer with her mother in New Haven.

Mrs. Joel Nibley and Miss Sybella White Clayton left Thursday for a month's trip to Portland, when they will visit Mr. Nibley's brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Windsor V. Rice are home from California, where they have spent some weeks.

Mrs. George W. Rose and little daughter Gertrude will leave Monday to visit Mr. Rose's parents in Michigan. They will be accompanied by Miss Carolyn Paine, who will spend the summer with relatives in Detroit.

Miss Carrie Calvin of Oakland will be the guest of Miss Lorene Leary next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Masson have gone from San Francisco to Prescott, Ariz., where they will remain for the summer.

Mrs. A. Luman and children have gone to Wyoming, where they will spend the summer. Miss Jeannette Luman is the guest of Miss Halloran until the 1st of June, when she will go to Wyoming.

Mrs. Witcher Jones and her little granddaughter, Sibyl Walker, will leave Monday for California, where they will spend two months.

Miss Margaret McClure will return the 1st of June, after a year spent in school at San Francisco.

Miss Carrie Calvin of San Francisco will spend Saturday here, the guest of Miss Lorene Leary.

Samuel Newhouse, Miss Moore and Miss Jutte are home from Goldfield.

Mrs. James E. Clinton who has spent some time in Oregon, will return the first of June.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Ellerbeck leave this week for an eastern trip.

Mrs. Sam Porter and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Porter's parents in Chicago, will return the first of the week, accompanied by Miss Bierlano, who will spend several weeks here.

Mrs. Katherine Lawrence has returned to her home in Park City, after spending a week here.

Miss Bessie Crumby will arrive today from Nevada to spend 10 days or two weeks with her sister.

Mrs. N. P. Putnam and Miss Louisa Putnam will leave the first of next week for the east, where they will spend the greater part of the summer visiting friends.

Mrs. Ada Collette Levey is here from New York, spending some time with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Daynes.

Dale H. Parke has returned from Philadelphia, where he has just completed his junior year in the law department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. G. F. Steinhilber and her small son Ralph will leave next week for the east. They will be joined later by Dr. Steinhilber and together they will go to the Atlantic coast for a part of the summer.

Mrs. J. W. Houston and two daughters returned Tuesday evening from New York, and are at home for a time at the Keith apartments.

Mrs. Ferry and Mrs. Allen returned Tuesday to their home in Park City, after spending several days with Mrs. George B. Hancock.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers is spending this week with Mrs. Frazer, a former resident of this city, who now lives at Fort Meyer, Va.

Miss Kate Allen will return the middle of June from Lake Forest, Ill., where she has been in school for two years.

Mrs. Phil Clark of Europe is spending this week here with her sister, Mrs. Jackson McChrystal.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Murray left Tuesday for Butte to spend a week or 10 days.

Mrs. Nellie Berry left this week for Whittish, Montana, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bert Orr.

Harold Russell will be here early next week to spend a part of the summer with the Dwyer family and his little daughter Doria.

Is Ivory a toilet or a laundry soap?

Both. It contains such good materials and is so perfectly made that there is no better soap for the toilet and bath.

It is sold at such a reasonable price that it can be used in the laundry—particularly for washing colored goods and articles of delicate texture; linens, laces, embroideries and things of that sort.

Ivory Soap

99 1/2 Per Cent. Pure.

orange blossoms and pink carnations, and a sumptuous supper was served. Only the immediate families were present. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin will be at home after June 1 at Taylorsville, Utah.

The marriage of Miss Retta Pyper to Harry Shepherd will take place June 25, in the Salt Lake Temple followed by an informal reception in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Rogers have issued invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter Mina to Dean R. Daynes on the evening of Wednesday, June 10, at their home, 876 South West Temple street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calder announce the engagement of their daughter

LINGERIE GOWN EN PRINCESS.

The piece de resistance of the summer wardrobe is the lingerie frock built of the most beautiful laces and embroideries and sheer lingerie fabrics that one's purse can afford. Princess models are best in dresses of this type, ample opportunity being afforded for arranging materials to show them off to best advantage. An overskirt effect is described in this instance; Swiss embroidery, with fillet net forming the upper portion of the skirt, to which the frilled and inserted batiste flounce is attached. A pretty flower-trimmed hat and a dainty parasol, and the midsummer dress toilette is quite complete.

Mrs. Hazel Alice to Leslie H. Grosbeck, the wedding to take place early in June.

The date of the wedding of Miss Blanche Hanson to William Joseph Carlwell is set for June 10, and it will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hanson, 752 West South Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Nicholson announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian, to Walter J. Eldredge, the wedding to take place June 10.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farrington announce the engagement of their daughter Lillian E. to David M. Kemp, the wedding to take place June 10.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Morris of Forest Dale announce the engagement of their daughter Hazel to Richard Carl Cowan, the wedding to take place June 17.

Mrs. S. A. Lemon announces the engagement of her daughter, Bridie McArthur, to A. H. Eardley, the wedding to take place the early part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bird announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret to William I. Morgan of Minneapolis. The wedding will take place the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bosley announce the engagement of their daughter, Bessie, to Charles Howard Gibbs of Michigan. The wedding will take place at St. Paul's church, June 10.

Mr. M. M. Walls announces the engagement of her daughter, M. Rose, and Leonard Cahoon, the wedding to take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burling announce the engagement of their daughter, Della, to Frank T. Gerding of Cincinnati. The wedding will take place the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth May, and Clarence O. Healy of Butte, the wedding to take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hines announce the engagement of their daughter, Della, and Frank M. Barrell, the wedding to take place in June.

S. E. Johnson announces the engagement of his daughter, Dora, to Raymond E. Davidson, the wedding to take place early in June.

formerly of this city. The bride elect is a former resident of Salt Lake City, where she has many friends. They will be married at her home in San Francisco, Monday, June 1.

Mrs. Jane T. Pyper announces the engagement of her daughter, Effie, and John McPhie. The wedding will take place Wednesday, June 10.

Cards have been issued by Mrs. Joshua F. Grant for the wedding reception of her daughter, Florence, to William M. Hill, Wednesday evening, June 10, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Following is a list of some of the weddings announced to take place in June:

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Lulu Penrose and Mr. Walter A. Wallace on Wednesday evening, June 10, at the residence of Mrs. John Stringham, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The wedding of Miss Lela Stingley and J. J. Campbell will take place on Tuesday, June 2, at St. Paul's church at 8 o'clock in the evening, and will be followed by a large reception. The bride will be attended by the Misses Mary and Georgiana Moore and the Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan.

The marriage of Miss Eloise Sadler and Jack Gilmer will take place Wednesday evening, June 3, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride, 1245 Eleventh East street. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception. Miss Sadler will be attended by her sister, Mrs. June Sadler Donnell, and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, as matron of honor, and Miss Pearl Van Clot and Miss Florence Kimball, as bridesmaids.

The wedding of Miss Judith Evans and M. J. Brines will take place Wednesday, June 10, in the First Congregational church at high noon, the bridal party will be as follows: Mrs. G. M. Auldbaugh of Omaha, matron of honor, Miss Clara Hill will attend the bride as matron of honor. The ushers will be C. A. Crabbe, Fred C. Smith, John H. Roe, Jack Berkhoeft and G. I. Sheldon. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Elmer I. Goshen. Prof. Arthur Shepherd will preside at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles announce the engagement of their daughter Leona to Ray Hatch. The date of the wedding is set for June 4.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miles announce the engagement of their daughter Donna to Ernest H. Burgess, the wedding to take place early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barton announce the engagement of their daughter, Louella, to Mr. Charles H. Norberg, the wedding to take place June 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Paul announce the engagement of their daughter Stella Maud to William Clive Bradford, the wedding to take place early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Fisher announce the engagement of their daughter Yelva to Mr. John L. Reynolds, the wedding to be in the latter part of June.

The marriage of Miss Anna McClain and Halbert Withersell will take place early in June.

Miss Florence Emery and George F. Webb were married Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Temple, and a pretty reception followed in the evening at the home of the bride, which was decorated with a profusion of flowers. The bride wore a dainty gown of white. A large number of friends were present to extend congratulations and enjoy the pleasant event. Mr. and Mrs. Webb will later be at home at Sugar City, Idaho.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The past week has been unusually active with the large number of commencement exercises and the many parties and dances which have been given for the graduates. The graduates of each of the educational institutions in Ogden have been the guests of honor at receptions, dances and picnic parties to the various resorts. This week more than a hundred teachers in the schools of the city will leave on their summer vacations, which will make things quiet in social circles.

Mrs. T. F. Child of Baker City is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. R. Hallstrom.

Mrs. H. T. Spencer and family leave for Spencer, Ida., the early part of this week, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Max Fligman will be the guest of the Spencers during the month of June.

The Child Culture club met with Mrs. Orson Riser, 2570 Jefferson avenue, on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Freidley at their home, 907 Twenty-fifth street, on Monday evening entertained at cards in honor of a number of school teachers, who leave the city shortly on a summer vacation.

At the Virginia last Sunday Mrs. Ferris entertained at dinner in honor of the guests of the hotel.