

STILL SQUABBLING OVER THE GAME

Aggies and Varsity Cannot Agree
As to Place for Contest.

IT MAY BE DECIDED TODAY.

Whether They Play or Not There
Will be a Game Here Saturday—
Guards to Play Aggies Nov. 27.

The State University and the Agricultural college footballists are still squabbling over their proposed game, that is, as to the place it shall be played. The Logans insist it shall be played on their gridiron, while the Varsity manager says it shall be played on the local campus or not at all.

Manager Swenson of the Logan team came down yesterday for the purpose of settling the difficulty if possible. His contention was that the Aggies played here last year and also that the college students wanted to see the game, and if it is played here they would be under considerable expense to come to Salt Lake. Swenson made some propositions to River but the latter would not consider them. Finally River made a proposition to the Logan manager to bring his team here Saturday, and he gave him until today to decide. It may be that the game will be called off altogether.

In the event that it is called off, the Varsity team here. The Guards will also play the Aggies on Thanksgiving day. So in any event there will be a game here Saturday and the Varsity eleven will have no opposition in their game here for Thanksgiving.

Rifle Club Shoot.

Six members of the Rifle club were on hand at the range yesterday to take part in the regular weekly shoot. (Weathered in the score, making 84.)

OUTSIDE EVENTS.

JOCKEYS GET JOBS.

Big Demand for Them Abroad—
Lenders Are Engaged.

New York, Oct. 9.—The majority of the leading American jockeys have made their engagements for the forthcoming season, and Cochran alone among the high-priced division seems to have been neglected. Perhaps it may be that his work in the saddle has not been on a par with what it was last year, or perhaps the salary which he is said to be expecting has caused bidders for his services to keep aloof. As a rule jockeys have generally made their arrangements for the following season at this time, excepting in some few rare cases where new stars have been developed at New Orleans or San Francisco.

Lyne will go to England for Messrs. Keene; Burns—should be granted a license—has signed to ride next season for W. C. Whitney's stable. There is still another year to run on J. Martin's contract with Julius Fleischmann; the same can be said of Redfern's contract with Colonel Hopper. Michaels will ride again for A. L. Aste; Spencer and O'Connor will go abroad to France; Minder will ride for August Belmont; McFadden for P. J. Dwyer; T. Knight for J. B. Rossiter; Steve for T. J. Hunt; Shaw for G. E. Smith; Rice for McCork; Boleen for A. J. Joyner, and Wonderly for J. H. Carr. Odom has renewed his contract with Captain S. S. Brown, and Ballou—should be recalled, his license—will wear the colors of J. W. Schorr.

Wonderly will return from his home, London, Ont., soon, where he has been staying during illness. It is not expected that he will again don silk this season, though he may feel sufficiently recovered to get into the saddle again before the close of the coming season.

Some few of the racing fraternity still argue that T. Reilly, the president of the Queens County Jockey club, acted within his jurisdiction when he instructed his secretary to refuse the entries of A. L. Aste. The rule clearly states that the stewards of the jockey club can decline to accept an entry or the transfer of an entry; and as Mr. Reilly was not acting as a steward, he had no power to interfere with any matter pertaining to the conduct of the racing. The fact that Mr. Reilly is the president and part proprietor of the Aqueduct track does not enter into the question, as in placing the jockey club in control of the meeting he hands over the track to be used by them as they may think fit.

THE COURSEING CONTEST.

San Francisco Dog Carries Off First Honors.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—The results of the finals in the Waterloo cup coursing contest today at Delmar track resulted in a surprise. Roman Athlete, owned by J. H. Rossiter of San Francisco, got the long end of the purse. Sacramento Boy was picked off along with the winner in the event, but the upset came when Northern Express puppy, which won the recent futurity at Friend, Neb., defeated the California champion in the fourth course of the stake. Roman Athlete was lucky in his course, as all were short, and the element of luck played an important feature. Tiburon, who finished second, was also fortunate in this respect. Northern Express and Barefoot Boy, the third and fourth dogs, ran into hard courses near the close.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

A Well Run Place.

At a children's home in Fort Wayne, Ind., they have entirely abandoned coffee because of the bad effect of it. Mrs. M. B. Gossline, who is the matron in meeting with grand success, she was compelled four years ago to discontinue the use of coffee and after making several experiments concluded that Postum filled the bill and has used it ever since.

She has charge of a family of children numbering from 22 to 30 and writes us, "I give Postum Coffee freely, using no coffee at all. The children are all plump and in good condition. Clear complexion, no sallor or muddy looking faces, such as result from the use of coffee. We always make Postum strictly according to directions and it gives pleasure and health to all."

ROLAND B. MOLINEUX, THE ALLEGED POISONER, AS AN ATHLETE.

Before the arrest of Molineux, who is now on trial in New York for the second time charged with poisoning Mrs. Adams, the alleged murderer was an athlete of some prominence, and the above picture shows him in the costume of a member of the New York Athletic club. The picture was taken shortly before he was arrested.

was Lord Butte, owned by L. F. Bartels of Denver. Warburton, a St. Louis hound, was second. The Waterloo plate went to Black Coon, also owned by J. H. Rossiter, King Cashier being second.

The weather was warm and the jacks a good lot. Summary:

Waterloo cup, third round—Tiburon defeated Dom Pedro, 5-6. Time—50. Prairie Bird defeated Patricia, 1-2. Time—58. Northern Express defeated Cloudburst, 6-2. Time—35. Sacramento Boy defeated Sispuc, 11-6. Time—1:00. Barefoot Boy defeated Laughing Water, 1-1. Time—15. Tiburon defeated Linthgow Lass, 6-1. Time—12. Gace Greenwood defeated Texas Betty, 10-6. Time—42. Roman Athlete defeated Redwood Lad, 5-4. Time—35.

Fourth round—Tiburon defeated Prairie Bird, 5-3. Time—12. Northern Express defeated Sacramento Boy, 10-8. Time—58. Barefoot Boy defeated Union Star, 2-15. Time—3:00. Roman Athlete defeated Grace Greenwood, 2-0. Time—10.

Semi-final—Tiburon defeated Northern Express, 5-4. Time—18. Roman Athlete defeated Barefoot Boy, 5-1. Time—20.

Final—Roman Athlete, J. H. Rossiter, San Francisco, defeated Tiburon, Ralph Ortiwein, St. Louis, 3-1. Time—10.

Waterloo purse, final—Lord Butte, L. F. Bartels, Denver, defeated Warburton, B. F. Jackson, N. S. St. Louis, 11-6. Time—56.

Waterloo plate, final—Black Coon, J. H. Rossiter, San Francisco, defeated King Cashier, J. H. Hoskins, 6-0. Time—20.

Whitney's New Jockey.

New York, Nov. 10.—Arthur Redfern, the light-weight jockey, will don the colors of Wm. C. Whitney next year according to the Herald. Under the contract Redfern is released from another year's engagement with J. E. Pepper, who receives $25,000 for the transfer.

Nine thousand dollars additional is to be paid to the jockey, J. B. Haggin instructed his secretary to refuse the entries of A. L. Aste. The rule clearly states that the stewards of the jockey club can decline to accept an entry or the transfer of an entry; and as Mr. Reilly was not acting as a steward, he had no power to interfere with any matter pertaining to the conduct of the racing. The fact that Mr. Reilly is the president and part proprietor of the Aqueduct track does not enter into the question, as in placing the jockey club in control of the meeting he hands over the track to be used by them as they may think fit.

Fall Meet Opens.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The fall meet of the Washington Jockey club, tomorrow, promises to be the most successful ever held by the club. Extensive improvements have been made in the stands, stables and betting ring and a new surface has been placed on the track, which, it is expected, will make the "going" much faster. The features for tomorrow's card are the Bladenburg handicap steeplechase and the Columbia handicap at seven furlongs.

King May Not Play.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 9.—An official statement as to the status of King, the center of the Harvard varsity election, will be given by the Harvard Crim course, as all were short, and the element of luck played an important feature. Tiburon, who finished second, was also fortunate in this respect. Northern Express and Barefoot Boy, the third and fourth dogs, ran into hard courses near the close.

BALL PLAYER KILLED.

Trick to Prevent Robber and is Shot Down.

Pomero, O., Nov. 9.—Harris Alleman, who pitched in the Southern league this season, and who was signed with Cincinnati for the coming year, was shot and mortally wounded at Mason, W. Va., his home, early today. Alleman had been out with friends and was returning to his home when he found burglars at work in the postoffice.

A sentry on the outside commanded Alleman to halt. He paid no attention to the command and the sentry fired. When Alleman had fallen to the ground the robbers took $300 from him.

MASON IDENTIFIED.

Negro Picks Out Alleged Slayer of Clara Morton.

Boston, Nov. 9.—Geo. L. O. Perry, the negro who pawned the watches taken from the murdered woman, Miss Clara Morton and Miss Agnes McPhie, declared today that Alan C. Mason is the man from whom he received these articles. Perry was taken to the jail in East Cambridge, where Mason, under arrest on the charge of killing Miss

Morton, is confined pending a hearing in the Cambridge court tomorrow. In one of the jail corridors Perry positively identified Mason as the man who had given him the two watches. Mason, by neither look nor word betrayed any knowledge of having seen Perry before. When questioned by Sheriff Fairbank, Mason merely said: "I do not know this man; I never saw him before."

During the day Chief Ryan and Officer Argy of Belmont talked with Perry, and later State Officers New, Dunham, Dexter and others took Perry to jail, where Mason and six others stood in line. Perry walked straight up to Mason, who was second in position, and, pointing his finger at him, said: "This is the man who gave me the watches to pawn."

He was about to leave the room when Sheriff Fairbank asked him if he would not like to talk to Mason, in order that he might make himself sure that Mason was the man. Perry replied that there was no need of that, as he knew who the man was and had known him for a long time. On being returned to his cell Perry was confronted by three newsmen and they identified him as another newboy.

Another visitor at the police station was Mason's attorney. He was accompanied by a woman. This woman did not see Perry, but it was understood that she had been showing that Perry himself, or some other negro, was the real "Jack the Slagger." She is one of the women who were followed by a negro in Cambridge several weeks ago. Mr. Wade places no faith in the statement of Perry that it was Mason who gave the boy the watches.

company in full of the amounts due to local creditors."

Regarding isthmian rights, El Mercurio observes:

"In view of the above considerations we would seriously call the attention of our government that in the event of the present treaty under discussion with us for the opening of the canal being finally signed and ratified it should be clearly stated therein that at least ten per cent of all amounts that will be advanced on account of concessions and privileges granted by Colombia should be handed to the isthmian local government for the construction and maintenance of public works."

"These works are urgently needed: Aqueducts, hospitals, lazarettos, a sanitarium for quarantine patients, public roads, etc." Observations of El Mercurio echo the general isthmian sentiments regarding what the republicans consider to be just demands, and which Minister Concha's predecessor, Dr. Martinez-Silva, strongly advocated and stipulated in the original draft of the preliminary negotiations, which, however, to have been eliminated in the subsequent treaty documents.

Cholera Cases in Philippines.

Manila, Nov. 9.—The cholera continues to be intermittent in different parts of the archipelago. The recorded total of cases is 105,000 and of deaths 67,000. It is believed that the actual number of cases exceeds the recorded number by 20 per cent.

Want Philippine Railroad Franchise

Manila, Nov. 9.—The English syndicate, which operates the Baguio-Banagui railroad, has applied for a franchise to construct a railroad from Guiguinto, province of Bulacan, to Cabanatuan, province of Nueva Ecija. The syndicate has also applied for the extension of the road from Cabanatuan to Apurion on the north coast of Luzon. It wants the government to grant a right of way and to make certain tariff laws and concessions for a term of years. The commission is preparing to enact a railroad law, and will not grant the franchise applied for by the English syndicate until Americans have had a chance to examine the line of the projected road and submit proposals. The railroad line to Aparri will be a part of the Luzon trunk line and the granting of a franchise for its construction is therefore a matter of importance.

Dissenters Surrender Catholic Church

Manila, Nov. 9.—The dissenting native Catholics, who had taken possession of the church at Pandacan, Manila, have now surrendered the edifice to the Roman Catholic church authorities. The dissenters seized a church near Cavite and held services there today. It is thought that the question of property rights involved in these seizures will be taken into court.

Elephant Strangled to Death.

New York, Nov. 8.—Mandarin, an elephant of the Barnum & Bailey circus, died of strangulation to night in his cage on the deck of the steamer Minneapolis. A two inch hawser was placed around Mandarin's neck and each end of the hawser was attached to the drum of a "wreck" engine. The engines were started at the same time, and ran steadily at first until the hawser was taught around the animal's neck when the speed was increased and the tightness tightened. Just eight minutes after the engines had been started Mandarin was pronounced dead. The cage containing the body was then hoisted from the ship and loaded on a large towed about twenty miles to sea and sunk, the cage being weighted with about 5,000 pounds of iron.

Mandarin was the largest elephant here during his stay last year. He weighed five tons and stood nine feet ten inches high. The elephant had recently become unmanageable, rendering his destruction necessary.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The recital to be given this evening by Miss Carrie Bridwell at the Tabernacle promises to be a social as well as a musical event, a large number of parties having been formed to attend. Miss Bridwell made many warm friends here during her short stay last year, and will no doubt receive a warm testimony of their esteem tonight.

Miss Bridwell was the guest of honor at a delightful informal reception yesterday given by her sister, Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson. The pretty rooms of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill were thronged for the occasion, and a large number were present to greet the charming artist. Delightful music was rendered by Mrs. Osborne, Prof. Anderson and the Ashworth-Squires quartet.

Senator and Mrs. Kearns have issued invitations for two receptions to take place on the evenings of Nov. 17 and 18, when their new home will be thrown open for the entertainment of a large number of friends.

The marriage of Miss Edna Swenson and Mr. William G. Grimesel will take place tonight at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Swenson.

The engagement of Miss Lena McIntosh to Mr. Andrew J. Scott is announced. The wedding is to take place Nov. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Holding and family have moved from Waterloo and are at No. 31 North First West street.

Mr. McPherson Boyd and Mr. G. Griffin will leave shortly for California.

Miss Cahill of Delaware is the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Plummer.

Mrs. Emily Shepherd and son have returned from England.

One Minute Cough Cure

Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures Croup, Croup, Croup, Whooping Cough, Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E. Penner, Manly, Ind., and contracted a severe cold and cough. I called rapidly, lost 48 pounds. My druggist recommended One Minute Cough Cure. The first bottle brought relief; several cures. I am back to my old weight, 148 pounds. One Minute Cough Cure cures the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, dries out inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children. Z. C. M. I. WOMAN SHOT ON THE TRAIN.

Mrs. Starton of Mammoth Receives
A Bullet in the Arm.

GUILTY PARTY NOT KNOWN.

Deliberately Fired into a Rio Grande
Train, the Bullet Barely Missing
Several Others.

The passengers on train No. 8 of the Tintic branch of the Rio Grande Western, which left this city about 5 p. m. Saturday afternoon, were treated to a wild-west exhibition near Goshen, which for a time made them believe that a band of robbers were attempting to hold up the train. They were mistaken in that belief, however, but the affair was serious enough at any rate, one woman passenger being shot through the arm and several others having narrow escapes from being seriously wounded. The shots were fired into the train by an unknown person, when it was flying along at an unusual rate of speed on account of being about a half hour behind time.

Mrs. H. T. Starton, of Mammoth, is the woman who was shot. She was traveling with her husband from Provo to her home, and was sitting on the west side of the car and her husband on the east side. When the shots were fired, the bullet passed through the elbow, it then passed within a few inches of her husband's breast and crashed through the window on the opposite side of the car, after passing uncomfortably close to S. E. Ware's head, who occupied the seat across the aisle from Mr. and Mrs. Starton. The second bullet passed through the side of the car under the seat occupied by Mrs. Starton and her husband.

The woman screamed and fainted when the first shot was fired, and every one in the car thought she had been killed. They thought the train was being held up and immediately grabbed their valuables and sought safety beneath their seats. The train crew, after it was discovered that no attempt was being made to hold up the train, went through and assured the passengers that there was no danger. The affair occurred about 7:15 at night and shortly after the train reached Goshen, the person who fired the shot was seen. When the train reached Goshen, Mrs. Starton's wound was dressed and she proceeded on her journey.

When the train was returning yesterday morning, as it neared the same place, the engineer noticed a lone horseman riding toward the train and waving a revolver in his hand. The train sped past him and he turned his horse and started in pursuit, firing at the train as it left him behind. He fired three shots, the first of which struck the train and then disappeared toward the mountains. Conductor Richmond, who had charge of the train, came back yesterday morning, believing that the man was crazy and imagining he is a train robber, or he might have been some drunken rascal, although he did not ride as if he were drunk.

It was reported by Sheriff Storrs, of Provo, who will attempt to capture the horseman and kill some one who attacks another train and kills some one.

EMINENT BELGIAN HERE.

Dr. Stoeckart, Author and Authority on Law, a Visitor to Salt Lake.

Dr. Stoeckart of Brussels, and wife are guests at the Knutsford. Mons. Stoeckart is an authority on international law and the author of text books on that subject. He says the reports of the labor riots in Belgium have been greatly exaggerated, and one cause of trouble has been the local election system by which some men have a number of votes, instead of the being one vote to each man in this country. He says that owing to the overcrowded condition of Belgium there is no field for investment, and capital is congested in the savings bank. Interest is but 2 and 2 1/2 per cent. One of the purposes of his present trip is to find profitable and safe American investments for this idle capital, and he is satisfied that he could secure $500,000 if desirable opportunities presented themselves. He is quite partial to municipal bonds. A peculiar feature of this accumulated capital in Belgium is the small average of the deposits in the banks, and the larger deposits will hardly exceed $500, while the average is less than $100.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years.

Mr. C. Hancy, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and druggists could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Look for the name DeWitt on the packages—all others are cheap worthless counterfeits. Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 112-114 Main street.

SMALLPOX RAGING.

Malady Has Spread From American Fork to Bingham.

From reports that reached County Physician Mayo on Saturday afternoon, smallpox has gained quite a foothold at American Fork and has spread to Bingham and Murray. It is said that there are 40 cases of the disease at American Fork and the authorities there have been unable to enforce such quarantine regulations as would prevent it from spreading. During the past two days five cases have developed in Bingham, which were traced to American Fork. It was thought that produce brought to Bingham from the Fork was a source of infection.

Dr. Straup, the Bingham health official, investigated the conditions at American Fork and, after learning of the great number of cases there, called the attention of the Salt Lake county commissioners and physicians to the matter, and he was authorized to establish a defensive quarantine regulation at Bingham against American Fork and to rigidly enforce the same. Several cases have developed in Murray which were also traced to American Fork, so it is probable that Murray will be quarantined also. County Physician Mayo fears that the disease has been scattered broadcast, and that this city and state will have a siege of it this winter. The cases so far have been very mild, no deaths having as yet been reported.

WAITED FIFTY YEARS FOR HER

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram K. Johnson are spending their honeymoon at Cazenovia, N. Y. They have just been married, the groom waiting 50 years for his bride. Mr. Johnson is 78 years old and Mrs. Johnson is 20.

Fifty years ago Johnson fell in love with pretty Hattie Balle. Both were then living in Syracuse. Johnson resolved to keep his feelings to himself until he was in a position to support a wife. He left for Chicago, where he entered the employ of Field & Leiter. They recognized the young man's ability and set him up in business in a small Northbrook town. It was not long before he heard that the girl he loved was married to another. He never married. In the meantime the girl raised a family, lost her husband and settled down to pass the remainder of her days with her children and grandchildren. A short time ago Johnson called at her home. She stepped into the parlor, not recognizing him, and asked: "Did you wish me?"

"Yes, Hattie, I want you," was the reply.

"Yes, because he had been so faithful over the long years that I married him," says Mrs. Johnson. "If he had married it would have been different, but he waited so long and patiently I could not refuse him."

The couple are as happy as younger lovers. They are at the Johnson home in Cazenovia.—New York Sun.

TERMINUS NOT DEPENDABLE.

Lincoln was once approached with a scheme by some peace-makers who thought they had hit upon a means of ending the trouble with the South. He listened with patience, and said that, while it seemed possible to bridge over the trouble between the two sections, he had doubts about the good faith of the Confederacy in the transaction. To illustrate his point, he told a story of a churchman named Brown, who, elected chairman of a committee to plan a bridge over a dangerous divide, and his friend Jones, an architect, could do the work. Jones, when sent for, told the committee he could, if desired, build a bridge from here to the infernal regions. The committee thought the remark sacrilegious, and said so, whereupon Brown, feeling that Jones's reputation rested with him, arose and said: "Gentlemen, I have known Mr. Jones some years, and have such faith in his judgment, ability and resources, that if he said he could build a bridge to hades, I'd believe him—but, gentlemen, I confess I might have some doubts about the security of the abutment on the other side."—Philadelphia Ledger.

WENT HIM ONE BETTER.

A well known Glasgow divine related the following anecdote, showing that the ready wit of a countryman was more than a match for him.

He was going to the country for his holidays and was in a railway train when the young man entered. In a short time the two commenced conversation, in the course of which the clergyman asked the youth what he worked at.

"I am a coupler, sir," was the reply. "So am I," responded the clergyman.

The youth looked at him for a minute or so, then burst into a fit of laughter and said: "Oh, I see; ye're a minister. Ye marry folks. But I gang farther than ye dae. I balth couple and uncouple."

The clergyman laughed heartily and acknowledged that the youth had the better of the sally.—(Illinois State Register.)

SIX-FOOT WOMEN ARE SCARCE.

The Professional Women's League of New York has brought out two court cases regarding the physical proportions of women. The league has advertised for fifty young women six feet tall to act as "policemen" at the women's exhibit in Madison Square Garden next October. Most of the women who applied fell fully six inches below the required standard, and not a single one has so far qualified.

One applicant stood six feet high, but she was built so much like a tape measure that the secretary declined to furnish her with a mace. Another came forward with the argument that, while she was only five feet tall, her lateral proportions were vast enough to make her an object of terror to wrong-doers at the exhibition. Of the other applicants the secretary said: "Most of them are thin as shad and shaped like hoop poles—awkward, ungainly, soured. It does not seem to agree with most women to be six feet tall. They get weary and are nervous from being stared at so much." Stated at? Certainly. Have you any idea what a six-foot woman looks like? Well, she is as tall, relatively, as a seven-foot man. Give her a pair of high-heeled boots and a picture hat and she can get a job in any dime museum.—(Unidentified.)
