operators Are Very Stubborn-They Beiuse to Consider the Political Aspect of the Case.

New York, Oct. 9 .- Numerous conferences looking to the settlement of the estbracite coal miners' strike were held in this city today, but tonight at po'clock no evidence had been given to the public that any results had been resched. Rumors of settlement flew tack and fast, but any one of the confaces when approached almost invarusis answered questions concerning the consultation: "I have nothing to sy." The conferences are still going in tonight, but the impression prevails that if any basis of settlement is reached it will not be announced until temprow following a metting to be held at United States Senator Platt's dan town office at 10 o'clock. The story of the day really centers shout the meeting held in the after-the operators who, according to the gentlemen already quoted, declared that party politics should not be injected into the situation. The operators further expressed their confidence in the integrity of the courts and said that they had no fear of the success of any attack that 'might be made through the state legislatures upon their property interests. This brought the ference to a close and the gentlemen separated

Shortly afterward Gen. Thomas of the Erie had a long talk with J. Pierpont Morgan, the nature of the conversation not being disclosed by either gentle-man. It is asserted on what appears to be good authority that Mr. Morgan was in communication during the day with some of the pollticians who conferred with the operators, but that he de-elined to be placed in the attitude of a party to the controversy,

Edward Interested in Education Bill

New York, Oct, 10 .- King Edward is reported to be taking an acrive inter-est in the education bill and in ecclesi-astic appointments, cables the London correspondent of the Tribune. His intervention was decisive when peace was concluded in South Africa last spring, and without becoming a partisan of either party he has emerged from the back ground, where Queen Victoria was content to remain during her long reign He is well informed respecting public affairs and is inclined to make his influ ence felt. The prime minister's consul with the sovereign respectin tations ministerial measures and selections i important offices are less perfunctor than formerly. The king has his opin lons, which are free from a partisa bins, which are the from a partisic bins, and he has his preferences, espe-ially when ecclesiastical appointments are under consideration. Edward VII will return to London for a few hours after the coming cabinet meeting but Premier Balfour is likely to confer with during the royal visit at North Berwick.

Miss Lathrop Sues Judge Hallett,

Denver, Colo., Oct. 10.-Suit has been filed in the district court by Miss Mary F. Lathrop against Juage Moses Haiett, of the United States court, execu-tor and trustee of the estate of the late George W, Clayton, to recover $50,000 for alleged legal services rendered to the Clayton estate. The will of Georg W. Clayton created a must fund of $1, 900,000 for the establishment in Denver of a college for poor white male orphans and Miss Lathrop bases her claim on alleged services in defending a suit which sought to have the trust declared void and the fund distributed among Clayton's heirs.
