SCHOOL BOARD BUSINESS. Webster Building Will soon be Ready for Occupancy—Election Returns Not Counted.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION met last night and did not discuss the affairs relative to the school which, as you know, has just been received from the people's subscription to the effect that under the law Monday next would be the time to go to work.

When the subject of the special meeting held the day before was raised, the board was restricted to discussing all matters of the school in the requirement of law as participated in between Messrs. All and Webster.

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL CHESTNUTS. A. H. CLAWSON, JR., in charge.
