Social Gossip

The week has been comparatively quiet after the many large holiday affairs of last week, but a number of events of a more or less informal nature have been held each day. The most notable is the birthday celebration today honoring the eightieth anniversary of Mrs. E. B. Wells whose prominence and popularity make her probably the most notable of the Utah women of today. The Relief society, of which she is an officer, this afternoon gave a large open reception in her honor, the affair being of peculiar note for the reason that her birthday comes on Feb. 29, so that she has a real anniversary only once in four years. The "News" with many other warm friends join in congratulations and wishes for "many happy returns of the day."

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse was hostess at a luncheon and bridge party on Thursday at her home, the decorations being done in white carnations and ferns in the dining room, and American Beauty roses in the drawing room. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Richard Stingley and Mrs. George Moore and prizes in the card contest went to Mrs. J. B. Riecke, Mrs. Walter G. Filer, Mrs. W. S. McCormick and Miss Keogh. Those present were Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Stingley and Mrs. M. A. Stingley, Mrs. Newhouse's mother, Mrs. Windsor Y. Rice, Mrs. George R. Holman, Mrs. W. S. McCormick, Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Mrs. E. S. Frier, Mrs. A. H. Bird, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. Walter G. Filer, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. J. B. Riecke, Mrs. W. E. Fife, Mrs. Frank Swindler and Miss Keogh.

One of the largest events of the week was the ball given at Ogden hall last night by the high school cadets, among the guests being Gov. Cutler and staff and several members of the National Guard. The guard mounted band will be entertaining features and the entire affair successful.
