

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JAN 18, 1897. A VISIT TO HARRY HAYES.

He is not satisfied with Communication to Imprisonment for Life.

The News representative visited Harry Hayes yesterday, in the county jail through the courtesy of Sheriff Wilcox. Hayes had been informed of the action of the state board of pardons, on Saturday, earlier in the day by Sheriff Morris and Deputy Sheriff Wooty. He told them that he did not want any communication to the legislature and would not accept it. When asked how he was going to spend his life he concluded that he would have to make the best of it. He expressed himself to great concern over the effect that his communication would have on his family. He would not live long in prison, being comparatively old, and he would like to see his wife and children. He would like to see his wife and children. He would like to see his wife and children. He would like to see his wife and children.
