He stated that he wished to apologize for the objections made by him yesterday in regard to the admis-sion of Mr. Garwood, that he didn' know until after his argument that he had been discharged by King. He found out at that time that the discharge was dated two weeks ago, but e had not received it until after court adjourned yesterday morning. He gave notice, in order to protect himself, that he had borne the costs of the appeal and that none of the money had been refunded to him.

There are three principal grounds for appeal as set forth in the brief by Mr. Wanless and argued by him yesterday. It is contended that the information should have alleged an attempt to com-mit robbery at the time the murder was committed, instead of the bare charge of murder in the first degree. It it also argued that the court erred allowing the testimony of a witness be read at the trial instead of having the witness appear before the jury. The third ground is that the court erred in answering questions of a juror concern-stance in seven of the nineteen provinces of Luzon. Gen. Otis, answering a question by Senator Culberson, said he never trusted native officers because they were too cruel to their men. He said he could trust their loyalty but they treated their captives with too much cruelty. They were as bad as the insur-gents, said he. When he left the Philippines, he said, "the war, as war," had ceased. An-"the war, as war," had ceased. An-swering a question by Senator Hale, Gen, Otis said he saw no difficulty in withdrawing a material number of troops from the islands. The native forces, he declared to be very neces-sary and he said there was no peace in Nardie ward the patty are police was or Manila until the native police was or-ganized. Gen. Otis said that when he left Manlia he apprehended further trouble because there was a certain element which dominated the ignorant classes. The great majority, however, wanted peace. No armed bands of any importance, he said, were opposed to the United States at the time. Asked by Senator Hale where the supplies, money, arms, etc., of the insurgents came from, Gen, Otis said they received 2,500 rifles from Admiral Dewey and they also received from Hongkong cer-

MORE TROUBLE.

Five Men Involved in De Shazzo's Escape to be Arrested.

Officer Gillespie with Bert De Shazzo as his prisoner, refurned last night about 7 o'clock from Logan. De Shazzo is now locked up in the city jail pending the filing of complaints against him by the county authorities.

Officer Gillespie tells an entirely dif-ferent story than that related by the prisoner. He says that he knows De Shazzo had a revolver the night the officers attempted to arrest him, and the young man's attempt to escape from Sheriff Rigby has involved five other men who are to be arrested for aiding a criminal to escape. According to the officer, at the time De Shazzo went into the tent to change his clothing, five men who were em ployed at Jorgensen's camp told him if he did not want to go with the officer they would assist him to escape. They told him to go into the tent on the pretext of changing his clothes, and then they showed him the way to escape from the rear and gave him directions to the man Lewis with instruc-tions to say that Jorgensen had sent him to borrow a horse. After the horse was taken from the prisoner, he ran nearly 15 miles through snow and mud, and when he crawled into the hay stack he was well nigh exhausted. Gil-lesple says that De Shazzo tried several times to get separated from him during the trip from Logan, but he gave him no chance to effect another escape. The gun which was taken away from him by Sheriff Rigby will reach here this evening from Logan.
