is the Congressional Record of Oct. 10th, appears some further discussion of the Industrial Home maddle. From this it appears that in famishias accounts of income and expenditures, the sum of $8,800 received from the Treasury Department was not accounted for in any way. Mr. Barnes, chairman of the committee of confer4 ence cited this as evidence that business methods did not seem to prevail in the Home management. The receipts, Mr. Burnes showed, were placed at $40,000, and the expenditures Mexico, is catirely incorrect. The $13,500 for the Home and $10,590 for land for a ball fing, making a total ex-

Greece is a mail and comparatively in-significant kingdom. Yet there is a majesty and a magic in the very word Greece Prince Constantine is also closely allied with both the great House of Romanoff and the historic and interesting kingdom of Denmark, and is therefore what might be termed a very desirable consort. There are, however, other contingencies which have evidently not been absent from the mind of the German Emperor, and still less from the cogitations of Prince Bismarck. The public has not for-gotten the fact that only last spring the Imperial Chancelor interposed his objections to the marriage of this young y's sister to the Prince of Bulgar Is it possible that Bismarck prefers Greece to Bulgaria? By no means, but simply this, that Bismarck is willing that the world shall believe that Germany is not concerned in the affairs of the Balkan peninsula, and that the defence of these provinces against the designs of Russia devolves on other contries, such as Turkey, Austria, England and Italy. Bulgaria has not abandoned and does not mean to abandon one iota of those pretensions, which gave such umbrage to the court and cabinet of St. Petersburg. On the contrary she has been growing daily in force, man-hood and self-reliance. The bond be-tween Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia has been immensely strengthened alike by the growth of popular senti-ment and by certain broad, generous measures taken in the face of the world. Only last week the Sulan reluctantly acknowledged the Postal and Commercial Union that Rou-mella has made with Balgaria. Ia a word, all the world admits that Bul-garia has a future. But that can be CONGRESSIONAL APPROPRIA TIONS.
